VOLUNTEERS WANTED FOR ORANGEVALE WOMAN'S CLUB

VOLUNTEERS WANTED FOR ORANGEVALE WOMAN'S CLUB

How does a club that is 104 years old remain relevant in 2017? It does so, successfully, with a merging of long time members whose history tells the story of Orangevale volunteerism, with the enthusiasm and new ideas of incoming participants.

It can be daunting to walk into a room as a stranger but the smiling faces and laughter of a group of like-minded women quickly puts one at ease.

The re-affirming motto of newly elected OVWC president, Marilyn Edwards, "Many Hands Blessing Many Hearts" captures the spirit of the club's upcoming projects and events. Organizations run on fundraising opportunities and one of the club's biggest and most fun occurs on Friday October 13. The Fall Bunko happens in conjunction with the Orangevale Grange at the landmark hall on Walnut Avenue. Somehow the rowdy dice rolling parlor game transforms into a well-organized and well attended community activity. One with a delicious spaghetti dinner, raffle prizes galore, and money to the winners!

OVWC members are encouraged to bring ideas to the group and one new member's idea proved a big hit last year. Sharon McGrath introduced the concept of "pop-up" lunches to the club. So often meetings are busy-ness with reports and work with little time for socializing other than the chatter during the pot-luck style lunches. Sharon's party planning skills led her to coordinate monthly gatherings at local restaurants where good food and casual conversation builds on the relationships that keep the group glowing and growing.

We look forward to a fun and productive year as we meet Tuesday September 5th at 11:00 at the Orangevale Community Center. We would love to have you join us as we continue our goal of serving the Orangevale community.

For more information find us at Orangevale Woman's Club on Facebook or contact Marilyn Edwards @ 916-764-6816.

TO: Editor ;

After reading the "Petacular teeth cleaning" article in the recent issue of the Orangevale View, as a medical professional I found it very difficult to leave the inaccuracies in the article unchallenged. The person writing the article is not a trained veterinary professional and some of the statements prove this. The most obvious inaccuracy is that dogs are omnivores NOT carnivores as stated. The author also states, "considerable itchiness" is a potential side effect of anesthesia. I am not sure where this comes from; in the 26 years I have been in the field, 7 of which I have been a veterinarian, I have never experienced or heard about a case of generalized pruritus (itching post anesthesia). However, animals can lick at the site where the IV catheter was placed due to irritation from shaving. Sadly "anaphylactic shock or death" are potential side effects but thankfully very rare. The risk of not pursuing good dental care or other procedures often far outweighs the risks. As for non-anesthetic cleaning, this is not the best option for pets as the only source of oral hygiene. Significant disease can lurk below the gumline and without the ability to take whole mouth x-rays diseased teeth will be left behind. The infection will spread affecting other teeth, and there is concern that systemic illness could occur due to this. According to AAHA (American Animal Hospital Association – the correct use of the acronym) there is concern that non-anesthetic cleanings can be stressful and painful to animals. Many dental specialists and veterinarians have performed whole mouth extractions on pets that have routinely received non-anesthetic cleanings. The owners are shocked to learn their pet must lose all its teeth and often state: but I have been getting them cleaned regularly.

Small dogs have a genetic predisposition for poor oral hygiene despite some owners attempts at good oral health care. "Bad breath, tartar, inflamed gums, and tooth loss" are NOT indications to see the canine tooth fairy, they are indications to seek out a veterinarian who has access to whole mouth x-rays, and have an anesthetic dental to fully assess the state of the pet's oral health and treat appropriately.

The author and I agree when she states: "you have the power to dramatically improve and maintain your dog's health and reduce risk of disease and other serious illness through diet, exercise, a home dental care program, and regular vet wellness exams."

Michelle Rivera, DVM

Dear Editor,

It is with gratitude that we residents of Orangevale can water our plants, trees, and lawns this year without the severe restrictions of the past years, however resourcefully. But in doing so, we should, I believe be aware that relief from the drought does not bring with it a lessening of impact on our community's most valued properties—those zoned "agricultural". Opposed to logic by definition, properties zoned agricultural in our water district (and perhaps others) are charged for their water consumption at the same rate as "residents" zoned properties. That is to say, our community's commercial orchards, those few that remain to us and to whom we are indebted for near access to quality and variety of fruits and vegetables, the invaluable aesthetic of rural living and even the founding of our "colony". To perhaps change in our little community what, I, at least perceive to be an inequity against agriculture in favor of industry (residential/business buildings) support should be shown for our agricultural concerns be attending an Orangevale Water Co. board meeting (1st Tuesday at 5 each month) or commenting online at www.orangevalewater.com. Ours is a small community but far-sighted and supportive use of water resources is a state-wide, world-wide concern in agriculture, a lack of which can and does, and is, resulting in devastation effect on people and nature. Maybe we can help.

