STATION FOR RENT

Santa's Story

Just a week before Christmas as I finished household chores
I looked up and to my surprise saw Santa Clause at my door
What is it I ask, why are you here, Christmas is a week away
I'm here to help you teach the children, heres what you must say

A fir tree he pulled from his bag and claimed it's green year round
With needles pointing heavenward depicting hope we have found
Then from his bag he pulled a star which is a heavenly sign
Gods promise of fulfillment and our savior so divine

Teach the world he said with this candle, Christ is our guiding lite
We'll never more have darkness keeping Jesus in our sight
Then from his bag he retrieved a wreath and placed it on the tree
He said this represents continuous love from God to you and me

Then from his bag a holly plant that represents immortality
And the red holly berries are the blood he shed for you and me
Then the bag was empty He gave it all, including His only son
But let them know Christ has arose to save you everyone

Then the angels sang Glory to God good will and peace on earth
For this is a time to celebrate our wonderful Saviors birth
Then Santa brought forth a little bell which should have been pure gold
Which he explained the ringing of, brought lost sheep to the fold

Santa looked back at the tree with a twinkle in his eye
Said teach the children properly don't let them live the lie
For God is the one who made it possible the one that made it true
I'm just here to worship Him and celebrate like you

ROTARY FIGHTS SEX TRAFFICKING

"It doesn't happen here." This is the most common response when someone mentions sex trafficking in our area. But the Sacramento region is considered to be a hotbed for sex trafficking in the United States with California recording the highest volume of what many call "modern day slavery." With the recent approval of a significant, groundbreaking grant from The Rotary Foundation, Rotary is stepping up to work with local agencies and governments to combat this problem through prevention efforts.

The funding for this project from The Rotary Foundation is unique in that Foundation funding usually goes to projects in developing countries in the world. Rotary's mission is to tackle some of the world's biggest challenges, locally and globally, through the collective leadership and expertise of its 1.2 million members. With the awareness of sex trafficking in our area, local Rotarians stepped up to lead and organize education and public awareness efforts and bring Rotary Foundation funding to our community.

District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert welcomes Rotary's partnership in the effort to prevent sex trafficking in the Sacramento region. "This Rotary partnership is a testament to how strong community collaborations can make a significant impact in preventing victims of human trafficking and other crimes" said Schubert.

Rotary District 5180, consisting of 41 Rotary clubs in the greater Sacramento area, Walnut Grove, Yuba City/Marysville, Gridley and Oroville, will fund both an education and a public awareness campaign with approximately $340,000 in combined grant and local funding. The vision is to create a sustainable large-scale project in the Sacramento region to fight human trafficking and then replicate the project globally through Rotary's over 1.2 million membership network of 35,000 clubs worldwide.

The education portion involves training school administrators, educators and students in the 5th, 7th, 9th and 11th grades on human trafficking. Rotary District 5180 will partner with 3Strands Global (<http://3strandsglobalfoundation.org/>) to provide their PROTECT program (Prevention Organization To Educate Children on Trafficking), which has the approval and support of the Office of the California Attorney General and the Department of Education. The delivery of this program raises awareness and helps both teachers and students understand and recognize human trafficking to create a generation less susceptible to victimization. It is important to relay the message to teens and young adults about how to prevent becoming a victim of human trafficking as well as instilling values that discourage sex consumerism.

The public awareness portion will be accomplished through a partnership with The Voices and Faces Project (<http://www.voicesandfaces.org/>) through their Ugly Truth campaign. According to Anne K. Ream, founder of The Voices and Faces Project, the campaign was piloted in Illinois in 2013 where it contributed to legislative reform through the passage of three new state laws regarding human trafficking. It is a proven media model that has been adopted by seven U.S. cities with measurable success.

The goal of the campaign in the greater Sacramento area is to raise the level of public awareness of human trafficking and is aimed at informing the public as well as effecting change in public policy. Until the public understands the truth about the conditions that girls, boys, women, and men live in when being trafficked, this issue will persist and grow. Resources and 800 numbers will also be advertised to give those being trafficked support to reach out for help. "If you're paying for sex, you could be paying for someone's pain" is just one example of a headline from their advertising.

The education segment will begin in early 2018 and will be provided in schools in Sacramento, Sutter, Placer, Yolo, Yuba, Butte and El Dorado counties. It is anticipated that the Ugly Truth campaign will roll out in within the same time frame.

To enhance the efforts of Rotary and increase the impact and breadth of both the education and public awareness pieces, additional funding is still being sought. Corporate and individual donations may be made at <http://rotary5180.org/>. This link also provides additional details on the initiative.

OH WHAT FUN IT IS TO FLY... A DRONE THIS HOLIDAY!

OH WHAT FUN IT IS TO FLY...A DRONE THIS

HOLIDAY!

Over the past few years, drone technology has come a long way. Drones are no longer just for professionals or serious hobbyists. New less expensive amateur drones have become all the rage. If you're looking to purchase a drone for Christmas, it is helpful to know what types of drones are available.

