YOU DECIDE WHO IS THE BEST OF ORANGEVALE

BEST OF ORANGEVALE 2016

Shining a spotlight on Orangevale's Small Businesses, the Best of Orangevale will announce the results of its 2016 competition on Friday, March 3.

The Best of Orangevale is a local competition produced by the Orangevale View and sponsored by the Orangevale Chamber of Commerce and the Orangevale Grange. The Best of Orangevale will surely become considered to be Orangevale's premier business award.

Thousands of Votes from organizations and individuals are expected to be submitted on the Orangevale View website this year for consideration in categories including Citizen of the Year, Teacher of the Year, Principal of the Year, and among others. The online voting process will determine the Winners and Runner-Ups. With business owners, community supporters, and their guests in attendance, the winners will be announced at an elegant award banquet at the Orangevale Grange on Walnut Ave in Orangevale on March 3rd.

Evening Includes; Dinner, Non-Alcoholic Beverage, No Host Bar, Live Music, Raffle and Award Presentation. Doors Open at 6 pm. Dinner Served 6:30 pm. Awards 7:30 pm.

Visit www.OVVIEW.com to vote and purchase tickets for the award banquet

ABOUT THE ORANGEVALE VIEW

The "Orangevale View" – the ultimate, award-winning community newspaper – serves Orangevale and surrounding areas, including Fair Oaks, Citrus Heights, and Folsom, CA. With a present estimated readership of more than 37,000, this FREE paper grows with every issue. It is delivered twice a month to at least 15,000 residents' homes and to more than 100 high traffic locations.

The views and opinions printed within are not necessarily those of Publisher Brad Tatum or the Orangevale View staff. Rather, the views and opinions expressed are those of each individual contributor.

SUBMISSION POLICIES:

Submissions from you, our readers, are always welcome, for this is YOUR newspaper. We await school, church, or sports team materials, anniversaries, births, special occasions, memorials, or other items of interest. Donations are encouraged and accepted for anniversaries, births, and other special milestones and announcements. Publication is at the discretion of the Orangevale View staff.

Requirements are simple:

- (1) Acknowledge that either you are the author or you have permission to publish from the original author;
- (2) Articles should not exceed 300 words. We like Community Calendar items of 45 words or less.
- (3) Format: Microsoft Word format with photos at least 300 dpi JPEG or PDF.

Please use this format so we do not have to send your work back to you for corrections.

(4) The View does not verify the accuracy of your submissions, and in some cases, dates and information are subject to change.

(5) Please email submissions, to YOUR newspaper. The email address is editor@ovview.com. It is you, our contributors, readers and advertisers who make the Orangevale View a newspaper you want to read.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ORANGEVALE 4-H

Orangevale 4-H is a local non-profit youth group within our community (local, county, state and national levels!) We cater to area youth ages 5-19. 4-H programs encourage youth to learn leadership and life skills through hands-on activities by participating in different projects, events and camps.

Orangevale 4-H club offers a wide variety of projects, including horses, welding, outdoor adventure, poultry, crochet, dog and baking. See our website because we have so many projects to choose from!

The regular 4-H year runs from September until July. Enrollment for the 2016-2017 year is ending December 31st! We are an organization of volunteer adults and parents, and are always looking for more volunteers to help with the club, oversee events or to run projects each year.

You can find us volunteering at the Orangevale Grange Pancake Breakfast, holding local fundraisers and competing in activities like the Sacramento County Fair in May.

Our community club meetings are held the second Wednesday of every month (except December) at 6:30pm.

Please see our website for more information, or email us at orangevale4-h@outlook.com <http://orangevale4-h.weebly.com>

Dustin "D" Patrick Merrill left us peacefully at his home in North Ogden Utah, the early morning of December 2, 2016. with his wife by his side, with his dad near by.

Dustin was born on February 22, 1989 in Sacramento, California. Where he spent most of his childhood playing baseball. Dustin moved to Utah in his late Teenage years. Working at several jobs in Utah, He settled down where he became a self-taught Diesel Mechanic at the Ogden Utah, Boss Shop. He married the love of his life Janie Hilton on December 14, 2014. As many of you know, Dustin had been battling cancer for almost 3 years. He put up one hell of a fight, but the cancer was too aggressive and spread all over his abdomen, taking over his intestines and attaching to other organs and his lymph nodes. Dustin was a loving husband, dad, son, brother, and friend. He always helped others and would give the shirt off his back without question. His charm and smile enlightened the lives of so many. He was their rock and support system. He will be missed far more than words can explain. Dustin is survived by his wife, Janie Mae Hilton, his daughter Kaydance Merrill, his mother, Shelly Becker (Utah), father, Monte Merrill (Orangevale), his grandparents, 5 brothers, 3 sister and a multitude of cousins, aunts, uncles and every friend he's touched.