Thank you,
Phyllis Russo

ANNOUNCEMENTS

TO: Editor of OV News

I am interested to know if the Chamber of Commerce and/or other local organizations participate in trying to find businesses to move into vacant stores such as the SaveMart that closed. It seems we do not need any more discount stores in the area since we have Winco and Walmart.

Also, we frequently read in the newspaper about the support given to local farmers and the farmers markets. Yet we had a wonderful orchard that is no longer active and appears to have dying trees. I loved the fresh peaches and plums I purchased there. We have Tom Tomich's orchard left which still produces the most wonderful fruits and apples, etc. I feel these kinds of orchards are truly gems worth keeping in the community. Is there no organization interested in seeing that these kind of small orchards continue to exist once the owner has passed away? Are we not the food capitol of California and perhaps the country??

FOOTBALL, FANS AND RAMS!!

HEY EVERYONE!

Are you ready for some football? Mark your calendars and get ready for the season opener with local rivals Casa Roble Rams versus Bella Vista Broncos , August 25 at Bella Vista High School. The Rams are gearing up for what's going to be a "ramtastic" season under the new leadership of newly appointed Head Coach Chris Horner.

"Our boys have been training hard all summer," said Coach Horner. "We've got some great talent and are looking forward to seeing their work put into action this season."

The JV game starts at 5:00 pm followed by the Varsity game at 7:15 p.m. The next two games on Casa's season line up include Sheldon on September 1 and Union Mine on September 8. Both games are hosted by Casa, but due to field construction at Newman Field, are being held at Bella Vista. Game times remain the same, JV 5:00 pm and Varsity 7:15 pm. Come for great football, food, fan-fun and of course all your apparel needs including cowbells if you need one!

See ya there! Go Rams!

TREE CAMPUS PROGRAM

American River College Earns Recognition
from Tree Campus USA
Program
One of only 4 California
Community Colleges Recognized

American River College (ARC) has been recognized by the National Arbor Day Foundation as part of their Tree Campus USA program. ARC is one of only 4 California community colleges as well as one of only 13 two- and four-year California colleges and universities to receive this recognition.

The recognition follows a lot of hard work by a team of staff, faculty, and students. The Tree Campus USA program recognizes college and university campuses that:

- Effectively manage their campus trees
- Develop connectivity with the community beyond campus borders to foster healthy, urban forests
- Strive to engage their student population

utilizing service learning opportunities centered on campus, and community, forestry efforts

ARC's service learning project was a crowd-sourced tree inventory where 25 volunteers geo-tagged each of the trees on campus with their cell phones. To date, the count is at 1,384 – with more than half of them identified. The next phase will be to have them all identified and all of the tree markers around the campus identified as well.

“American River College is honored to receive this recognition from the Tree Campus USA program,” said ARC President Thomas Greene. “This acknowledgement is a testimony to the great work being done by our college community. As part of our ongoing commitment to the values of sustainability, we will continue to work towards maintaining this recognition for the future.”

For more information on the Tree Campus USA program, please visit <https://www.arboday.org/programs/treecampususa/index.cfm>

OPERATION HOT SPOT

OPERATION: HOT SPOTS Human Trafficking “John” Stings

District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert announces “Operation: Hot Spots,” a coordinated countywide sting operation aimed at reducing the demand side of human trafficking by targeting sex buyers.

Community based organizations from the Sacramento Together Against Human Trafficking coalition voiced the need to crack down on “Johns,” who fund and sustain the sex trafficking trade. In response, DA Anne Marie Schubert led the effort to organize this countywide operation, with a commitment from law enforcement to conduct operations throughout the year to reduce sex trafficking.

The District Attorney’s Office coordinated a training for law enforcement agencies with experts on human trafficking victims (adults and juveniles), suspect tactics/manipulations, trafficking investigations, what to look for and what evidence to collect for prosecutions as well as community resources and services available to victims of human trafficking. Victim advocates are also involved in the sting operations to assist with services if necessary.

