United States' Kasey Perry-Glass, riding Dublet, celebrates after competing in the equestrian dressage competition at the 2016 Summer Olympics in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Wednesday, Aug. 10, 2016. John Locher AP

Kasey Perry-Glass of Orangevale and Team USA ended a 12-year Olympic medal drought, winning the team bronze medal in dressage in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Paced by Laura Graves aboard Verdades, the four-member American squad averaged a score of 76.667, behind only gold-medal winner Germany (81.936) and silver medalist Great Britain (78.602). Graves and teammates Steffan Peters and Allison Brock qualified for final individual round, the Grand Prix Freestyle.

The U.S. dressage team last won bronze at the 2004 Olympics in Athens, Greece. Peters, a four-time Olympian, also won team bronze in 1996 at the Atlanta Games.

Friday's medal brings Team USA's Olympic total to one silver and seven bronzes.

Riding her 13-year-old gelding Dublet, Perry-Glass scored 73.25 Friday, just missing Monday's freestyle in her first Olympics, but enough to help the U.S. nose out The Netherlands for bronze. She placed 22nd overall in the individual rankings.

Perry-Glass, 28, is a Sacramento State and Capital Christian graduate who started riding at age 5 at a local stable. Called "Team Believe," her family and friends helped propel her to her Olympic dream. Kasey is the daughter of Bob and Diane Perry, who owns Dublet.

“FISHIN TIME”

Hello everyone
Hope this finds everyone well and happy. Boy, our lives can change in a blink of an eye. From work, school, home projects, and everyday challenges we can at times get overwhelmed. Just a little time away from it all can be a blessing for sure. A short walk, a lunch with an old friend, an overdue phone call to a loved one, or a trip to the water's edge can be a reset. I find that last suggestion to be one of my most effective ways to get mine. Fishing has always been a major part of my life and that fishin time can stick with me through every day's trials and tribulations for a very long time. Falls coming and these next hot months of the summer will bring fish to feed on top water which can be a very fun time. Get out there if you get a chance. I'll try to get there myself just to reset.

Have fun and stay safe!

COWBELL CLASSIC SET FOR AUGUST 26

Are you ready for some football? Grab your family, friends and a cowbell (if you have one) and come on over to the Casa Roble Rams season opener versus the Bella Vista Broncos. This will be the first ever “Cowbell Classic” at Newman field at Casa Roble on August 26, 2016. The newly named “Cowbell Classic” commemorates our fan favorite rivalry with the Bella Vista Broncos while paying tribute to Casa Roble’s rural roots. Both schools opened in the 60’s and have years of history playing each other. “This game is typically the biggest and best attended of the season,” said Chris Horner, football coach at Casa for over 15 years. “Players from both teams have grown up together – so families and friends come out in full force to cheer them on,” he added. Also on hand, making this event an “udder” success, is Chick-fil-A, who is awarding $300 worth of Chick-fil-A to a lucky fan during half time. And if that doesn’t mooove you, then come on out to see the dazzling routines of the fabulous Casa Cheer and Dance teams and most importantly, be a part of the “need more cowbell” crowd!

A limited amount of cowbells and commemorative Cowbell Classic shirts will be on sale at the game or you can pre-purchase one by contacting joe.mcalister@sanjuan.edu while supplies last.

JV starts at 5:00 pm, and Varsity kicks off at 7:00 pm.

A big cowabunga thanks to our sponsors OilStop of Fair Oaks, who invites you to stop in for your fall car care oil change, and to Chick-fil-A of Granite Bay for their generous support! See ya when the cows come home!

MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD

Recently I went to the Democratic National Convention as one of the youngest delegates in the United States at age 18. I became a delegate after being elected by registered Democratic voters at a caucus in Elk Grove in May. How the delegate system works is that in a presidential primary, based on the percentage of the vote a candidate wins, they are allotted a certain number of delegates. I was a delegate for Hillary Rodham Clinton. California had approximately 500 delegates to the convention, the largest of any state.

