Thomas Capel Tomich, Scion of Orangevale Pioneer Family

February 19, 1925 -
July 15, 2018

Thomas Capel Tomich died peacefully at home on July 15, 2018, at the age of 93. He and his beloved wife Lillian had just celebrated their 66th wedding anniversary. He was proud that he did not spend a single day of his long life in a hospital. Born at the family home, he was raised on the family farm in Orangevale, California during the Great Depression. Though no stranger to hard work and hard times, nothing could have prepared a 19-year-old for service as a combat infantryman in the U.S. Army during WWII. Tom was proud of his service in France, Germany, and Austria and as a liberator of Nazi death camps. His stories serve as a reminder of society's frailty, humanity's resilience, and our responsibilities as citizens in a free society. We trust that he is at peace and finally free from the trauma of WWII.

Tom was THE master fruit grower; he approached farming as an art and craft as well as a science, producing the best fruit that most people ever tasted. He obtained his Bachelor's in Plant Science and Master's in Horticulture from UC Davis, where he also met lovely Lillian at Picnic Day. They married and together joined in his family's Orangevale farming tradition. Their children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, friends, neighbors, and generations of local youth participated in the family farm effort, an Orangevale legacy. Tom was proud of the scores of youth who worked with him through the decades and saw his mentoring as a community service. He happily shared his skills with so many, though none of us attained his mastery. He also was passionate about many other things: nature, history, politics, community, citizenship. His spiritual life was deeply rooted, and he was eager to worship every Sunday at his parish church.

Tom is preceded by his parents Prosper Tomich and Eleanor Wickstrom Tomich, and his brothers and sisters Nicholas, Frances, Eleanor, John, Quentin, and Frederick. Tom is survived by Lillian; their children Thomas Patrick, Victoria, Elizabeth, and Patricia; and their grandchildren Alannah, Erin, Erik, and Eden. His grandchildren are the fifth generation to have worked on the Orangevale farm, founded by his grandparents Albert and Hannah Wickstom in 1897. Tom's passing marks the end of an era.

Tom was laid to rest with military honors at Sylvan Cemetery in Citrus Heights. A memorial mass and reception will take place at Divine Savior Catholic Church in Orangevale on Tuesday, August 14, 2018, at 10:00 am. In lieu of flowers, Lillian encourages donations to Divine Savior Catholic Church, Loaves & Fishes Sacramento, the College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences at UC Davis, or San Juan High School Alumni Association.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Andrew (Andy) Paul Menard Sr. was born in Sioux City, Iowa, December 6, 1943. He was the youngest son of 10 brothers and sisters, born to Armand Menard and Gertrude Lamoreaux. Andy passed on July 15, 2018, in Orangevale CA. He is survived by his loving wife Lynn, who celebrated their 52nd anniversary on April, 8th. He is also survived by his son, Andrew Menard Jr., wife Melissa, his daughter Anna King and his four grandchildren, Andrew, Emily, Kendall and Alex. Andy Moved to California when he was ten years old. After high school, he enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps. In 1965, after an honorable discharge from the Marines, Andy was hired on at McClellan AFB as a civilian instrument mechanic. Andy spent the next 34 years at McClellan until he retired in 1999 as the base closed. After being hired at McClellan, Andy moved Lynn, Andy Jr and Anna to the "Country" or Orangevale in 1972, a place he called home until the day he passed away. Andy's devotion to his family continued throughout his life. He loved his wife Lynn more than life itself and it was impossible to not absorb or be caught up in that love. He spent his retired years enjoying life with his beautiful wife and attending games of every sport his grandchildren participated in.

Andy was passionate about sports and spent a lifetime playing those sports as well as coaching his kids and grandchildren. During the spring and summer he could always be found out at Pershing or Pasteur as he assisted his son Andy in coaching his grandsons. He enjoyed travelling with Lynn and spent many a vacation with his entire family, on down to the grandchildren. His friendship, humor, love of others and ability to tell a story left lasting impressions on everyone he met. A celebration of life was held on July 27, 2018, at the Folsom Veterans Hall. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Legion, Folsom Post 362, P.O. Box 631 Folsom CA 95763-0631.

