THE SACRIFICE

To the Vet I've never met,
And to the Soldier I never knew,
For the life that you've laid down,
And the sacrifice we've asked of you.
You give us life with freedoms ring;
No one, nowhere can match,
And it's by your sacrifice,
That freedom's seed will hatch.
Through your spirit people see
The darkness fade to light;
The outstretched hand you offer up,
To give them back their sight.
Into harm's way you willingly go,
Without a second thought,
For it's YOU who pays the precious price
For the freedom that we've bought.
And, it is OF you, the soldier born
Of a spirit's gentle might,
That the wage is paid, the sacrifice made
To change what's wrong to right.
So, we weep for those who bear the scars
And mourn those who paid full measure.
And we salute all you who've earned the right
To be called our Nation's Highest Treasure.
And if your faith should wane a bit
From the things we ask of you,
Just know the we, The United States,
Have not lost our faith in you.
So, keep your eyes clear and keen,
And your focus sharp and bright,
For our Nation stands by your side
As we pray you'll be alright.

LOCAL MOBILEPACK HAS PACKED MORE THAN 3.4 MILLION MEALS

Feed My Starving Children MobilePack Packs 505,440 Meals for Malnourished Children

Over 7 Years, Local MobilePack Has Packed More Than 3.4 Million Meals

ROCKLIN – A local effort to pack meals for malnourished children around the world successfully packed 505,440 meals over a three-day period at William Jessup University in Rocklin.

The Rocklin Feed My Starving Children MobilePack™ attracted nearly 2,500 volunteers from all walks of life – from children as young as 5 to seniors over 90 years old.

“We want to thank everyone who turned out to pack meals and so many local companies who partnered with us to make this possible,” said Alexia Hall, chair of the organizing committee.

Organized groups of volunteers came from major corporations, churches, youth groups and various civic groups from throughout the area. One of the largest sponsors of the MobilePack,

Orangevale's Stoke's Granite & Stone Inc

Wells Fargo, sent nearly 100 volunteers to help with the packing.

The event was supported by a number of community organizations and businesses, including: Wells Fargo, St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in Rocklin and Randy Peters Catering & Event Center, each sponsoring more than 45,000 meals; Annie's Sno Biz, William Jessup University, Valley Springs Church and Kohl's, each sponsoring more than 22,000 meals; Wildlands, Law Offices of Sims, Lawrence & Arruti, UNFI, Advantage Marketing & Print, each sponsoring more than 11,000 meals; Reeve-Knight Construction, Halldin Public Relations, Kniesel's Auto Service Centers, Trudy van Dyk of Tru California Real Estate, and Westlake Grahl & Glover, each sponsoring more than 5,000 meals; CiminoCare, Propp, Christensen Caniglia CPAs, Umpqua Bank, U.S. Bank, Foothill Fire & Wire and U.S. Legal Support, each sponsoring more than 2,800 meals

Feed My Starving Children is a Christian non-profit that distributes culturally-neutral, nutritious meals to nearly 70 countries through more than 90 missions and humanitarian agencies. In most cases, the free food is used to operate orphanages, schools, clinics, and community feeding programs that contribute to long-term community development. For more information, visit www.fmssc.org

“The community has supported our annual MobilePack for seven years,” Hall said. “Each meal we pack costs just 22 cents but we couldn't pack more than 500,000 without the financial support so many organizations in our community have provided.”

The meals packed will be shipped to communities where Feed My Starving Children works with local organizations that serve malnourished children. Last year, meals packed in Rocklin were sent to The Philippines, Myanmar and Thailand.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

TO: Editor of OV News
I am interested to know if the Chamber of Commerce and/or other local organizations participate in trying to find businesses to move into vacant stores such as the SaveMart that closed. It seems we do not need any more discount stores in the area since we have Winco and Walmart.

Also, we frequently read in the newspaper about the support given to local farmers and the farmers markets. Yet we had a wonderful orchard that is no longer active and appears to have dying trees. I loved the fresh peaches and plums I purchased there. We have Tom Tomich's orchard left which still produces the most wonderful fruits and apples, etc. I feel these kinds of orchards are truly gems worth keeping in the community. Is there no organization interested in seeing that these kind of small orchards continue to exist once the owner has passed away? Are we not the food capitol of California and perhaps the country??

