ORANGEVALE GRANGE INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION JULY 3rd

The Orangevale Grange has been providing community service in Orangevale for 107 years. Continuing their community service the Grange is again sponsoring a Free Community Fireworks Demonstration Show on July 3rd. The show will be held out in the beautiful meadow behind the Grange Hall located at 5807 Walnut Avenue in Orangevale. Walnut is between Madison Avenue and Greenback Lane. Families are encouraged to come out with their lawn chairs and blankets to enjoy music, fire trucks and a FREE fireworks show around dusk. You are encouraged to come early to get a good spot and enjoy the snack bar hosting $1 hot dogs and snow cones.

We are excited to have the Rythm Club Band as the main entertainment this year. Parking can be a challenge so come early. Many of Orangevale's wonderful local businesses donate great items for the raffle. So come early to get a good spot and have a $1 hot dog.

Again this year the fire trucks from the Metro Fire Department will be on site allowing kids of all ages to sit in the fire truck. The kids will get stickers and coloring books and parents will be given literature on how to keep their family safe during the July 4th holiday.

There will be a snack bar on site and all items are a $1 each. All the proceeds are used to support the Dictionary for Thirds Project,

The Grange is looking forward to a great turnout so get there early for the best seat. Come and have a dollar hot dog or snow cone at

The School Back Pack Program, Friends of the Orangevale Library and the Orangevale Food Bank along with many other charities. After the fireworks display is over you will want to hurry up to the onsite fireworks booth to purchase the fireworks you liked best in the the snack bar opening at 6:30 PM, with the other festivities starting soon thereafter. The fireworks demonstration show will begin around dusk. For more information call (916) 417-9750.

Dear Editor

I have lived in Orangevale for over fifty years. I grew up on a farm in Sutter County. A forty-five minute drive from here. My Great Grandparents started farming there around the 1860's. I have ancestors that immigrated and settled in Maryland in 1750. Some fraught in the revolutionary war hoping for a strong moral nation where they had religious freedom and the right to bare arms if necessary.

It's so sad and frightening to see those dreams being destroyed. Especially under the last administration. When president Obama took the oath of office that states he would uphold the constitution of the United States. Has he done so? His administration attacked our freedom of religion, our right to bear arms, our right to free speech with talk about amending those articles.

The majority of California's population votes democratic, but the majority of population in the counties vote republican. The ones that produce food for our tables. The democrats are biting the hands that feed them when they vote for leaders that put more taxes and restrictions on the farmers. The farmers pay a tremendous amount of money for property taxes, water, equipment and more. Their taxes were already supporting Medical and other welfare programs when hit with the burden of paying taxes to support Obamacare.

I ask the woman who wrote praising Obamacare, why should the ones who put food on her table pay for her health insurance? Does she want food at an affordable price or is she going to keep voting in ways that keeps forcing the Price to go up?

The democrats are wasting so much time and energy hating the republicans and the new presidency. There are a number of religions that have similar teachings about loving your neighbors. Aren't their any among the democrats?

Community social mixer with live music at Orangevale Library July 16

The public is invited to a friendly, free Social Mixer at the air conditioned retreat that is Orangevale Library, Sunday, July 16, 2:15pm to 4:30pm.

Visit and/or make new friends in a genial setting. Enjoy cool, non-alcohol beverages, live music---

Mr D's Classic Piano Bar-- and maybe some simple dance steps.

Mr. D is a seasoned and versatile vocalist who has performed professionally at local venues such as Rudy's Hideaway. Mr. D, who describes himself as a "blusey, jazzy, and soulful singer," performs with surprising range, keyboard accompaniment, and excellent showmanship.

We hope the entire community attends so that this social mixer, dubbed "Library Lounge" happens more often.

ELIMINATING OUR POLLING PLACES

District 4 County Supervisor Sue Frost

ELIMINATING ORANGEVALE POLLING LOCATIONS

On June 6th of this year, Sacramento County voted to fundamentally change the way we vote in all of our future elections. Previously, you had the choice to either mail in an absentee ballot, or to go physically vote at one of the 28 Orangevale polling locations. Now, the number of Orangevale polling locations will be dramatically cut down to likely only 2 locations, you can physically go in and vote several days before Election Day, and everyone will be mailed an absentee ballot whether you want it or not.