My experience at the Democratic National Convention (DNC) was absolutely incredible. The convention took place for 4 days and nights in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at the Wells Fargo Convention Center. I was able to meet so many amazing political leaders from California and around the United States who I deeply admire. I got to listen to so many excellent speeches on the convention floor.

But throughout my time at the DNC, I found myself repeatedly focused not on the people who were at the convention hall with me, but those who weren't. The fact of the matter is, all of the speeches and all of the passion that took place at the convention are meaningless if we do not back it up with an action: our vote in November. Now, do not assume this is a plug for a certain candidate or initiative, even though it is obvious who I am voting for. This is a very basic statement about the vital importance of making our voice heard in our democracy. At the convention I heard from and met Congressman John Lewis, one of the 6 organizers of the March on Washington and a man who marched with Dr. Martin Luther King. Congressman Lewis was hit, kicked, ridiculed, and jailed all because he believed so deeply in each one of us has the right to vote. He did not just fight for the voting and civil rights of African Americans, but for those of all races, because when even one person's rights are abridged or violated, it is a threat to the rights of every single American. Millions of troops have been shot down on the field of battle to protect our right to vote.

I want to make this incredibly clear: not voting in any election is equivalent to looking Congressman Lewis and our troops in the eye and telling them that their sacrifice is meaningless to us. Of course, it is easy to criticize our leaders from the sidelines as spectators and avoid the ballot box because we think every politician is a sellout or a crook. But it is hard to swallow our pride and prejudices about our political system and realize that the decisions being made in Washington D.C. have a direct and lasting impact on our lives, and the only way to make our leaders pay attention to the issues we care about is by showing them we will hold them accountable at the ballot box. It is imperative to understand the difference between a candidate who just tells you they will be your champion versus a candidate who has actually laid out concrete and realistic plans to deal with the problems our country faces based on researched facts and proven numbers. Through your vote, you can have a say in a world that is addressing the challenges and incredible opportunities created by the forces of globalization and clean energy. Even one vote has been proven to be an incredibly pivotal force in the history of our world: we speak English instead of German in the U.S. because of one vote, California's statehood was ratified by one vote, and Adolf Hitler became leader of the Nazi party by one vote. Brothers and sisters of Orangevale, I urge us all to cast our vote and make our voices heard in this election. History will not be kind to us if we don't.

By Mark McKibbin, graduate of Casa Roble High School

TECH BYTES

Is your business prepared? Disasters. They happen – if we could prevent them we would. The important thing for any business operating today is to plan ahead in order to avoid serious service and data loss. Having a solid Disaster Recovery (DR) plan in place will be the difference between a business surviving and a business failing when unforeseen disasters strike.

What is a Disaster Recovery Plan?

A Disaster recovery plan involves setting up processes to ensure you can recover critical system data and applications that your business relies on for day to day operations. The goal of a DR plan is to provide peace of mind, that the most important piece of a business, your customers, will not be affected by the outage. The DR plan also allows business owners to have a true understanding of when operations can be back online following a disaster or equipment failure. System Backups, Network Management, Cloud Storage and Implementation Plans are all part of DR.

Who needs DR?

For the small business sector, any major loss of productivity can have a dramatic effect on the business. The cost of downtime is the most significant factor with calculating revenue loss. Not only are you paying wages during downtime but in most cases, you will also be paying additional hours for data recovery. Not to mention the cost of late invoices, missing orders and lost opportunity for growth.