Amateur Drones – priced $10 to $200

These drones are great for beginners and while easy to fly they can be just as easy to crash. They are more affordable, but may not offer the GPS and stability functions the hobbyist and professional drones have. Therefore, having eyes on the drone at all times is essential for safe and fun flight.

Hobby and Racing Drones – priced $200 to $1000

Some perks to these drones include inflight camera, GPS, and return to home functions. These drones may require extra accessories such as a smart phone or tablet to control the photography and utilize First Person View (FPV). 3D goggles may also be needed for operation of racing drones.

Professional Drones – priced $1,000 to $10,000+

These drones are used for many applications including photography, search and rescue, construction inspection and 3D mapping. They are typically linked to three or more GPS satellites and have collision avoidance sensors to ensure safer flight and recovery. If the drone is used professionally, the FAA requires that the pilot obtains a Part 107/UAS or 333 Exempt operator license. While operating your drone, always use common sense, good manners and be respectful of other's privacy. To learn more about drone regulations visit <https://www.faa.gov/uas>.

Buying a Home in 2018? A Few Tips

The year of 2017 is quickly coming to a close. Here are five preparation tips to help you buy a home in 2018.

1. Check Your Credit Score - Before you buy a home in 2018, it's important that you know what score you're broadcasting to lenders. Maybe you bought a car. Perhaps you had some unforeseen medical expenses that you're working to pay off. Did you miss a few credit card payments? Or were you ever late paying your rent or mortgage? Checking your credit score is the first thing you should do.

2. Pinch Your Pennies - Before you start looking for a new home, it's good to know what your budget is. Once you do that, you can get a rough idea of how much your down payment will cost and start saving accordingly.

There's nothing worse than finding the perfect home and then not getting it because your offer was too small.

3. Make a Wish List - It's a good idea for you and other members of your household to sit down and consider what amenities are going to work best for you. From there, you can prioritize which amenities are wants and which are needs. Having a clear vision of your dream home in mind will keep you from settling.

4. Downsize or Upgrade? - With the year coming to an end, take this year-end opportunity to peruse your belongings and contemplate what you really need. Consider selling some items in a garage sale or donating them to make room in your home for new décor.

5. Inspect the New Home - After spending time looking you've finally found the perfect home. But will your new home turn out to be a nightmare? There's only one way to tell; hire a home inspector to check out the place during your inspection time frame stated in your contract.

We know that buying a home can be mind-numbing and frustrating, especially at this time of year. If you need help buying a home in 2018, give us a call. We're here to help.

Orangevale Cooks

by Suzanne Feblowitz

Every year my mother-in-law would make dozens of cinnamon rolls for the family. My sister-in-law took up the duty for several years, but now it is up to each of us to make our own. I am sharing the recipe so that you can start the tradition in your family. One batch is enough for a regular size family. Read through the recipe and plan for the time. It takes a bit of time to complete, but the results are amazingly delicious!

If you would like to share a favorite holiday recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

Edna's Cinnamon Rolls
 2- 9 x 12 or 9 x 13 pans- makes 24 cinnamon rolls total
 2 Packages yeast- if using bulk, then 1 pkg=2 ¼ tsp yeast (for a total of 4 ½ tsp yeast)

 ½ cup water (110 degrees)
 1 ½ cup milk, lukewarm
 ½ cup shortening
 ¾ cup granulated sugar
 2 tsp salt
 2 eggs, well beaten
 5-7 cups sifted flour
 ½ cup flour to work with, if kneading by hand

Make the Dough first. When it has almost doubled in size, then get the pans and filling ready.

Filling: ½ cube softened butter, ½ cup granulated sugar and 2 tsp cinnamon- you will divide butter and sugar mixture in half for each dozen.

In bottom of pans: ½ cube softened butter, ½ cup brown sugar, a few tbsp granulated sugar and 2 tsp cinnamon (may need to add more sugar mixture to make sure pans are covered)- this is divided in half for each pan.

Note: If you feel the need to add more butter, then do so sparingly. It doesn't make them better, but you might need more to cover the pan or spread on the dough.

Dough:
 1. Combine yeast with water. In mixer or another bowl, combine milk, shortening, sugar, and salt
 2. Add yeast and eggs
 3. Stir in 2 cups flour, then add enough flour until easy to handle. Turn out onto lightly floured board or use mixer to knead.
 If using mixer, knead until dough sticks to dough hook
 4. Place in greased (oiled) bowl, turn dough over so all gets oiled
 5. Cover with a towel and let rise until doubled- about 1 ½ to 2 hours. It is done when impression in dough remains.

6. Punch dough down and divide in half
 7. Roll each half into a rectangle 15 x 9 inches
 8. Spread softened butter over each rectangle, then sprinkle all over with cinnamon sugar
 9. Roll starting with narrow edge, seal end by pinching along length of roll.
 10. Cut into 12 slices. I usually cut in half and then half each half and so on.