This obituary for all his family and friends that lived in the Sacramento Area

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Miss Grace Evelyn Russell born December 30, 2016 weighing 7lbs 2oz, 19 inches long. Congratulations to the proud parents Brian, Sara and big brother, Shane.

A New Year's Resolution LAST A LIFETIME OR A LIFETIME RESOLUTION

Welcome 2017, welcome to opportunities to make the New Year the best it can be for you and your community. Are you tired of the same old New Year's resolutions? How many years of good intentions to eat better, exercise more, and generally improve yourself have gone by the way? Looking outside yourself and your comfort zone, have you thought your energies might better serve you as you serve your community?

Since 1913 local women sharing the volunteer spirit have joined The Orangevale Woman's Club. Think about that, since 1913. For an organization to exist one hundred and fourteen years requires commitment of the club to the community and the community to the club. OVWC successfully models the ideals of volunteerism that make this relationship work.

The women of the OVWC are your neighbors, they're the moms from your children's schools, and they're the shoppers you chat with at the grocery store. These are women who now have time and the desire to contribute to the community. Twenty new members brought their ideas and talents into the group this year while respecting the traditions and structure of the well-established organization. If volunteerism calls to your spirit in this New Year, here is your opportunity. Join the OVWC and make new friends while finding your place within the many projects – local schools, food banks, and other charitable causes supported by our membership.

OVWC meetings are held the first Tuesday September through May at the OV Community Center 6826 Hazel Avenue at 11:00 a.m. For further information visit the OVWC website at <http://www.orangevalewomensclub.org> or contact Marilyn at 916-764-6816. We look forward to seeing you!

FRECKLEFACE STRAWBERRY COMES TO ROSEVILLE!

ROSEVILLE, CA — The Roseville Theatre Arts Academy (RTAA) is proud to present Freckleface Strawberry The Musical, as part of their continuing Treehouse Players Series. Tickets are $8.00 (plus ticketing fee) at rosevilletheatreartsacademy.com

Freckleface Strawberry will do anything to get rid of her freckles - from scrubbing them with soap, to caking on makeup, and even wearing a ski mask to school! Will Freckleface be brave enough to finally face her complexion in the mirror? With the help of her lovable schoolmates including an amazingly talented ballerina, a cutie jock, a charming ditz, and a totally kooky teacher, Freckleface learns that everyone is different - and that's what makes everyone special.

Freckleface Strawberry The Musical, runs January 21st through February 4th, 2017 with performances on Saturdays at 11:00am and 2:00pm. Tickets are $8 (plus ticketing fee) through rosevilletheatreartsacademy.com. The Roseville Theatre Arts Academy is located at 241 Vernon St, Roseville, CA 95678 in the historic Roseville Theatre.

The Roseville Theatre Arts Academy is a non-profit organization dedicated to fostering theatre arts within the Roseville community. Programs include children's workshops each season, a "Master Series" for more experienced actors, a Community Choir, and Academy classes in voice, dance and drama. The 2016-2017 season is sponsored by Consolidated Communications Inc. and continues with the Master Series production of James and the Giant Peach March 10th through the 25th, 2017.

VIBRANT AND ELECTRIC, DRUMLINE LIVE RETURNS TO FOLSOM WITH AN ALL-NEW SHOW

This year, DrumLine Live includes tributes to Prince & MJ; local legends Grant Drum Line to open each performance (January 3, 2016 Folsom, CA) With dazzling choreography, explosive percussion and tributes to Michael Jackson and Prince, DRUMLine Live returns to Folsom with a brand new show. A thrilling spectacle that pays homage to the show-style marching popularized at historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs), DRUMLine Live provides a soul-stirring revue of some of America's favorite music. With musical highlights from hip-hop, Top 40, American soul, gospel, jazz and other musical genres, the 35-member cast—a world-class ensemble of percussionists, musicians and dancers—takes the audience on a journey infused with colorful, choreographed routines, vibrant costumes, and heavy doses of drum riffs and cadences.