Club News and Events

Orangevale Woman's Club Season Opener

"As you grow older, you will discover that you have two hands — one for helping yourself, the other for helping others." — Audrey Hepburn

One hundred and thirteen years ago the Orangevale Woman's Club was formed as the "Country Life Club" reflecting the group's purpose to promote a lifestyle that frankly no longer exists. Women of 21st century Orangevale live lives our forebears couldn't imagine. We drive cars, we work outside the home, we vote and we own property. Our lives are easier with modern conveniences and harder by the ills of society.

Our connections in our community are stronger than ever and the Orangevale Woman's Club meets each new challenge with helping hands and hearts of service.

Continuing OVWC President, Marilyn Edwards, and the leadership team have plans for the upcoming year with projects and activities designed to meet the needs of Orangevale and the interests of club members. The women of OVWC are involved with the OV Foodbank, the library, programs for local schools, veterans' groups and much more. Most recently members bought back-to-school supplies and filled backpacks for one hundred local students. It was a fun gathering that will put smiles on one hundred faces as they start the school year.

There are currently sixty reasons why Orangevale Woman's Club is the winner of "The Best of Orangevale" Service Club and Community Organization, and you could be number sixty-one. Join our club and be part of the good works and fun of this historic group.

The first of our September through May business and lunch meetings is Tuesday, September 4 from 11-2 at the OV Community Center 6826 Hazel Ave.

Check out our website www.orangevalewomensclub.org or look us up on Facebook or call 916-764-6816 for more information.

Casa Football: Cowbell Classic Coming Up!

Are you ready for some football? Grab your cowbell and come on out to cheer the Casa Rams in the second "Cowbell Classic" season opener on August 17th at the new and improved Neuman Field. The Rams kick off the season against local rival

Head Coach Chris Horner

Bella Vista Broncos starting at 5:00 pm for JV and 7:30 pm for Varsity. "We welcome the community to our second Cowbell Classic and biggest game of the season," said Head Coach Chris Horner. "We've been working hard and have big plans in store." Some of those plans include a great night of football and exuberating performances from the Casa Rams cheerleaders as well as a special appearance by the Citrus Heights Marching Band at half time. Chick Fil A will also be on site with great food and give aways for the fans. Last edition of the Orangevale View previewed some of the varsity seniors to watch. This issue highlights some of the up and coming juniors and sophomores certain to make an impact on the field. Both underclassman teams finished strong last year. JV went 6 – 3 – 1 and the freshman finished 9 – 1. Here are the guys to watch for this year. A pre-season ankle injury to senior quarterback Austin Ehinger pushed junior Marciano Huston into the starting role. "Marciano aka "Rocky" has definitely exceeded our expectations this year," said Coach Horner. "He's steadily becoming more comfortable with the fast pace of varsity football and we are confident he will get the job done." Other notable juniors include running back Austin Gandy stepping up to fill the spot of a graduated senior as well as Mason Brown joining the senior dominated linebacker corps. Junior Bradley Rankin is poised to rise to the challenge as starting center and Simon Villalovos is also returning to the offensive line. Lastly, two dynamic sophomores Dylan DeCelle and Dylan Overstreet are competing at a high level with the possibility of starting on both sides of the ball. VIP season tickets/reserved seats are going fast, also a limited amount of "Cowbell Classic" shirts are also available for $5 each. Contact Coach Horner (916) 300-2074 for more information. A big shout out to our 'moovelous' sponsors of this year's Cowbell Classic including: Northstar Collision Repair, Oil Stop of Fair Oaks and Chick Fil A of Granite Bay. Go Rams! FAIR RULING ON FAIR SHARE

Fair Ruling on Fair Share

By Sacramento County Supervisor Sue Frost

In June, the United States Supreme Court issued a decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME, ruling that the First Amendment protects public employees from being required to pay money to a union without their consent. As this was a high profile case that drastically changes the way unions operate, I wanted to use my monthly article to discuss the history of this issue, how I believe this will impact Sacramento County, and why I support the decision.