On August 16, 2017,

multiple law enforcement agencies conducted sting operations throughout the county. In a show of support and importance of these efforts, DA Anne Marie Schubert joined Sheriff Scott Jones and Sacramento Police Chief Daniel Hahn on ride-alongs for street sting operations on Watt Ave. and Stockton Blvd.

Those convicted of soliciting another for prostitution or agreeing to engage in an act of prostitution, face a maximum penalty of 180 days in county jail, will be subject to search and seizure, and may be ordered to stay away from the involved locations or known “stroll” areas.

DA Schubert states, “Hearing the request of organizations and victims to expand our efforts in fighting human trafficking by targeting sex buyers, our law enforcement agencies are now working collaboratively to meet this challenge. Our county and city law enforcement sting operations should send a strong and unified message that purchasing sex from trafficking victims will not be tolerated in our community.”

Students will actively learn about the criminal justice system, hear from our criminal justice partners, and engage in open communication about issues that affect youth today.

Topics include: anatomy of a criminal case, race as a factor in the criminal justice system, use of force, gun violence, gangs, dating violence, human trafficking, marijuana, crime scene investigation and evidence, and distracted driving. A career fair will be held at graduation.

The program is open to current Sacramento County high school students. Students can apply for either the South, North, East or Elk Grove/Galt area academy by submitting a completed application, which can be downloaded at www.sacda.org. Space is limited and on a first come, first served basis.

The deadline to apply is September 8, 2017

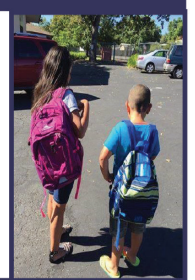

DA Schubert states, "Given the success and overwhelming interest in the academy, we have added three law enforcement agency partners and two additional academy classes since the program's launch in 2015. This expansion will help us achieve our goal of reaching as many students as possible throughout the county and engage them in a positive relationship with members of the criminal justice system."

Orangevale Cooks

by Suzanne Feblowitz

I have shared this recipe before, but I wanted to make sure you actually tried it because it is so easy and so delicious!! This is perfect for a quick breakfast on a rushed school day! Add the granola to vanilla yogurt and top it off with some fresh fruit and you will have the perfect breakfast treat!

If you would like to share a favorite spring recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

SALLY'S GRANOLA

4 ½ cups rolled (thick) oats, Old Fashioned, not quick cooking
 1 ½ cups pecans (raw, coarsely chopped)
 ½ cup sunflower seeds or pumpkin seeds (raw)
 1 cup brown sugar
 ½ cup canola oil
 ½ cup water
 ¼ cup pure maple syrup
 ¾ to 1 cup unsweetened flaked coconut (Bob's Red Mill in the natural food section is a good choice and Trader Joes has its own brand of unsweetened coconut.)
 1 to 1 ½ cups dried fruit (a combination of dried wild blueberries, dried Bing cherries and dried cranberries is delicious)

1. Preheat oven to 325.
2. Place oats, pecans, seeds, brown sugar in big bowl and mix.
3. Place oil, maple syrup and water in a bowl and mix-then pour over oat mixture and stir.
4. Spread on 12"x17" ungreased baking sheet and bake 25 minutes. Stir with flat spatula. Bake 30-35 minutes longer until dry, golden brown and fragrant. Stir once more during that time and watch carefully the last few minutes because it can burn. (Sprinkle the coconut over the oats during the last 5 to 10 minutes to toast up)

 5. Cool granola, stir in fruit and put in airtight containers or Ziplocs.

Capitol Pops concert part of Sept. 9 music festival at Christ the King Lutheran Church in Orangevale

The Capitol Pops Concert Band continues its landmark 20th anniversary season with a free, public concert from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 9, 2017, at Christ the King Lutheran Church, 5811 Walnut Ave., in Orangevale.

The band's performance is part of the church's second "Songs of September Music Festival" event, which will be held outdoors on the church grounds, from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Also scheduled to perform is the RC Swing Dance Band out of Rancho Cordova. The 17-piece swing band performs all the big band and swing standards, great dance music for multiple generations. RC Swing's concert is scheduled from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m.

From 6 to 7 p.m., festival attendees will be entertained by the Guemmer & Myers Trio. Composed of Scott Guemmer, pastor of Christ the King Lutheran Church; Jenny Guemmer and Owen Myers, the trio specializes in inspirational, passionate music.