Opening all three shows will be the region's own Grant Drum Line from Grant High School.

The performance of DRUMLine Live will take place at the Harris Center Thursday, January 19, 2017 at 7 pm and Friday, January 20 at 3 pm and 7 pm, with a 10% discount for Friday matinee single tickets. Tickets are on sale $39-$69; Premium $75. Tickets are available online at www.harriscenter.net or from Harris Center Ticket Office at 916-608-6888 from noon to 6 pm, Monday through Saturday, and two hours before show time. Parking is included in the price of the ticket. Harris Center is located on the west side of Folsom Lake College campus in Folsom, CA, facing East Bidwell Street.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

FROM READER: Bob

I have read two letters in your newspaper and I completely side with the one by Brook Damiano. This letter is my personal opinion based on what I have read in Dr. Hayes letter. I found Dr. Hayes's letter to be offensive considering this is a profit making organization that seeks to make a profit off the mentally ill using any argument it can including the bible quotes to force itself on a neighborhood that does not want it for the safety of the children living nearby. People moved to Orangevale to raise families and live a decent life and not become forcibly involved in helping a profit making organization that is willing to risk our way of life and our families including children just so they can make a dollar. Please look at the constant ads on Channel 64-3 and 64-3 about the violence this clients bring when they go off medication, leave the facility, etc. I find it interesting that Dr. Hayes brings up old stereotypes to try and raise false guilt feelings because people do not want this kind of business in it's neighborhood. Is this company willing to pay for all claims and is Dr. Hayes willing to be personally responsible and serve the jail time anytime one of these clients violates felony laws. Is she willing to put her personal safety, personal freedom, and personal wealth to back up what she claims to believe and is trying to force on local residents?

We already have enough mentally ill people walking the streets of Orangevale that refuse treatment and do not want to get better. The law protects that right and we have to live with their crimes, panhandling, and destruction of property. I have been assaulted by one such person who leaves his facility and refuses to go back and we have had to run a number of them off in Orangevale when the cops refuse to do anything.

We are tired of these so-called clients robbing us, scaring our children, and assaulting people. The community has no final say in who is housed in this proposed facility due to privacy laws on medical records. I would not trust Dr. Hayes assurances when her job is to get this facility approved. I bet she lives no where close to the proposed site and will not be a resident of Orangevale for long once her job is done.

I encourage everyone to fight this facility whether you live near it or not and be prepared to sue everyone including Dr Hayes and hold them personally responsible for the action of those they are trying to force upon us. It is time we stand up to Dr, Hayes and say something before our children are put at risk by an uncaring heartless for profit organizations that would risk our children and families to make a dollar. Let Dr. Hayes live across the street from the facility, if they manage to build one, and let the staff do the same thing. I have seen hypocrisy sink to unbelievable sink to some deep levels but Dr. Hayes takes it to a new lower level. I have lived here forty years and if have read a lot of letters but this is one of the worst in my personal opinion. when your facility is rejected I hope you leave Orangevale Dr.Hayes because if you cannot put the safety and well being of children before the making of a dollar you are not the type of person we want in Orangevale.

Ms Damiano has a right to raise her kids in a safe environment without risk of criminal behavior or an organization that will use privacy laws and politicians to protect their profits. As neighbors we need to stand up and support the people most impacted by an organization that brings no benefits to Orangevale and nothing positive. Ms Damiano did not cause the problems their clients suffer from so send them back to their own communities for service.

Bob

FROM READER: Kristen

It has been a very interesting reading the recent articles regarding the proposed Crisis Residential Home on Elm Ave. in Orangevale. Dawn M Hayes MD chooses to address "that's fine, just not in my neighborhood". Where I read "The point is the provider has picked the wrong location." written by Brooke Damiano. I would like to offer a more factual perspective:

