The people and the stories behind the businesses in Orangevale are what make it an incredible place to live. Orangevale is a unique community, Orangevale View Publisher Brad Tatum said at the newspaper's SOLD OUT inaugural Best of Orangevale celebration on Friday, March 3rd.

Sponsored by the Orangevale Chamber of Commerce, over 220 people packed the Orangevale Grange Hall for an award banquet honoring the reader's choice winners selected through more than 3,000 votes cast in January in 38 categories that included places to dine, shop, live and be entertained.

"We have one objective tonight, pure and simple" Jim Beilgard President of the Orangevale Chamber of Commerce said.

"It's to celebrate all what make Orangevale great!"

Assemblyman Kiley presented the awards to the winners. Local representative along with Supervisor Frost were in attendance to congratulate the winners. First place winner Shannon Jungsten owner of Bloomingdeals collected two awards for Best Antique, Consignment and Thrift store and Best Retailer. First place winners for Best Restaurant, Ashley's Country Kitchen also received the big award of the night "Best of the Best" for the most votes received for 2016. The night provided an opportunity to recognize Chris Horner, at teacher at Casa Roble High School who was voted for "Teacher of the Year" and new business, North Star Collison and

ABOUT THE ORANGEVALE VIEW

The "Orangevale View" – the ultimate, award-winning community newspaper – serves Orangevale and surrounding areas, including Fair Oaks, Citrus Heights, and Folsom, CA. With a present estimated readership of more than 37,000, this FREE paper grows with every issue. It is delivered twice a month to at least 15,000 residents' homes and to more than 100 high traffic locations.

The views and opinions printed within are not necessarily those of Publisher Brad Tatum or the Orangevale View staff. Rather, the views and opinions expressed are those of each individual contributor.

SUBMISSION POLICIES:

Submissions from you, our readers, are always welcome, for this is YOUR newspaper. We await school, church, or sports team materials, anniversaries, births, special occasions, memorials, or other items of interest. Donations are encouraged and accepted for anniversaries, births, and other special milestones and announcements. Publication is at the discretion of the Orangevale View staff.

Requirements are simple:

(1) Acknowledge that either you are the author or you have permission to publish from the original author;

(2) Articles should not exceed 300 words. We like Community Calendar items of 45 words or less.

(3) Format: Microsoft Word format with photos at least 300 dpi JPEG or PDF.

Please use this format so we do not have to send your work back to you for corrections.

(4) The View does not verify the accuracy of your submissions, and in some cases, dates and information are subject to change.

(5) Please email submissions, to YOUR newspaper. The email address is editor@ovview.com. It is you, our contributors, readers and advertisers who make the Orangevale View a newspaper you want to read.

NORTHSTAR COLLISION & REPAIR AWARDED 2016 BEST NEW BUSINESS OF ORANGEVALE

On February 26th North Star Collision Repair presented the Orangevale Community with a charming Ribbon Cutting Ceremony. Owner Jesse Hord first opened North Star Collision Repair in 2014 before he was presented with the amazing opportunity to relocate to his home town in Orangevale where he completed grade school and graduated from Casa Roble. Although they have been operating and repairing vehicles since buying Rowe's Body Shop in July of 2016, they opened their shop to the community in celebration of their relocation and renovation. Thanks to the Orangevale Chamber of Commerce, surrounding small business, and locally based vendors, North Star's raffle successfully raised over $700 for the ALS Foundation, Greater Sacramento Chapter.

Although from Greenback Lane the shop may appear to occupy a meager space, their grand opening validated the shop's substantial size. Equipped with a full body shop, two frame racks, and the latest in vehicle technologies necessary to repair your vehicle to pre-accident condition. They also have a full paint shop, paint booth and several prep station; it is apparent that North Star

Collision has outfitted themselves with the best equipment available to repair any vehicle. With quality as their primary focus, North Star uses only the latest in PPG waterborne refinishing. NSCR extends there appreciation to all attendees, community, and surrounding businesses. NSCR looks forward to servicing your collision repair needs for many years to come. Call the shop at (916) 988-1515 for your free estimate today! Or visit us at 8832 Greenback Ln.

CAPITOL POPS CONCERT BAND OPENS LANDMARK 20TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON

Capitol Pops Concert Band opens landmark 20th anniversary season March 24 with free, public performance at the California Automobile Museum

The Capitol Pops Concert Band will kick off its 20th anniversary season with a free, open to the public concert at 7 p.m. Friday, March 24, 2017, at the California Automobile Museum, 2200 Front Street in Sacramento.

