AN ANGEL WITH A STOP SIGN

If you don't believe in angels, I understand, I was once a skeptic. If you want to see a real Angel, I know where you can find one. This angel does not have wings - Like most angels, they come in disguise. This Angel has a STOP sign! This Guardian Angel is a crossing guard for Orangevale Open at the corner of Pershing and Illinois. This particular Angel has been keeping hundreds of kids safe every school year, for over 8 years, in the San Juan School District.

We send our kids off to school and hope that they are safe. We hope our children are protected and watched over by the best, brightest and the most caring in our community. Sometimes it takes more to protect our kids - it takes faith and a real Guardian Angel.

At 89 years old Maty Shepard gets up at 4:30 in the morning, five days a week to start her day. Come rain or bitter cold she is on the Job keeping our kids safe while crossing a busy intersection in our community. Mary is "crossing" our kids with a patience, compassion, and care. This Gaudian Angel makes sure the several hundred kids a day crossing at "her" intersection are going to make it across safely no matter what! The job of a crossing guard is dangerous work that often goes unappreciated by parents and especially motorists in a hurry. Occasionally subjected to insults and profanity, Mary is steadfast and strong, she simply turns the other cheek. A recent national survey found that nearly two-thirds of all motorist's speed school zones. Many times, crossing guards are the only line of defense between schoolchildren and these speeding, frustrated motorists. In fact, Mary was hit while crossing a student. Trying to protect the child from an errant driver speeding through her crosswalk she was knocked violently to the ground. Her shoulder was broken, and her neck injured. It took numerous surgeries with plates and screws to hold her shoulder together. Mary was off work for nearly two years while she recovered. Undaunted, she came back to work because she missed the children and simply wanted to get back to protecting them.

Born and raised in in Akron, Ohio where her father was a Minister and her mother was a homemaker and a midwife. They raised her 2 brothers and one sister to make sure to love those around you and treat people the way you want to be treated. Mary worked at City Hall and was a nurse and lived in Akron for most of her life. Later on in life, she moved to California. Mary was married for over 48 years and raised 6 children and was a Foster Parent to over 40 children after all her kids had grown up. Mary truly exudes the love of an Angel who has given nearly her whole life to raising, loving and protecting children. Mary lives by the adage that "no act of kindness ever goes wasted."

There are Angels among us, but sometimes we are too busy to notice! My wife and I are lucky to have had the opportunity to meet a true Angel! If you're a skeptic, take a moment to meet Mary – you'll be a believer!

ABOUT THE ORANGEVALE VIEW

The "Orangevale View" – the ultimate, award-winning community newspaper – serves Orangevale and surrounding areas, including Fair Oaks, Citrus Heights, and Folsom, CA. With a present estimated readership of more than 37,000, this FREE paper grows with every issue. It is delivered twice a month to at least 15,000 residents' homes and to more than 100 high traffic locations. The views and opinions printed within are not necessarily those of Publisher Brad Tatum or the Orangevale View staff. Rather, the views and opinions expressed are those of each individual contributor.

SUBMISSION POLICIES:

Submissions from you, our readers, are always welcome, for this is YOUR newspaper. We await school, church, or sports team materials, anniversaries, births, special occasions, memorials, or other items of interest. Donations are encouraged and accepted for anniversaries, births, and other special milestones and announcements. Publication is at the discretion of the Orangevale View staff.

Requirements are simple:

(1) Acknowledge that either you are the author or you have permission to publish from the original author;

(2) Articles should not exceed 300 words. We like Community Calendar items of 45 words or less.

(3) Format: Microsoft Word format with photos at least 300 dpi JPEG or PDF. Please use this format so we do not have to send your work back to you for corrections.

(4) The View does not verify the accuracy of your submissions, and in some cases, dates and information are subject to change. (5) Please email submissions, to YOUR newspaper. The email address is editor@ovview.com. It is you, our contributors, readers and advertisers who make the Orangevale View a newspaper you want to read.

LOCAL BUSINESS HIT BY GAS THIEF

We are a local business here in Orangevale. We have been getting our gas stolen on a regular basis. We have added high powered lights and some cameras but it continues. There is no police or sheriff presence in the area at night. In the last two months we have lost well of $200 worth of fuel.

This time they cam on Tuesday night on at least 3 separate occasions to empty our gas take that was about half full. I have attached a few pictures from our cameras.

Thank you for your consideration.

DOUBLE OVERTIME ENDS PLAYOFFS FOR LADY RAMS

Girls Varsity Soccer season has come to an end. Came out with a win against Dixon in the first playoff game 2-0. Second game against Liberty Ranch was 2-2 and went into overtime. With amazing play and perseverance the girls just couldn't hold on resulting in a 5-2 loss. What a wild ride and great season!!! Go Rams!