In 1977 the Supreme Court ruled that even though public employees cannot be required to financially support its political activities, they are still required to pay the union a “fair-share” fee to pay for the union’s collective bargaining activities (the costs the union incurs in negotiating their wages, pensions, benefits, work conditions, grievance procedures, etc.). This fair-share fee was only a small bit less than paying the full fee, and as such, less than 800 of our roughly 11,000 employees elected to only pay the fair-share fee.

But now with this latest ruling, any union member can cease paying the entirety of their union dues while still receiving all the benefits of being a union member. New employees will be given the option of whether to pay into the union or not, and existing employees can leave the union whenever their union contract has to be renegotiated (every three years).

From the County of Sacramento’s perspective nothing will change — we will still negotiate contracts with unions just as we always have. But from the union’s perspective everything is changing. Almost half of our union employees have contracts up for renegotiation this year, and I expect a large number of employees to opt out of their union dues. This will force the unions to cut staff and limit the number of donations they make to political campaigns.

It is important to note that this Supreme Court decision does not impact all public sector unions the same. Public safety unions like the Sheriffs, Firefighters, and Probation are not worried about the impact, because they focus on service to their members, and don’t tend to plunge into unrelated political fights that their membership doesn’t support. I do not expect union membership in these public safety organizations to dwindle.

I agree with the Supreme Court decision because I fully believe any person should be able to have a career teaching children, fighting fires, or being any other form of public servant without having to pay a private third party for the opportunity to do so. I also believe it will bring some real benefits to the employees of Sacramento County.

Now, unions will have to work harder to justify their importance to the employees. They will need to ensure they are offering real value to their members, and they will be less likely to pick controversial political fights that end up angering their members who disagree. Public labor unions should be encouraging membership and dues on the merit of the benefits they provide, rather than require employees to pay what is essentially a payroll tax.

There are other good things about this ruling as well, such as lower wage workers seeing a boost to their paycheck and making it easier for them to support their families. The average union dues are over $500 annually — which means workers who decided to stop paying dues will effectively get an annual raise. This money could be the difference between starting a college account for their kids or not, being able to reduce debt, or simply feeling more secure that the bills are taken care of.

I have no burning desire for unions to die off, or even to shrink. But I do have a desire to ensure that the employees of Sacramento County are given options regarding what they can do with their hard earned paychecks. The unions can come out of this situation alright, just so long as they truly listen to their members, deliver the types of services people need, and stay out of political campaigns that their membership aren’t fully in support of.

Thank you for reading – and as always, if you want to contact me, call me at 916-874-5491 or e-mail me at SupervisorFrost@saccounty.net.

Sue Frost represents the 4th District, which includes all or part of the communities of Citrus Heights, Folsom, Orangevale, Antelope, Rio Linda, Elverta, Gold River, Rancho Murietta, North Highlands, Carmichael, Foothill Farms, Fair Oaks, and Rancho Cordova.

WHY HIRE A TREE SURGEON OR ARBORIST TO CARE FOR YOUR TREES?

A beautiful yard or garden is an asset to any home and gives a significant boost to the marketability of a home when selling. An enthusiastic gardener can work wonders with an outdoor space, but some things are best left to the experts. When it comes to selling your home, hiring an arborist or tree surgeon to get any trees in shape, prior to putting your home on the market, can save you plenty of time and possible headaches during the home sale process.

Tree Surgeon or Arborist?

First of all, although the terms tree surgeon and arborist are often used to describe the same job, there's a difference. A tree surgeon is someone skilled in keeping trees in good condition by removing branches and so on while preserving both health and appearance. There are no specialist qualifications required, although knowledge and experience are vital.

Arborists take things a step further. They will also be knowledgeable about the various diseases and pests a tree can suffer from and will be able to take a more rounded role in keeping your trees healthy. Although a tree surgeon may be able to carry out these tasks perfectly well, certification is needed to describe yourself as an arborist.

