SUNRISE COMMUNITY CHURCH CELEBRATES THE 11TH ANNIVERSARY OF BETHLEHEM VILLAGE.

This year Sunrise Community Church celebrates the 11th anniversary of Bethlehem Village. What started as a small Christmas production has grown beyond what anyone could have imagined. Last year over 200 volunteers participated and more than 6,500 guests visited. As one guest said, "We go to the mall to see Santa, we come to Bethlehem Village to see Jesus."

Bethlehem Village is a great, free community event where family and friends come together to enjoy a significant piece of our history.

If you haven't been to Bethlehem Village, you're missing out on an ancient experience. I had the pleasure of experiencing it last year for my first time and was blown away! The authenticity (as history is reenacted) was executed beautifully! Bethlehem Village is an interactive experience the entire family will enjoy which features: an interactive market, a manger scene with Mary, Joseph & baby Jesus, singing angels, Roman soldiers surveying the town, a sweet little treat for all to enjoy, as well as Sunrise's gorgeous Christmas tree for a great holiday photo op.

So do you want to IMAGINE BETHLEHEM...two thousand years ago? Register for the census. Walk the crowded streets. Visit the marketplace. But beware of the Roman soldiers. Keep your eyes and ears open... because very soon A KING WILL BE BORN!

For an out of this era experience, visit Bethlehem Village at Sunrise Community Church, 8321 Greenback Ln. Fair Oaks, Friday 12/1/17 – Sunday 12/3/17 from 6p – 8pm (weather permitting). Visit www.sunrisecommunity.church for more information.

Capitol Pops Concert
Band rings in the holidays with free concert Dec. 2 in Rusch Park Gym in Citrus Heights

The Capitol Pops Concert Band nears the end of its landmark 20th season with a free, open to the public holiday concert at 7 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 2, 2017, at the Rusch Park Gym, 7801 Auburn Blvd., in Citrus Heights.

Under the baton of Director Judith Steinle, CPCB will once again play traditional holiday favorites, seasonal musical hits and carols. Attendees also will be invited to join the band in a Christmas sing-along.

This performance, sponsored by the Sunrise Recreation and Park District, is family friendly and a great way to usher in the holiday season. The two-hour concert includes a 20-minute intermission.

Various prizes will be on display for the raffle ticket drawings, and the public will have the opportunity to purchase a variety of colorful poinsettias after the concert concludes. Longtime CPCB supporter Eisley Nursery of Auburn has donated a large poinsettia plant as a grand prize in support of the band's student scholarship fund.

A portion of raffle proceeds will go to support the general expenses of the band.

Started in 1997, the CPCB has performed a diverse portfolio of high-quality, well-prepared music heard by thousands of concertgoers throughout Northern California. Based in Citrus Heights, the self-supporting, nonprofit community band of about 60 musicians represents a wide cross-section of the Sacramento area. For more information on the Capitol Pops, visit www.capitolpops.org or its Facebook page.

Congratulations to the 2017 Casa Rams for a great season making it to the playoffs second round!

CASA RAM FOOTBALL UPDATE

The Casa Rams wrapped up an exciting football season under the leadership of new Head Coach Chris Horner by advancing to the second round of playoffs, the first time since 2013, against the Center High School Cougars. The well matched teams battled it out to the end and Casa fell short 26 -25 under the Friday night lights at Bella Vista High School. "We had a great run this season," said Coach Horner.

"And I'm extremely proud of our team and my staff for their outstanding effort and performance."

"We are already looking forward to great things next year including playing at home on our new turf field and giving the fans another exciting season of Casa Ram football," he added.

Casa's field renovation is on track for completion in the new year. Stay tuned for more updates!

BUYING A 2ND HOME & RENTING THE 1ST

Are you considering purchasing a second home and renting out your first? There are certainly pros and cons to renting, as well as selling. Whether you need more space, want to move to a new area, or are just looking to upgrade, it might be time to find a new home. But when you find a new place, what happens to your first home? Rather than selling, many homeowners are discovering the benefits of renting out their first home when they move on to the next. Getting financing for an investment property is significantly more challenging than getting financed for an "owner-occupied" home. Renting out your first home will not affect your current mortgage, and you can still apply for "owner-occupied" financing for your second home (which requires a lower down payment and offers lower interest rates than that of an investment property) as you will be living in it, not a tenant. However, keep in mind that you will be applying for a second mortgage. You will need to prove to lenders that you are a safe bet. It often helps to have a tenant lined up for your first home, prior to applying for a loan for your second home. In some cases, lenders may consider that future rent as part of your income when approving your second mortgage. Be sure to speak with an accountant to determine the tax advantages (and possible challenges) that come with renting out your first home. Tax rules can be tricky so be sure you have a thorough understanding of how renting out your home will affect you tax-wise.