TAKE A SWING FOR A CAUSE

Casa Roble High School Baseball Program is hosting their annual Swing for Casa on April 7th, 2018. Please review this opportunity to help enrich the baseball program. The school district offers very limited financial support, therefore families are trying to help offset the cost of umpires, uniforms, paid coach stipends, and routine facility/field maintenance. The players are actively involved in volunteering their time at the local little league as well as volunteering for the golf tournament that supports their program in conjunction with other fundraisers. Outside of the basic needs of the program being met, the ultimate goal for the three teams (Freshmen, JV, and Varsity) are to replace the debilitated dugouts and replace two scoreboards by 2021.

So come join us for a great day of golf and dinner on April 7th, 2018 at Lincoln Hills. Shoot Gun start will begin at Noon and dinner will be served at 5:30. Can't join us for golf? Just come for the ALL you can eat Tri-Tip dinner for just $25.00.

For tickets and or to sign up for the tournament please contact Katie 916-524-2252, Dawn 916-439-2404 or Cindy at 209-612-1288.

SUPERVISOR FROST

Supervisor Sue Frost

A WORKING APPROACH TO HOMELESSNESS

By Sacramento County Supervisor
Sue Frost

Helping those caught in homelessness is an act of compassion — part of our duty as human beings. But handing out free stuff doesn't really solve the problem or provide a path out of homelessness — but a job might.

Homelessness is increasing in Orangevale every year, and the community is demanding action to reverse this worrying trend. Last year, Sacramento County introduced four new homeless initiatives geared primarily towards increasing access to homeless shelters and free/affordable housing, which is in critically low supply compared to the enormous demand. But while these programs are important, I can't help but feel that we are neglecting to adequately address the issue of helping them get a job, which is the biggest thing that can be done to ensure people experiencing homelessness break the cycle and become self-sufficient.

When I am in Orangevale talking with my constituents, many people tell me we need to make more services available to people experiencing homeless. But an equally large number of people tell me that the more services we provide, the more homeless are attracted to the area, and the more we are making them dependent on government handouts.

This was especially evident to me during my most recent survey of Orangevale residents, where over 65% of respondents told me that they think we need to have a mix of "compassion" and "tough love" when trying to decrease the explosion of homelessness. I believe helping connect people to a job allows them to regain their sense of self-worth, establish a level of trust with their local government so they can be connected to available services, and eventually become productive members of society again (and potentially even give back). This is a concept that everyone should be able to agree with.

Many of the people experiencing homelessness have simply lost hope and given up; they do not remember what it is like to work for a paycheck and they lack self-confidence. By getting paid for doing work, they can help to restore their sense of self-worth, and also begin to establish a level of trust with their local government so they can be connected to available services designed to help them get back on their feet.

To that end, earlier this year I began working with staff to create a program to connect homeless individuals with jobs and training. We do not have to reinvent the wheel, there are programs across the country that have seen great success that we can use as a models. I'm not predisposed to one model over another — as long as we create something that works for Sacramento County.

One program that has been utilized now in 15 cities is where a local non-profit is contracted to drive to areas frequented by panhandlers and offer them day labor, such as landscape beautification and garbage removal — or even homeless camp cleanup. This reminds them of the dignity and pride of what it is like to earn a paycheck, and has proven to be a catalyst for real change (in one city alone, this program has directly contributed to over 70 full time jobs and dramatically reduced panhandling). Another program in a nearby California city works with specific businesses to offer incentives to hire people experiencing homelessness.

As the plan is drafted, I will be inviting the Orangevale community to give me feedback so the best possible plan can be put forward for possible funding. I want to hear from everyone, so that it isn't just political leaders and staff who have a say in the process. If you want to stay up to date, please sign up for my e-newsletter by going to www.saccounty.net/suefrost and click on the link that says "E-Newsletters".

Finally, I want to invite everyone to my next Orangevale community meeting on March 14th at 6:00pm at the Orangevale Community Center (6826 Hazel Avenue). This is an opportunity for you to get an update from me and to ask me any questions you may have. Thank you for reading — and as always, if you want to contact me, call me at 916-874-5491 or e-mail me at SupervisorFrost@saccounty.net.

IT'S OUTLAW HONKY TONK COUNTRY AT THE BOARDWALK

JAMES CAROTHERS

Mixing together Tennessee twang, southern storytelling, and a big, booming baritone, James Carothers makes throwback country music for modern times.