I was the sole vote against this change, so I want to take the opportunity to explain why.

Firstly, I am deeply concerned that this will open the door to more voter fraud. This change is occurring at the same time automatic voter registration is going into effect. Consequently, thousands of ballots will be automatically mailed to people who may have moved, who may not realize or remember that they are registered to vote, or who may have no intention of voting. This would mean thousands of absentee ballots in circulation that may not reach the intended recipients or that may be discarded due to the fact that it is unexpected. These ballots become ripe targets for fraud.

Secondly, I think this will be far more difficult to implement than is expected. In Denver, a similar program led to technical glitches and long lines. They had to hire hundreds of additional workers (rather than poll volunteers), purchased hundreds of new machines, and some people had to wait in line for hours. In Arizona, news reports showed some wait times of 5 hours or more due to the technical problems. This is unacceptable in a modern democracy.

Lastly, and most importantly, my district is opposed to it. In a professional survey of Sacramento County, it was found that only 33% of people in my district were in support of this change. People who answered the survey were used to voting at their traditional polling place, are concerned about voter fraud, and are concerned about having to drive 5-10x further in order to vote. Further, my district is concerned that this burden will fall disproportionately on those who are less mobile, the poor, disabled, and the elderly. In the end I knew that I would be the only vote against this proposal and that this change would come, but in my heart I knew that I wouldn't be doing a good job representing Orangevale if I voted for something you are opposed to, and something I have so many lingering concerns about. My colleagues who voted for this change had good reasons for doing so, with the most persuasive reason being that it may reduce costs. But in my experience, everything the government does comes with a higher price tag than anticipated.

Thank you for reading – and as always, if you want to contact me, call me at 916-874-5491 or e-mail me at SupervisorFrost@saccounty.net.

Sue Frost represents the 4th District, which includes all or part of the communities of Citrus Heights, Folsom, Orangevale, Antelope, Rio Linda, Elverta, Gold River, Rancho Murieta, North Highlands, Carmichael, Foothill Farms and Fair Oaks. By County Supervisor Sue Frost

- ⇒ Alcohol should never be consumed near fireworks.
- ⇒ Keep a safe distance between yourself and others when lighting fireworks. Fireworks have been known to backfire or shoot off in the wrong direction.
- ⇒ Never point or throw fireworks at others - even in jest.
- ⇒ Do not hold fireworks in your hand or any other part of your body while lighting. Wear eye protection in case of an unexpected discharge.
- ⇒ Fireworks should be used outdoors, on a smooth, flat surface away from homes, flammable materials and dry grass.
- ⇒ Always keep a bucket full of water and a garden hose nearby in case of emergency.
- ⇒ If a firework won't light, consider it a dud and do not attempt to relight it.
- ⇒ Expended fireworks should be soaked in a bucket of water prior to throwing them in the trash.

There is no such thing as a harmless firework.

Even sparklers, which are often given to children to handle, burn hot enough to cause serious burns.

Body Parts Most Injured by Fireworks

Don't forget about your furry family members!

Fireworks can be very frightening to your pet's sensitive ears. Keep pets indoors to reduce their risk of injury and getting loose.

Only unaltered SAFE & SANE fireworks bearing the State Fire Marshal's seal are legal in California.

- Never attempt to make your own fireworks.
- A good rule of thumb: If it goes up in the air, darts across the ground, or explodes, it is illegal.
- If you live in a Homeowners Association, check to make sure fireworks are permitted in your community.

PET SAFETY TIPS

BASIC SUMMER PET SAFETY TIPS

We all love our pets but not everyone is aware that the summer months aren't only uncomfortable, but they can even be dangerous for pets. I always remind my clients who have pets of these few simple tips.

Never leave your pets in a parked car. Not even for a minute. Not even with the car running and air conditioner on. On a warm day, temperatures in a vehicle rise quickly to dangerous levels. On an 85-degree day, for example, the temperature inside a car with the windows opened slightly can reach 102 degrees within 10 minutes. After 30 minutes, the temperature will reach 120 degrees. It's always a good idea to just leave your pet at home.

Limit exercise on hot days. Take care when exercising your pet. On very hot days, you should exercise your pet either in the early morning or evening hours.