Renting out your first home will only benefit you if you can, in fact, find a tenant. Be sure to research the rental market in your area and see how your home stacks up. Look for similar rental homes in the area to help assess how your home compares. It is important to set an appropriate rent that is competitive yet still allows you to make a profit. Make sure you take all factors into consideration: maintenance costs, property taxes and insurance. It always helps to speak with a professional for guidance.

Orangevale Cooks

by Suzanne Feblowitz

There is a chill in the air!! It is time to switch gears and start baking and cooking to fill our bellies and to make house warm again! At my last book club meeting, the host, Ann Snyder, served up a delicious soup to enjoy while we were discussing our book. We enjoyed it so much that she graciously sent out the recipe. It is the perfect time of year for this soup.

If you would like to share a favorite recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

BEST COLD DAY BUTTERNUT SQUASH SOUP

1 large butternut squash
 2 tablespoons butter
 ½ onion, chopped
 6 cups chicken stock
 ½ cup half and half (may use fat free)
 1 teaspoon nutmeg
 2 teaspoon dried dill
 salt and pepper, to taste
 fresh dill for garnish, optional

Peel butternut squash. Cut squash in half and scoop out seeds and pulp. Cut into 1-inch chunks.

In a large pot, sauté chopped onion in butter until translucent.

Add cubed squash and simmer on low for 5 minutes. Add 6 cups chicken stock or low sodium bouillon.

Simmer for 25 minutes.

Remove from heat and allow to cool. Puree in blender. (Do not do this while squash is hot. Steam may crack the glass or cover of blender.)

Return pureed squash to a pot. Stir in 1 cup half and half or milk (more for a thinner soup).

Add the dill, nutmeg and salt and pepper.

Simmer for 10 minutes. Garnish each bowl with a sprig of fresh dill.

Serve with a French baguette.

HOLIDAY HOME TOURS A GREAT WAY TO CELEBRATE THE SEASON

One of the most delightful ways to celebrate the holidays is to go on an inspirational holiday home tour.

A holiday home tour is many things.. It is:

- a source of design inspiration, as each home is decorated by a professional interior decorator;
- a way to share a one-of-a-kind experience with friends and family;
- a source of funding for a charitable cause; and
- a way to get a peek inside the homes of a neighborhood you've always wanted to check out...as welcomed guest.

Your tour ticket includes a map to each home on the tour and other details. Most tours feature a boutique with refreshments for purchase, vendors, homemade crafts and other one-of-a-kind goodies. All to benefit the charity.

Bring some cash along, because you may well get some Christmas and Hanukkah shopping done.

Wear comfortable walking shoes, because you may be doing quite a bit of walking, depending on the neighborhood you visit and the distances from home-to-home.

These tours are memorable and rotate from home-to-home annually. You may well never see the interior of one of this year's homes again. It really is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. This is why tickets sell quickly..

Folsom
Dec. 8-9: The Historic Folsom Holiday Home Tour features nine charming historical sites beautifully decorated for the holidays. This event benefits the Murer House Foundation, the Folsom History Museum, and the Folsom Historical Society. Tour hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tickets are $20 and are available at the Folsom History Museum and the Murer House.

El Dorado Hills
Dec. 9-10: The Homes for the Holiday Tour features expansive estate homes and lovely country cottages. This event benefits the Sierra Foothills Assistance League. Tickets are $25 for adults, $10 for children ages 10 and under. Tour hours are: Saturday, Dec. 9 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, Dec. 10 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Visit sierrafoothills.assistanceleague.org to purchase tickets.

East Sacramento
Dec. 1-3: If you love the architectural detail of Sacramento's "Fabulous '40s" neighborhoods, this tour is for you. This tour features five magnificent homes. The tour takes approximately two hours from start to finish.

This tour benefits Sacred Heart Elementary School, and is the "Big One." In continuous operation since 1973, the volunteers for this annual event really make sure you get a lot of bang for your buck.

Tickets are $30 per person through Nov. 30, and $35/person beginning Dec. 1.

Visit sacredheartmetour.com for online and Sacramento area ticket purchases.

Spread the cheer
Because these events benefit charity, realize that each ticket is non-refundable. So if you find you can't go, do give your ticket to a friend as a special gift. They will appreciate it, and so will the charities..

By Susan Laird
Arts & Entertainment columnist

Docents greet visitors on the Folsom Holiday Home Tour. Regional decorator tours will open special homes in Folsom, El Dorado Hills, and East Sacramento.