FACT

1. There are 181 school days in a year.
 2. 9048 Elm. Ave has a frontage on Elm Ave. that stretches more than 100 feet
 3. From 7:00 AM to 8:00 AM on said school days more than one hundred 11,12, and 13 year old students walk unaccompanied to school, on this frontage.
 4. From 2:30 PM to 3:30 PM the same students walk unaccompanied home from school.
 5. A number of these students wait up to 45 minutes, unaccompanied at this location.
 6. In order to enter or exit the property at 9048 Elm Ave, adult patients will interact with these unaccompanied students.
 7. Any officer responding to a crisis at this time will be forced to deal with the added factor of innocent children.
- These facts are constants. When looking for a site designed to help mentally ill persons in crisis safely and successfully transition back into the community, did the Board of Directors of Turning Point Community Programs factor in these constants? I believe any reasonable person considering these facts could conclude that Turning Point is actually setting these patients up for failure. There are 005 square miles in Sacramento County. Just 7,000 feet away, (in the same neighborhood) from this unresearched site is a property that would ideally serve the purpose for these patients. None of these risk factors affect this property. It is time to place accountability where it belongs. It is clear to me that Turning Point bought 9048 Elm Ave.

without knowing these risk factors. Rather than admit to this error and take steps to rectify it, they have put their bottom line above the needs of the patients they purport to help. The continued pursuit of a use permit for this property supports this fact.

The county planner Thomas Vogt needs to apply his knowledge of statistical methods and analysis, and provide all Sacramento County citizens an accurate result. I urge all Sacramento County residents to gather the facts, form their own opinion and send that opinion to vogtt@saccounty.net . Control NO: PLNP2016-00419. The project name: Turning Point Residential Care Facility.

Given the risk factors, the county should take accountability and protect two of the most vulnerable demographics in our county, children and adults in crisis. If we do not take accountability now twelve jurors will assign accountability later.

Thank You,

Kristen

DID YOU KNOW?

Thinking of Becoming A Cosigner?

Although agreeing to help a friend or family member by 'cosigning' for them may seem like a good idea, there are a few important things you should know before signing on the bottom line.

The first and most important thing to remember is that as a 'cosigner', you will always be responsible for the payments and balance of the loan, until it is either paid off completely or the primary borrower refinances it and removes you from the loan. Whether you live in the house or not, you are just as responsible as the party you cosigned for. Be extremely leery of anyone who tells you that you are only on the contract for a short/limited time. If the primary borrower cannot meet their financial obligation, then you as the cosigner will be contacted and expected to make the payment, bring the account current (if delinquent) and suffer all the financial consequences just as if you had obtained the loan in your name only.

You should also know that being a 'cosigner' will also affect your credit score. The loan and all its information will be reported and included in your credit report; again, just as if you had purchased the property yourself. Any and all derogatory information such as late payments, defaults ect... will be reflected on your record.

Always do your homework. Be sure that the party who is asking for help has the financial ability to make the payments and is responsible enough to fulfill all the other financial obligations that comes with owning property. Ask questions, request copies of bank statements and paystubs, take a peek at their credit report if need be. Be absolutely sure before you sign the bottom line, it's your financial reputation at risk too.

SHOULD I INCLUDE MY GRANDCHILDREN IN MY WILL?

4 Tips to Avoid Common Problems

Grandparents usually share a special bond with their grandchildren and like to see them succeed. Some would like to pass financial stability to their grandchildren. However, proper precautions need to be taken to look out for their grandchildren's well-being.

1. Include an age stipulation.

When we pass on, if they are under 18, or financially immature, they could receive a large inheritance before they know how to handle it. The inheritance could be easily wasted. To avoid this, you can create a long-term trust that includes continued management of assets.

2. Don't give it all in a lump sum.

The inheritance could be quickly squandered if your grandchildren have not learned how to handle large sums of money, regardless of their age. There are options available, such as staggering their distributions or a "beneficiary controlled" trust.

3. Communicate with them on how you'd like them to use the inheritance.

If you have specific intentions for what you want the inheritance to be used for, such as: college, or buying a house, you can't expect it to happen if you don't communicate it to them in your will or trust. Clarify your intentions and wishes in your will.

4. Avoid ambiguity.

Be clear concerning your grandchildren's inheritance, as money can make people act in unusual ways. If there is ambiguity in your will or trust as to how much you're leaving each grandchild, greedy relatives may try to contest your estate plan. An experienced Estate Planning Attorney can help clarify ambiguous points in your will or trust.

Orangevale Cooks

by Suzanne Feblowitz

In this issue, I am sharing a recipe for chicken pot pie. My sister gave me this recipe a few years ago and I shared it with you, but I had forgotten about it! It is an easy meal for a delicious pot pie from puff pastry shells. Even though there are many variations of pot pie, this a perfect comfort food for the month of January.