Check the pavement. Asphalt gets very hot and can burn your pet's paws. If the ground is too hot for your hand then it's too hot for your pet's feet. You should also always carry water with you to keep your pet from dehydrating.

Always provide ample shade and water. When your pet is outside, protection from heat and sun and plenty of fresh, cold water is crucial. In heat waves, add ice to water when possible. Tree shade and tarps are ideal because they don't obstruct air flow. A doghouse does not provide relief from heat—in fact, it makes it worse.

Keep your house cool. Pets respond differently to heat than humans do so it's a good idea to leave the AC on or if you don't have one, open the windows and turn on a fan. Watch for signs of heatstroke.

Extreme heat can cause heatstroke. Animals are at risk for heat stroke if they are very old, very young, overweight, not conditioned to prolonged exercise, or have heart or respiratory disease. Some signs of heatstroke are heavy panting, glazed eyes, a rapid heartbeat, difficulty breathing, excessive thirst, lethargy, fever, dizziness, lack of coordination, profuse salivation, vomiting, a deep red or purple tongue, seizure, and unconsciousness. If your pet is experiencing any of these symptoms, take them to the vet immediately.

Capitol Pops Concert Band celebrates America with Independence Day weekend concerts in Fair Oaks, Roseville

The Capitol Pops Concert Band will celebrate America's 241st birthday and continue its landmark 20th anniversary season with a pair of free, public, family-friendly concerts over the extended July 4 holiday weekend.

The band will get things going with a spirited Celebrate America concert from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Sunday, July 2, 2017, at Fair Oaks Village Park, 4238 Main St., in Fair Oaks.

On Tuesday, July 4, 2017, the Capitol Pops once again will perform its outdoor Fourth of July concert, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Royer Park, 190 Park Drive, in Roseville. The band's annual performance is part of a full day of red, white and blue festivities, including a morning parade, in Roseville.

Under the baton of Director Kurt Pearsall, both CPCB concerts will include a mix of some of the band's traditional American popular standards and familiar patriotic selections celebrating the nation's founding in 1776. The concerts also will include music recognizing service veterans and branches of the U.S. military. Voice and instrumental soloists will be featured in both shows, which will include intermissions of about 15 minutes.

Concert-goers are encouraged to bring blankets, lawn chairs and refreshments to enjoy the performances on the grounds of both venues. Various vendors will be at the concert sites as well.

Started in 1997, the CPCB has performed a diverse portfolio of high-quality, well-prepared music heard by thousands of concert-goers throughout Northern California. Based in Citrus Heights, the self-supporting, nonprofit community band of about 60 musicians represents a wide cross-section of the Sacramento area. For more information on the Capitol Pops, visit www.capitolpops.org or its Facebook page.

Orangevale Cooks

by Suzanne Feblowitz

The tomatoes in gardens should be getting ripe by now, so this recipe would be perfect for your Fourth of July barbecues. This recipe is a combination of recipes: one that I found in the Sacramento Bee several years ago and another from one that my mother uses. This dish is best eaten on the day you make it, but it will also make a nice lunch or leftovers the following day, too.

We would love some new recipes, so if you have any recipes, please send them to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email address in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit

your name

PASTA SALAD WITH FRESH TOMATOES AND BASIL

6-8 medium sized garden fresh tomatoes, cored and diced

4-5 tablespoons olive oil

1 teaspoon oregano

2 tablespoons fresh chopped parsley

4 cloves garlic, chopped

4 oz. fresh basil, chopped (I get a basil plant at Trader Joes and use that!)

1/3 cup feta cheese

1/3 cup pine nuts, toasted

2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar (optional)

1 pound penne pasta, cooked

Prepare pasta. While the pasta is cooking, warm the oil in a large skillet. Turn the heat to low and add the tomatoes, oregano, parsley, and garlic. Stir gently and cook for about 5-7 minutes on low. You are basically just letting the flavors come together. When everything still looks fresh and things start smelling delicious, add the basil and mix in gently. Finally, add the vinegar and mix in, and then remove from heat.

Put pasta in a serving dish. Pour the warm tomato mixture over the pasta. Mixture should not be hot. If it is hot, allow to cool. When cool, toss with the feta and pine nuts. Serve as a main dish or as a side dish. Serve warm or cool.