AN AWARD WINNING NATIONAL DOG GROOMING OPENS BUSINESS IN ORANGEVALE

A new dog groomer arrives in Orangevale. Kathleen Schultz is an award winning National Dog Grooming Association of America member, certified non-sporting & terrier groomer, who opened her grooming shop on October 4, 2016. The name of her shop is The Prancing Poodle All Breed Grooming, and is located at 9346 Greenback Lane #1 in Orangevale CA 95662. The phone number is 916.202.9292.

Kathleen is an "all-breed" dog groomer who also occasionally grooms horses. She opened the shop with the hope of serving and educating the broader community where she resides about the importance of proper pet grooming, pet skin care, and the positive effects of quality pet foods.

She has been in the grooming industry since Spring of 2009, first as a dog bather and then, with the mentoring of certified

Master Groomer Ann Martin who, recognizing Kathleen's innate talent and interest in dogs, helped her develop and refine her grooming skills over a three year period. She officially began independently grooming in Summer of 2012 and has since garnered a multitude of competitive grooming awards at established industry trade-shows.

Kathleen would eventually like to host educational events about pet care at her business location as well as offer a limited selection of quality dog food and related products to her clients. Her long term dream is to represent the USA in world class competition as a member of GroomTeam USA, the equivalent in the world of dog grooming to the US Olympic Team. Many of those who know her believe her positive nature and determination may well get her there.

In her spare time she is typically with her own beloved dogs: her papillon Bing, her standard poodle Guinevere, and her rescue dog named Katie, aka "puppy". She can also be found regularly training and riding her Quarter Horse, Holly. Kathleen's love of animals was well in evidence at her recent wedding where she rode Holly through a redwood grove to the location of the ceremony, and was preceded by her bridesmaids who were each leading one of her dogs.

The Prancing Poodle All Breed Grooming is now accepting appointments. If interested or if you have questions, call 916.202.9292.

HELP OV FOOD BANK SERVE DURING THE HOLIDAYS

The outpouring of community support and interest in helping hungry families through the holidays last year spurred on the formation of Orangevale Food Bank in January 2012. Now serving thousands of people every month, the food bank is gearing up to provide Thanksgiving meals to families in our area. Orangevale families in need of some extra support to prepare a turkey dinner can visit the Orangevale Food Bank at 6483 Main Ave location. It is recommended that recipients pre-register for a turkey dinner by visiting the Orangevale Food Bank, calling (916) 304-FOOD and leaving your name and family size, or emailing info@orangevalefoodbank.org.

In order to make this happen, the Orangevale Food Bank needs the support from the community for volunteers and donations to provide these meals. There will be holiday food drives being held at multiple area grocery stores including Walmart and Safeway on, Nov 12 & 13 or Nov 19 & 20, Dec 3 & 5. Anyone interested in volunteering should sign up for an available shift at www.orangevalefoodbank.org/volunteer. Others can come by one of these locations, pick up a few extra groceries, and drop them off on their way out to help to feed hungry Orangevale families this holiday season. Any help is greatly appreciated.

Please contact OVFB at (916) 304-FOOD or email info@orangevalefoodbank.org to coordinate a donation.

It is the season of giving and the Orangevale Food Bank hopes to provide an opportunity for everyone to get involved. The community support has been incredible this year. For regular updates on the food bank, be sure to visit facebook.com/ovfoodbank or subscribe to email updates at www.orangevalefoodbank.org.

ORANGEVALE RESIDENTS PROTEST PLANNED RESIDENTIAL CENTER FOR MENTALLY ILL

Plans to open a 15-bed crisis treatment center for the mentally ill in a residential home on Elm Avenue are raising serious concerns among Orangevale citizens, who question why such a facility is being sited in a peaceful, residential neighborhood.

The facility's location is less than a block from Louis Pasteur Middle School and within a half-mile of three other schools. It is surrounded by homes with large lots, including many with horses.