If you would like to share a favorite recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

CHICKEN POT PIE
(Based on the recipe from

- Pepperidge Farm)
- 1 pkg (10 oz.) frozen Pepperidge Farm Puff Pastry Shells
- 1 Tbsp. vegetable oil
- 1 medium onion, chopped finely
- 1 can condensed cream of chicken soup (any variety)
- ½ cup milk
- 1 pkg (10 oz.) frozen peas and carrots or your favorite frozen vegetables
- 2 cups cooked chicken, cut in bite-sized pieces

Bake, cool and remove tops of pastry shells according to the directions on the package of puff pastry shells.

Heat oil in large skillet over medium heat. Add onion and cook until tender.

Add soup, milk and frozen vegetables in skillet and heat to a boil. Reduce heat to low and cover with a lid. Cook for 5 minutes or until vegetable are tender and heated through. Add chicken and cook until mixture is hot and bubbly. Serve in pastry shells.

According to the package directions, this was supposed to serve 6, but if you are someone with a regular appetite, this will serve 3 adults. The mixture should be overflowing the shells.

My sister uses the grocery store rotisserie chicken for her chicken, but I used the 13 oz. canned chicken breast that I get at Costco and Sam's Club. I also used 16 oz. of frozen vegetables to make up for the smaller amount of chicken.

 Meet Scully who's favorite toy is a laser pointer! He lived with another cat and they got along well.

Scully is quite the lap cat once he gets to know you. Very friendly and sweet, he actually will play "catch" with you! He knocks a ball off the shelf that he is sitting on for you to retrieve. Smart cat!

Once he gets over his shyness, he likes to be close. If you stop petting him and he wants more, he will rub his head against your hand. He also has the most precious, quiet purr.

If you are 65 years old and above, we will waive Scully's adoption fee since he is over 5 years old. His regular adoption fee is $45. Come down to meet this incredibly gentle and kind cat.

As a resident of Orangevale for few years now, I have come to notice a few furry friends that reside within our community. I have attached a photo and quick blerp below. I think this would be a great article for the pet section, please feel free to edit. Enjoy!

I am sure most Orangevale residents have devoured a delicious crunchy taco from Lupitas Mexican Restaurant, or purchased a one of a kind item from Finders Keepers Boutique, or even consumed a crisp ale from the Black Stallion Saloon. This shopping center is located in the heart of the Orangevale community, and is occupied by a wide variety of shops! But have you ever noticed the tenants that occupy the parking lot? There are four unique feline friends that have also moved into the space. (see photo attached) The cats are friendly, and tend to come out during the night, but please keep your distance Orangevale is their home too!

 Thanks,
 Kelley Jo

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

Suzanne Winters, President American Legion Auxiliary Unit 383 Fair Oaks, readying for the Wreaths Across America wreath laying. (Orangevale resident)

veterans. The Wreaths Across America mission is to remember the fallen, honor those who serve, and teach our children the value of freedom. It is carried out in part by coordinating nationwide wreath laying ceremonies annually on the third Saturday in December at Arlington National Cemetery, as well as veterans' cemeteries and other locations in all 50 states, ceremonies at sea, and 24 national cemeteries on foreign soil.

The next National Wreaths Across America Day will be Saturday, December 16, 2017. The Wreaths Across America ceremony touches our hearts in a way that reminds us freedom is not free. It takes sacrifice, love and devotion to our country. It takes courage, resolve and a Nation united to keep our freedom. It takes all of us.

ROTARY HELPS AT CHRISTMAS

Eighteen members of the Orangevale Rotary Club and several members of the Casa Roble Interact Club, sponsored by Rotary, spent the morning of Dec.

she definitely wants to work with us again. Other families were referred by Rotary members and St. Vincent DePaul at Divine Savior. Families were adopted by individual Rotarians and their families, and the club itself contributed a large sum

NATIONAL WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA DAY

On a cold December 17, 2016, morning, American Legion Riders (ALR) Post 383, Fair Oaks, Post 521, Rio Linda, and Post 233, Elk Grove, rode their motorcycles to the Sacramento Valley National Cemetery in Dixon to pay tribute to our fallen heroes. They formed a flag line encircling the Wreaths Across America ceremony and then laid Christmas wreaths on burial sites throughout the cemetery. With each wreath laid, a moment of silence was given honoring the fallen.