Under the baton of Director Kurt Pearsall, CPCB will perform traditional pops favorites, with a sprinkling of automotive-themed arrangements. Voice and instrumental soloists also will be featured. This will be the band's fifth annual performance at the downtown venue. The two-hour concert includes a 20-minute intermission.

The open house and concert are being sponsored by Tri Counties Bank.

The California Automobile Museum will open to the public at 6 p.m. at no charge on March 24. Visitors are welcome to tour the museum, get detailed information from museum docents and visit the gift shop before attending the free CPCB concert. Liquid refreshments will be available for purchase on-site. Started in 1997, the CPCB has performed a diverse portfolio of high-quality, well-prepared music heard by thousands of concert-goers throughout Northern California. Based in Citrus Heights, the self-supporting, nonprofit community band of about 60 musicians represents a wide cross-section of the Sacramento area. For more information on the Capitol Pops, find us on Facebook or go to www.capitolpops.org.

The California Automobile Museum displays hundreds of motor vehicles from all eras as part of its mission to teach the story of the automobile and its influence on our lives. For more details, visit www.calautomuseum.org or the museum's Facebook page, or call (916) 442-6802.

Established in 1975, Tri Counties Bank is a wholly-owned subsidiary of TriCo Bancshares headquartered in Chico. It has dozens of stand-alone and in-store branches throughout Northern and Central California, including branches in Sacramento, Roseville, Elk Grove and Granite Bay. For more information on the bank and its full range of services, see www.tcbk.com.

SANCTUARY AT SUNRISE

Sunrise Community Church (SCC) recently participated in a program called Winter Sanctuary, hosted through Sacramento Steps Forward; a program working to end homelessness in the Sacramento Region. Winter Sanctuary is a rotating homeless shelter and collaborates with various churches around Sacramento to provide shelter and meals during the cold winter months. 28 local churches have opened their doors and hearts by offering a refuge for the homeless, one week at a time. This is the fourth year SCC has participated in Winter Sanctuary and this year was a complete success!! Starting Sunday evening, the homeless are bussed in from Downtown for their stay at Sanctuary at Sunrise. They are greeted and tended to by volunteers, fed a delicious meal, provided entertainment for the evening and even offered PB&J sandwiches with cold milk at bedtime. Each day dozens of our community members volunteered to make this program possible. Some SCC Life-Groups made "blessing bags" for each guest, which included various basic necessities that most of us take for granted. With their hearts full and spirits touched, volunteers selflessly hosted the guests, listened, had great conversations, played games, and one evening some women even provided a pampering / skin care class. One night the SCC Choir performed and uplifted everyone's spirit in the room. A movie played every evening as the guests settled in for the night. Early each morning

What an incredible reminder that every person matters, every person has a story, and every person deserves respect and to be treated like a human being. If you want

(4am) volunteers served as the Breakfast Crew who set up the coffee and continental breakfast for the guests to fill their bellies as they packed up and prepared to leave at 6am. They were bussed back to Downtown and returned again each evening for another night of shelter. There were over 100 guests who stayed that week, over 1900 meals prepared, and over 150 Volunteers.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

FINAL WALK THROUGH INSPECTIONS

The final 'walk through' is the last opportunity a buyer will have before closing their home purchase. It is always important to do the walk through so that you can be sure the repairs you requested during the escrow process have been completed & that the property is in the same condition as when you first saw it. Here are a few key points before you complete your walk through: Schedule the final walk through as close to the 'closing date' as possible. The ideal time would be before the closing date & after the sellers have moved out, as specified in the contract date. Be sure that the utilities are on & in working order. Test faucets, toilets, electrical outlets, lights, fans, sprinklers etc.... It is also important to check the walls, ceilings & flooring to make sure no damage was created with the sellers move out. Be sure to have your list of 'requested repairs' with you to verify that the repairs were done.

The final walk through is also the time to ask the sellers about instructions on how to operate any equipment that came with the home, such as pool equipment, thermostats or alarm systems. Be sure to get copies of all the receipts for any repairs that were completed from companies.

Buying a home is very exciting time but you want to make sure everything is in working order. Your Realtor will be able to assist you with the walk through and any questions you may have about the process.

Orangevale Cooks

by Suzanne Feblowitz

It is report card time and I did not have time to check out new recipes, so I am sharing one from 2013. My little sister enjoys cooking and she frequently sends me pictures of the yummy foods that she has made. She had made a beautiful cake out of oranges, so I tried the recipe and it was easy to make, delicious and full of orange flavor. Sally even made hers gluten-free by using Pamela's gluten free flour instead of regular flour.