It's an old-school sound that ignores the trends of contemporary radio. You won't find any bro-country songs here. No Auto Tuned vocals, either. Instead, Carothers dishes up a reminder of country music's golden years — a time filled with fiddle solos, analog production, and slyly simple songs about heartaches and hangovers. His first full-length album, Relapse, available May 5th, 2017, offers plenty of Dallas Moore

Dallas Moore's old-school country sound developed honestly, following over 20 years of sharing stages and studios with his honky-tonk heroes. Satellite radio support, paired with a willingness to perform over 300 shows a year, finds the seasoned veteran positioned to reach the Americana masses with his forthcoming album Mr. Honky Tonk.

Tastemakers have taken note already, with the Dallas Moore Band crowned the Ameripolitan Music Awards' 2017 Outlaw Group of the Year. The award came after three prior nominations for the band No Depression credits with bringing "hangovers and excitement to outlaw country fans everywhere all three.

CASH PROPHETS

The premier Johnny Cash Tribute band from Folsom, CA. They bring Americana, Rockabilly and Classic Country to our shows. Prophets consist of lead singer, rhythm guitar player Bobby Dickson, his son Bob Dickson Jr, lead guitar and Chuck Humphreys, upright bass. Cash Prophets play J.R. Cash's songs, ranging from the Sun Records sound of 1954, all the way up to his passing. We also play a variety of country music artists, ranging from Hank Williams (I, II, and III), Waylon Jennings, Johnny Paycheck, Merle Haggard, to Townes VanZant and many more.

AMERICAN LEGION BAR-B-QUE

PREPPING FOR AN OPEN HOUSE IF

YOU HAVE PETS

If you have pets and are looking to hold an open house, then there are a number of things you should do beforehand. Whenever possible, send your pets away and clear out pet-related products so your house is accessible prior to its showing. Here are several steps to prep your home for an open house when you have animals.

1. Get Your Pets Out of the House

The first step to prepare your home for an open house when you have animals is to find a way to get your pets out the house. Take your dogs or cats to a pet hotel or ask a neighbor's if they can stay there. Keep them away until the event is finished.

2. Remove Food and Water Bowls

Remove your pet's food and water bowls. Empty the food and water bowls, clean them and store them somewhere out of sight to eliminate any smells and make your house look pristine.

3. Put Your Pet's Stuff Away

Place your pet's stuff out of sight. Hide crates, toys, litter boxes and any other things related to your pets because you don't want your home to appear cluttered or messy.

4. Clean up Your Animal's Fur

Rid your house of dog and cat fur by vacuuming, sweeping, dusting, or all three before the open house begins to ensure that your place is spotless.

5. Eliminate Pet Odors

Be sure to eliminate pet odors in your home. Clean up your house as well as you can and then spray an odor-eliminating spray on your carpet, furniture and curtains to be sure there are no lingering smells.

6. Tidy up the Backyard
Clean up the backyard. Tidy the backyard and any other places your pets go. Make sure there are no clumps of fur, droppings etc., in your yard that might turn away potential buyers.

For those who have pets and are planning to have an open house, feel free to reach out to me for additional ways to prepare your home for the big day.

Orangevale Cooks

by Suzanne Feblowitz

A few weeks ago at Ottomon Elementary, PTA sponsored a luncheon for the teachers and the visiting authors and illustrators. One dish was a huge favorite, so I got the recipe from parent, Jennifer Gumm. She was slightly embarrassed to give it out because she claims it is so simple. It is a quick and easy recipe that she uses for her go-to dessert for potlucks and teacher luncheons. Everyone loves them!

If you would like to share a favorite recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

Premade chocolate chip cookie dough
 (I used approximately 6 of the Pillsbury 24-count formed cookie dough)
 Cooking spray for pan
 9x13 pan

Preheat oven to 350 degree. Make the brownie mix as directed on the box. Spray bottom of a 9x13 pan. Pour batter in pan, then crumble the cookie dough into nickel sized pieces and place on top of the brownies. Space the dough pieces so it looks like giraffe spots. Bake for 30 minutes; check with a toothpick to see if it comes out clean. Avoid putting the toothpick directly into a chocolate chip, because that might not come out clean!

Let cool and cut into pieces. Enjoy!

BEST FRIENDS BASH

On February 16th, Orangevale Recreation & Park District held their FREE annual Best Friends Bash where anyone ages 50 and up gathered to see old friends and made some new ones. The OVparks' Kidz Korner preschoolers had a blast singing a variety of sweet valentine songs to the seniors. Homemade Valentine cards were happily passed out by the kiddos after their performance. Everyone joined in and played

Valentine Bingo where the winners received a special prize from cupid. Participants were all entered into a raffle to win prizes donated by local businesses that helped make this special event possible. From mingling and laughter, to great coffee and refreshments, OVparks created a great opportunity for seniors to meet their new best friend! See you all next year!