The American Legion riders joined other groups of motorcycle riders, Veterans of Foreign War (VFW) members, and the Patriot Guard (of which many AL riders are members) and the public to honor the sacrifices of our veterans, active military, and their families.

Locally, the American Legion Auxiliary (ALA) Unit 383, Fair Oaks, participated in the Wreaths Across America ceremony at the Calvary Catholic Cemetery, Citrus Heights. The ALA members lined the cemetery's road with crosses and wreaths and placed Christmas wreaths on burial sites in the

VETERANS COURT. The Del Campo High School, Fair Oaks, Junior Reserve Officer Training Corp (JROTC) performed a flag ceremony honoring our fallen

Barbara Clarke, Vice-president American Legion Auxiliary Unit 383 Fair Oaks, laying wreaths at the VETERANS COURT in the Calvary Catholic Cemetery.

17 bringing Christmas to families who otherwise could not have celebrated it. We have done this for several years, and the size of the program this year forced us into a bigger venue—Fire Station #22 on Chestnut. We owe so much to Captain Dave Dabelich for giving us complete run of the station by moving the main engine and ambulance outside to make room! So many people have talked about firefighters since 9/11, and Dave and his station just continued that tradition.

This year, we provided Christmas dinner and gifts for 24 families who were just a little down on their luck. Most of the families were referred to us by schools in Orangevale, particularly from Jenny Byrd at Pasteur Middle School. Jenny joined us on the giveaway day, and to make sure every family could receive Christmas. Lorie and Russ Rheams, who ran the program for the club, pointed out one of the most touching things they have seen in all the years they have run it. A young single mother who received help a few years ago became a donor herself this year. She couldn't afford the whole thing and received some support from our club, but the beauty was that she wanted to repay what was given to her before. This is truly what it's all about and truly signifies our Rotary motto of "Service Above Self." If this touches your heart, and we certainly hope it does, join us next year! Or if you know someone who needs a little help next year, let us know about them, too. You can email us by through the club executive section at OrangevaleRotaryClub.org.

Want to see your school, church, or team in the paper? It's easy - send us your photos and stories. That's it. Really, that's it. Articles must be 250 or less in a doc file. Must include author's name. Please send us high resolution photos (at least 260 dpi), JPG or TIFF files. Please don't send photos in a doc file. E-mail to editor@ovview.com. We try to print as much community news as possible. Some editing might be necessary. Please keep it family friendly.

BEST OF ORANGEVALE 2016

VOTE TODAY AT WWW.OVVIEW.COM

Contest Rules: This competition is open to all Orangevale Businesses or Organizations as long as they meet the requirements

1. Nominees must do business (or work for non-business related categories) within Orangevale, CA. We verify all participants via Sacramento County Business License database, Social Media and registered Website. This rule is excluded for certain non-business related categories. *If you own a business that is 100% mobile you may participate, but you may not have an office or retail store front outside of Orangevale, CA.
2. The Best of Orangevale facilitators reserve the right to remove any business that has entered the competition incorrectly or has used marketing materials, badges, language or behavior that is not in line with the competition. Participants who violate the rules will receive a written warning about the incident.
3. If a business is caught "Stuffing Ballots", which is breaking one of our security measures and submitting multiple ballots with the voting focus on same business and or businesses. The software automatically flags these incidences and they are scrubbed from the final list. We have a responsibility to the businesses who participate to provide a fair and accurate voting process that ensures that no one abuses the integrity of the Online competition.
4. Only one vote per category per person. Winners are chosen by people who fill out the Online voting ballot. We will track IP addresses, if more than one person wants to vote within your household they may not use the same computer, tablet, and phone or shared network. All voting entries must have complete information or the votes will not be counted.
5. By participating in the Best of Orangevale you grant us permission to use your business name, likeness and or image for use in our marketing and promotional materials related to the competition and/or party.
6. All Best of Orangevale competition results are held private by the Orangevale View. Winners will be awarded at the Best of Orangevale Award Banquet. Winners will received certificate and other promotional materials. Winners will be showcase in the Orangevale View Newspaper issue following the Award Banquet. Winners will be live on the Orangevale View website 7 working days from March 3rd, 2017.
7. The goal of the Best of Orangevale is to create awareness for all the great small businesses we have in Orangevale. We want the competition to be fun for all who participate.