If you would like to share a favorite recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

WHOLE ORANGE CAKE
 Cooking-oil spray
 1 cup butter, softened (2 cubes)
 1 1/4 cups granulated sugar
 3 large eggs
 2 oranges (about 1 lb. total), ends trimmed, then cut into chunks and seeded

 2 1/2 cups flour
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon baking soda
 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 1 1/2 cups powdered sugar
 2 tablespoons plus 1 tsp. orange juice

1. Preheat oven to 325°. Coat a 10-cup Bundt pan with cooking-oil spray. In a large bowl with a mixer on medium speed, beat butter and granulated sugar until fluffy. Beat in eggs.

2. Whirl orange chunks in a food processor until mostly smooth but not puréed. Add 1 1/2 cups orange mixture to batter and beat until blended. Add flour, salt, baking soda, and baking powder to bowl and beat until smooth. Spread batter in prepared pan.

3. Bake until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out with only a few crumbs clinging to it, about 55 minutes. Cool pan on a rack 10 minutes, then invert cake onto rack and let cool completely.

4. Whisk together powdered sugar and orange juice in a small bowl. Drizzle over cooled cake. Let glaze set, then slice cake. Serves 12

Notes: Yes, you are using the WHOLE orange—peel and all! Just cut off the ends, cut into chunks and remove the seeds. I processed my pretty well, so I didn't have big chunks-close to puree.

When I used my fancy Bundt pan, I sprinkled flour in the pan. Just make sure you get the excess flour out of the pan. The cake came out perfectly

XYLITOL: A BITTERSWEET SWEETENER

Xylitol is a low-calorie, natural sugar alcohol that is growing in popularity as a sugar alternative due to its low glycemic index. It is commonly found in chewing gum, baked goods, candy, dental hygiene products (such as toothpaste and mouth wash), and some over-the-counter medicines and supplements. Now it can even be found in some new brands of peanut butter, which could pose a serious risk to dogs that get peanut butter as a treat or to help administer medications. While xylitol is perfectly safe for humans to consume, our furry companions are not so lucky. Xylitol is highly toxic to dogs, a small dose can cause life threatening hypoglycemia (low blood sugar) in as little as 30 minutes, but it may also be delayed up to 12 hours after ingestion. Additionally at higher doses xylitol can cause severe liver failure which can occur 12-48 hours later. Symptoms of xylitol toxicity include weakness, lethargy, disorientation, collapse, vomiting, tremors, seizures, jaundice, black-tarry stool, coma, or even death.

The best way to prevent xylitol exposure in our pets is to avoid having any products that contain it in the home. If you must have certain products, then they should be kept safe and secure, well out of the reach of pets. If you suspect your pet has ingested a substance containing xylitol it is best to seek help immediately by calling your veterinarian or animal poison control. Early detection and treatment of xylitol ingestion is essential, and if we act fast enough, chances of a full recovery are excellent.

So remember when giving any food to our pets, always check the label for xylitol in the ingredient list, especially when something is labelled as "sugar-free" or "no added sugar." Additionally, before giving any over-the-counter medications or supplements, be sure to check the inactive ingredient list for xylitol. When in doubt, don't give it or check with your veterinarian before giving anything new to your pets.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

Fifty-eight years ago Dorothy Cabodi attended her first meeting of the Orangevale Women's Club. At the time she was a forty-two-year-old wife, mother of four, and home-maker of a twenty-acre olive and grape farm. Dorothy's life was full of activities at home with kids, chickens and cows and outside the home with a variety of jobs. Dorothy was one of the original staffers in the Mercy San Juan Hospital gift shop, she was an Avon representative for many years, and she also worked for the state. But what Dorothy considered her most important and rewarding job was the countless hours she assisted teachers in her children's classrooms. Hours helping others, it's the volunteer spirit.

When Dorothy connected with the OVWC she felt at home with like-minded women and that was no accident. The Orangevale chapter of the nationally celebrated Women's Club was started in 1913 by Mrs. L.W. Calder to assist local women in serving the community.

Until the OV Women's Club moved to the Community Center, the meetings, as most events in the area, took place at the Grange Hall. Dorothy recounts members entered strains of the piano. Women gathered around and sang as they greeted one another.

The music and the friendships played a big part in Dorothy's life, fellow OVWC club members invited her to a local classics karaoke where she was treated to her favorite tunes of Frank Sinatra and Perry Como while sitting in "Reserved for Dorothy" seating.

These are special times for the Orangevale Women's Club. The local group is celebrating one hundred and four years of service to the community. And the club and community celebrate fifty-eight years of involvement by Dorothy Cabodi who recently turned 100 years young. She is happy to achieve the magic number and credits her wonderful family and the OVWC for their love and support. She is quick to note, however, that she still misses playing golf and tennis.