Note: You can adjust the amount of ingredients after you make the recipe. I probably use more tomatoes, feta cheese and pine nuts than noted above.

My sister doesn't like feta cheese, so she uses shaved parmesan cheese.

Is shaving your double coated dog actually keeping it cool in the summer?

Double coated breeds such as Golden Retrievers, Labs, Pomeranians, etc., have guard hairs that are shiny and tough, and may come in many different colors. These hairs stand away from the body. The secondary or undercoat hairs are shorter and closer to the skin, often looking dull and fluffy. These are the hairs you might find scattered throughout your house.

When the weather is cold the coat stands out, holding in a layer of heat above the skin. When it is warm the coat lays flat, allowing body heat to escape. This natural process helps regulate a dog's body temperature and differs from how the human body responds to temperature changes. Because of the nature of their hair and underlying skin, when double coated dogs are shaved, their regulating mechanism is removed, resulting in the dog becoming colder or hotter depending on the external temperature.

In addition, when shaved, these dogs are more likely to be victims of bug bites, sunburn, and scratches. A lot of people think they are helping their dog stay cool by shaving it, generally during the summer. Evolution has provided dogs exactly what they need to survive. By shaving away their natural ability to warm or cool themselves you might be doing more harm than good.

Dogs are not like people. They do not cool themselves down by perspiring through their skin or by removing layers of clothes. Dogs have the ability to cool themselves down by panting, and they can only sweat through their paw pads.

If you feel your dog is hot, you can take a damp towel and use it on the outside and inside of the ear leather. The veins in the ear are a vital organ that will also help keep your dog cool in summertime.

Clipper alopecia In addition to creating problems for a double coated dog's natural ventilating system, shaving these breeds with a clipper blade often results in clipper alopecia. The condition occurs when the dog's coat is shaved and the guard hairs do not grow back normally. Clipper alopecia is most likely to occur in spitz-type breeds like Pomeranians or huskies, perhaps because of the density of their guard hairs. Some of the hair will grow back, but there will be many bald patchy areas.

Maintaining double coated dogs The key to maintaining double coated breeds is regular grooming every 6 to 8 weeks. Brushing with a pin brush or a slicker brush is a good way to keep the coat conditioned and tangle free. Be sure you brush thoroughly down to the skin. If you have questions or concerns about the condition of your dog's coat, you are welcome to bring it to our grooming salon to discuss an appropriate treatment or cut

that will not damage your pet's hair. Unfortunately, many pet owners are not told about the risks involved when getting their dog shaved. The only time we ever shave a dog down to the skin is when the pet owner understands the risks, or if the dog is heavily matted, or when there is a medical problem that we have reviewed with the owner.

We hope you find this information valuable. Have a great day and stay cool out there!

On June 15th Casa Roble High School's Air Force JROTC unit CA-901 arrived at Folsom Lake at 7:30 and fell into our individual groups. Although most of the cadets were tired from a long week of Summer Leadership School (SLS), we were excited about our Folsom Lake Clean-up community service project. SLS ends every year with this activity. Not only does it take a team effort, but it also instills a sense of pride for our community in each cadet. This is a group effort that really makes a difference people can see. There are many patrons of the beach area that let us know how much they appreciate our efforts. This makes each cadet feel a sense of pride that can only come with working hard for your community.

Our day started by clearing the driftwood off the beach. This helps keep a clear path for people and animals. By having the beach clean, it adds to the safety of those who come to the beach and makes a safer and more productive environment for the local wildlife. Once the majority of the driftwood was cleared off the beach, we split up into teams and picked up the garbage surrounding the water and picnic areas. After hours of cleaning the beach and chatting with the patrons, our group swam, had a picnic and engaged in team building.

One of the things that makes our unit so successful is not only great leadership but bannng together for projects where we all have a common goal. It's this united goal that helped us earn the "Silver Star Community Service with Excellence" award for community service, in fact we were in the top five percent of JROTC's in the nation. That is an accomplishment that not only shows what a tight ship our commanders run, but how we run, walk, swim, march, and work on everything as a team. The skills you learn from JROTC are like no other. Leadership, commitment, integrity and sense of self are only a few of the things you get from this group. No matter what path you decide to take, the skills you learn in this unit will benefit you throughout your entire life.