The plan by Turning Point Community Programs was the subject of an emotional hearing before the Orangevale Community Planning Advisory Council (CPAC) Tuesday night

(Nov. 1).

Residents who spoke had multiple concerns, including whether patients would include those with criminal records, why a commercial facility would be placed in a semi-rural setting with agricultural/residential zoning, and why no notification had been made to the community.

Opponents also were concerned to learn that Turning Point had received a grant to open the facility and had purchased the property in August – before any public hearing and despite the fact that a use permit must first be obtained before it can open as a 15-bed mental health facility.

“This makes it look like a done deal – like we have no say in this at all,” one resident told CPAC members.

“Why is the county always dumping on Orangevale?”

another neighbor asked.

Residents protesting the facility acknowledged society's need for additional mental health services. But the audience agreed that a residential home on one acre in Orangevale is the wrong location for such a crisis treatment facility.

Concerns were expressed about the impacts on community character, a reduced sense of neighborhood safety, potential crime problems, noise problems for nearby neighbors, loitering by mental health patients who would be free to venture out onto Orangevale streets as well as traffic impacts from staff and visitors.

No vote was taken, and another hearing will be held once a formal application is received by the county in the coming weeks. Article and photo submitted by E.B of Orangevale

Orangevale Cooks

by Suzanne Feblowitz

In this season of giving, the ORANGEVALE WOMAN'S CLUB is sharing a cookie recipe from their Heirloom collection. During the 103 years the club has been continuously active, the members have traditionally shared food and recipes during their luncheon meetings while discussing volunteer projects. And of course, everyone looks forward to the homemade cookies Orangevale Woman's Club members bake and share for the annual Orangevale Community Center Tree Lighting event scheduled for December 2nd this year.

If you would like to share a favorite recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

ESTATE PLANNING: IT'S MORE THAN JUST A WILL WHAT IS A POWER OF ATTORNEY?

An Estate Plan in one sentence is: A plan of action of what happens to you, your property, and the people that you are responsible for when you either die or become incapacitated. There are many parts to an estate plan. One of those parts is a Power of Attorney. This is someone that you choose to act on your behalf for financial or health related purposes, usually in the event of some incapacity. Incapacity is when you have a physical or mental inability to manager your affairs.

Without a Power of Attorney, your family and friends will have to rely upon the courts and the legal system to obtain authority over your affairs. Creating a Power of Attorney allows you to plan ahead in case of a later incapacity to ensure that your finances, healthcare, and other concerns are properly addressed to correspond with your wishes. An Estate Plan with a Power of Attorney can assist you if you become incapacitated. Stay tuned for another article in which you will learn about some of the authority that is given to a financial power of attorney.

Sam Swenson is a Business and Estate Planning Attorney in Orangevale. He can be reached at 916-333-0833.

CHAMBER NEWS

and her mom Tammy! Thank you to Larry Lane and his AMAZING Caliber Collision Crew for putting this all together as they do for us, every year. In attendance were Orangevale Chamber President Jim Beilgard, Orangevale Chamber Parliamentarian Lisa Montes, Orangevale Chamber Office Administrator Tamara Barbu, Miss Orangevale 2016 Alexa Mills who is also Miss Teen Greater Sacramento 2017, many other local area Queens, Brad Squires, Dave Nunn and Linda Ervin of the Orangevale Food Bank among many others. The Orangevale Chamber will resume its free to the public monthly Mixers starting in January, after the Holidays. See you then!

The rain did not detour our monthly Orangevale Chamber of Commerce Mixer for October on October 27, 2016. A great crowd of about 30 people gathered in the inside dry warmth of Caliber Collision on 9439 Greenback Lane, Orangevale and dined on awesome hosted finger foods like meat roll-ups and shrimp cocktail, soda, beer and wine. Plenty of cookies and cupcakes too! Good food and great friends networking together. Food donations to the OV Food Bank were brought in as part of the Mixer. The big winner of the evening's raffle was Miss Greater Sacramento Ambassador Jasmine DeWitt