11. Spread softened butter in pans and sprinkle with brown sugar mixture -be sure all is covered
 12. Cover and let rise until doubled- about 30 minutes
 13. Bake in a 375 degree oven for 25 to 30 minutes.
 14. Immediately turn over onto foil so that all the sugar and butter that was on the bottom is now at the top. Let cool. Then wrap in foil and freeze or eat. Enjoy!

PETACULAR

Pets and the Holidays

The holidays are in full swing – full of festivities, friends, family and food! All of these things are fun and exciting for humans, but your little furry friends might not be as excited and understanding about the commotion.

Presents

Pets as presents – don't do it. If you want to give a friend, spouse or child a pet for Christmas, take them with you to the Bradshaw Animal Shelter as part of the gifting experience. Let them be an active participant to ensure the right match is made for both parties through comprehensive adoption counseling. Gifted pets are one of the top returns local shelters take after the holidays.

Decorations

Decorations pose a real threat to your pets – from tinsel to glass ornaments to candles/lights. Never leave your pet unattended with dangerous decorations or a lit Christmas tree. If possible, close off the Christmas tree area from your pets when you aren't in the room.

Food

The holidays are full of delicious food, sweets and drinks for humans, but many of these treats are toxic for your pet. Although many foods are perfectly safe to feed your pet after your holiday meal, others pose a danger. Make sure your guests are aware of the house rules when it comes to feeding your pets.

Guests, parties and loud noises Is your pet a social butterfly or a quiet bookworm? Be considerate of their preference as you invite people into your home, play music and more. Some pets love the additional attention – but others are fearful of all the noise. Designate a back bedroom with a bed, food and water for your shy pets.

Giving Back

The Bradshaw Animal Shelter, owned and operated by the County of Sacramento, houses nearly 14,000 animals every year. They provide food, shelter, medical care, vaccinations, microchips and spay/neuter services to these precious animals. If you are looking for a worthwhile cause to donate to before the end of the tax season, consider Bradshaw Animal Shelter!

The shelter also accepts financial sponsorships of pet adoptions!

Looking for pet themed gifts for friends and family? Visit the Critter Outfitter – a pet retail store located inside the shelter. All proceeds go back to helping the animals and it is stocked with great pet supplies and gifts!

However you celebrate during the holiday season, be mindful of your pets and their safety and have a happy holiday season!

Looking for a hands-off relationship? Rufus is an 11 year old black and white shorthair and quite quirky and is looking for that special someone who can handle his peculiar behavior. He will greet you at the door and start acting like he's happy to see you, but really he just wants you to give him treats. He may appear he wants you to pet him, but don't let him fool you... he doesn't like being pet with human hands. We recommend you use his 99-cent back scratcher to pet him. He'll tell you when he's had enough interaction, so please respect his wishes. Rufus is looking for a cat-savvy household with no kids, where he just hang out with you and listen to your stories. He has been great with other cats. He has lived his entire life indoors, so must be an indoor-only kitty. He is a BIG BOY at 18 pounds. He has been living at Bradshaw Animal Shelter for eight months and he is quite ready to move on to your couch. SEE ADVERTISEMENT BELOW FOR ADOPTION INFORMATION

BIG DAY OF SERVICE

ORANGEVALE FAIR OAKS

Some of the Big Day of service leadership, represented by local business, churches, chambers of commerce, rotaries, government, and citizens.

Get Involved: Big Day of Service Community Interest Meetings Announced

Plans are underway for a "Big Day of Service" next year in Orangevale and Fair Oaks that is being organized with an eye towards benefitting both the recipients of the goodwill and the volunteers who make it possible.

If all goes according to plans for the May 5, 2018 event, hundreds of volunteers will participate in dozens of potential projects ranging from neighborhood trash cleanup to room makeovers for terminally ill children or assembling care packages for deployed military personnel.

"Everyone wins," said Brad Squires, founder of the Community Foundation of Orangevale and Fair Oaks. "We want to create a ripple of kindness by helping bring neighbors together to serve the community and feel the joy of helping others." The goal is to perform at least 25 major projects with more than 500 volunteers. A group of community leaders -- including representatives from County Supervisor Sue Frost's office, as well as individual leaders, local organizations, businesses, and churches -- has been planning the event and is looking for project suggestions as well as more project leaders and volunteers.

"We're incredibly grateful for the support from local leaders and organizations received to date and humbled by those who have already stepped into leadership roles," said Squires. "Seeing the momentum around this event has reinforced our community's reputation for selflessness and gratitude."

Communications for the event are officially launching January

1, 2018, but now is the time to get involved. Community meetings for anyone interested in suggesting projects, volunteering or sponsoring the Big Day of Service will be held Thursday, Jan. 11 from 4-5 p.m. at the Orangevale Grange (5807 Walnut Ave., Orangevale); and Jan. 18 from noon-1 p.m. at New Life Community Church (8101 Sunset Ave., Fair Oaks). For more information, contact info@bigdayofservice.com.