Under the baton of Director Emeritus Jerry Lopes, the CPCB performance will include some of the band's traditional American favorites that have entertained Northern California audiences for nearly 20 years.

There is no admission charge to attend the event. Voluntary donations will be accepted on-site by both the CPCB and Christ the King Lutheran Church.

Hot dogs, chips and beverages will be available for purchase. Attendees are encouraged to bring lawn chairs and blankets to enjoy the show on the church green adjacent to CTK's patio area.

Started in 1997, the CPCB has performed a diverse portfolio of high-quality, well-prepared music heard by thousands of concertgoers throughout Northern California. The Citrus Heights-based, self-supporting, nonprofit community band of about 60 musicians represents a wide cross-section of the Sacramento area. Christ the King Lutheran Church is the band's rehearsal site.

For more information on the Capitol Pops, visit www.capitolpops.org or its Facebook page. The Guemmer & Myers Trio website is <http://guemmerandmyers.weebly.com>. The RC Swing Dance Band website is www.rcswing.com.

More details on the Sept. 9 event can be obtained at www.christthekingov.com, on the church's Facebook page or by calling 916-988-2484.

Harris Center Three Stages at Folsom Lake College

A CONCERT OF JAW-DROPPING ENTERTAINMENT: THE MARTIAL ARTISTS & ACROBATS OF TIANJIN Direct from the People's Republic of China

(August 14, 2017, Folsom, CA) The Martial Artists & Acrobats of Tianjin mix martial arts, magic, and dazzling style of Chinese acrobatics for a performance of virtuosic athleticism. The company, established in 1957, has toured from North America, throughout Europe and the Middle East; their artists have shared the stage with Ringling and Barnum & Bailey Bros. Circus, Cirque du Soleil, Big Apple Circus, Swiss Knie Bros., National Circus and UniverSoul Circus among others.

Whether infusing ballet, acrobatics and skillful gymnastics into a singular act, or spinning (or even juggling!) plates on their heads, or performing "Contortion with Carpets' Spinning," or demonstrating Chinese Kung Fu in either the Shaolin or Wudang style, the company is thrilling entertainment for the whole family.

The Martial Artists & Acrobats of Tianjin will be presented Friday, September 15, 2017 at 7:30 pm; Saturday, September 16, 2017 at 2 pm and 7:30 pm and Sunday, September 17, 2017 at 2 pm and 7 pm. Tickets are $18-$38; Premium $48

15% Discount for Sunday evening single tickets. Tickets are available online at www.harriscenter.net or from Harris Center Ticket Office at 916-608-6888 from 12 noon to 6 pm, Monday through Saturday, and two hours before show time. Parking is included in the price of the ticket. Harris Center is located on the west side of Folsom Lake College campus in Folsom, CA, facing East Bidwell Street.

The Martial Artists and Acrobats of Tianjin, People's Republic of China was established in 1957 as a combination of the former China Circus & Acrobats, which was originally founded in 1948.

It is considered one of the best acrobatic troupes in China with over one hundred acrobatic, magical and martial arts performers, and more than 30 representative acts, many of which have won prizes in national and international festivals and competitions. Leather Straps won the Silver Clown Award and Circus Art Development Association Award at the 13th Monte Carlo International Circus Festival. Air Acrobatics won the Golden Prize of the 10th Spring of April Friendship Art Festival in North Korea. One-Hand Handstand seized the Golden Lion Award of the 4th China National Acrobatic Competition, the Golden Award-the first prize of the Republic President at the 19th Festival of Cirque de Demain in Paris, the Honorary Gold Lion Award, and the Artistic Innovation Award at the 5th Wuqiao International Circus Festival. In 2015, the Icarian Tumbling and Jumping by 18 acrobats won the Silver Clown at the 39th Monte Carlo Circus Festival in Monaco and the First Golden Award at the 2nd China International Circus Festival in Zhuhai, China.—the list goes on and on.

The company has toured extensively to France, Japan, Australia, Finland, Norway, Denmark, Germany, Sweden, Iceland, Italy, Israel, South Korea, DPRK, Belgium, Russia and Hong Kong, and the United States of America where it has been highly praised and warmly welcomed. From 2010 through 2015, the company frequently traveled to France for four months each tour.