If these types of disruptions are not planned for ahead of time, the lasting results could affect the business reputation for years and some may never recover. By having a Disaster Recovery plan in place, a company not only protects its critical data, but its reputation as well. Need help creating and implementing a DR plan? Creating and maintaining a Disaster Recovery plan is time-consuming but extremely important to ensure your business's survival. Many organizations don't have the time to dedicate to this process. If you would like more information on how you can protect your business from unexpected disasters and outages, give us a call and our engineers will be happy to discuss Disaster Recovery options and solutions with you.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

Did You Know? (Vineyard / Winery In Orangevale)
Did you know that there is a successful Winery, with its own vineyard right here in Orangevale? Not only is this boutique winery licensed and bonded, but it has been winning awards since its first harvest. The winery building includes 2 temperature controlled cellars and consistently produces about 1000 bottles per year, from its own vineyard of Cabernet Franc'.

It's located on 1.82 acres of land and there are several varieties of fruit trees located on the rear ½ acre as well as a beautiful 3,019 square foot estate home with all the amenities and charm you would expect from a property this wonderful. The owners have enjoyed many years of owning this successful business and home, but are now ready to retire and travel. They are looking for someone who has the same passion for wine making and who will take pride in the home, the land and all the property has to offer. If you or someone you know has an interest in this great opportunity, please give me a call.

Summer vacation is ending for some of us and this recipe might be the key to helping some of us get back in the swing of things! This cake would make a nice treat for the staff room (hint), for a brunch or just for a gathering of friends. Don't let the name, Oatmeal Cake, fool you, this is a very sweet and delicious cake that you will enjoy! The topping on the cake is one reason why you have to eat more than one serving.

Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

"This is the perfect dog!" Obviously, Dean is one of our favorites. Dean is 19 pounds of sweetness. He's 12 years young and can be shy at first, but warms up pretty quickly. He's good with people, dogs, and cats! Dean is very affectionate and loves belly rubs. He walks very well on the leash and appears to be house-trained. Dean is looking for a home where he can relax and spend time with you. He would prefer a household with older children and adults. He is gentle, smart and just oh-so handsome

RAISE YOUR CROWN

Happy Birthday Ms. Mary Purvis!

The late great Ms. Mary Purvis would have turned 88 years old this month. Mary ran the Miss Greater Sacramento, Miss Metro Sacramento, Miss Citrus Heights, California State Youth pageants and other local city pageant titles since 1973, and passed away in March of 2014 at age 86. She was planning the 2014 Miss Citrus Heights Pageant when she passed. Her long-time Queen and right hand girl Tamara 'Tami' Barbu~Brown now owns and operates many of her queen-ship titles. There are now new ways to being a city Ambassador Queen as Tamara tells in in her own words:

"I want to keep Mary's royal ambassador passion and dream alive by continuing her (then) P.O.I.S.E Productions

Queen tradition that I (now) call The CLASS of Queens. I had been Mary's right hand girl and Queen for 25 years and I was Miss Orangevale 1987. I am thrilled, proud and honored to be what I call the "new Mary Purvis", and now direct many of her Queen titles. We CLASS of Queens like to roll up our sleeves and attend local fairs in the park with our Make It and Take It crafts table, serve snow cones and hot dogs at fairs and festivals, help out at charity events and Mixers, and we will dress formal for symphony concerts, fund raising dinners and parades. We will do anything for our local Police, Emergency Units and Rescue Teams. We are those extra pair of hands you need to get your job done! In The CLASS of Queens Ambassador Program you can earn a title or win one; to earn a title all you have to do is show up and prove yourself worthy of a crown and do the community work alongside of us, just hang with us and do as we do! And too, we hold the contests to choose the Queens".

In honor of the late great Mary Purvis her Miss Greater Sacramento Pageant will be held on Sunday October 9, 2016 at Safetyville USA 1-4pm. Tamara Barbu~Brown Director. Only $50 to enter for ages 6-106 and now MISS GREATER SACRAMENTO can be *any* woman age 18 and over, any status with any ability or disability. Miss Greater Sacramento is not a 'beauty pageant', it is an 'Opportunity Program' – an opportunity to represent a great city and be a given a chance to serve through volunteer Community Service work all year which can be used as community