Reasons to Hire

Whether you choose a tree surgeon or an arborist, there are reasons that you should hire one rather than attempting the work yourself.

- Arborists and tree surgeons have the specialist tools to do the job safely and quickly. Trying major tree surgery with domestic-grade devices is a recipe for disaster.

- They will also know how to remove branches or fell trees without risking damage to your property.

- And if something does go wrong, they will have proper insurance in place. Your homeowner's insurance may not pay out if you cause damage through amateur attempts at tree surgery.

- Professional tree specialists will be able to provide a far more attractive result, with a tree looking neat and natural rather than unbalanced and misshapen.

- A tree surgeon can remove a tree, doing a thorough job and leaving no stumps or roots behind.

- An arborist can give your trees a full health check, spotting signs of disease or bug infestation before they do too much damage. They can also recommend ways to help your trees thrive to their best potential.

- Lastly, if you decide your yard needs more trees planting, they can recommend species that will harmonize with their surroundings. They can help you choose new saplings which will match in size, looks, and growing requirements.

For all these reasons, if you have trees that needs attention, hiring an expert is the safest choice that will also give the best results for your yard's future and add to the marketability of your home.

This week I am sharing a recipe from my kindergarten partner, Michele Palermo. She had some time on her hands to do some cooking this summer, so she was busy creating new summer dishes. This recipe will keep your kitchen cool!

If you would like to share a favorite recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

The Boardwalk

You don't need a beach to enjoy "The Boardwalk" Orangevale's premier live music venue, full service bar and grill located at 9426 Greenback Lane in Orangevale. Originally opened in 1952 as "Rodeo Joes Cowtown", the local hangout was purchased by Mark Earl in 1986 after an accident prompted a career change for him.

"I worked for my uncle's bar in Long Island in my late teens," Mark reflected. "I was familiar with the business and decided to give it a shot."

The Boardwalk owners, Mark & Sandy Earl

host the popular "hang out" where music fans from all over come to see you never know who might show up!

"I'd say to those who haven't been in before to give us a try," Mark said. "We've got the nicest stage and best dance floor, not to mention newly remodeled floors, restrooms and other interior updates."

Not only do they boast about their live music and bar, but the excellent "grub" including fresh quarter pound burgers and grilled chicken breast sandwiches too. "We serve only the freshest food on our menu," said Sandy. "It's what we'd want to eat."

Besides running a successful business, the couple who have 4 children and one grandson, love their Orangevale community and make a point of giving back by hosting a variety of charity events to help those in need.

"There are so many issues near and dear to our hearts," shared Sandy. "We try to assist others less fortunate as often as we can." Some of those activities include making care packages for the homeless, raising funds for Leukemia patients and helping families of victims from violent crimes to name a few.

For more information about upcoming events, ticket prices or to see what's cooking, go to The Boardwalk's website at: www.boardwalkrocks.com

As a special convenience for guests using Uber and/or Lyft, The Boardwalk has reserved drop off spots near the main entrance. Hope to see ya at The Boardwalk!

"Back then, the Long Island Boardwalk was the place to be. So it was a natural name choice for this place," he happily added. Now Mark and his wife Sandy, their favorite groups perform. Not surprisingly some big names have made the stop in Orangevale like Luke Bryan, Eric Church, Cheap Trick, and Maroon 5 to name a few,

HONKY TONK SUNDAY SERON RETURNS TO BOARDWALK

Join us Sunday Sept 9th as the legendary Boardwalk in Orangevale continues its Sunday Honky-tonk sermon series. Gethen Jenkins, Billie Gant featuring Nick Giese and Bobby Dickson's Unchained take the stage celebrating Country Music in its truest forms.

Gethen Jenkins (Long Beach - CA) – With his powerful, gut wrenching baritone sound, Gethen Jenkins is on a fast train to stardom. Gethen is an award winning singer and songwriter originally from Huntington, West Virginia.

Gethen's journey began surrounded by American music, from the purest of Bluegrass to whiskey soaked Honky-tonk. His teenage years were spent in Galena, a rural indian village on the Yukon River deep in the Alaskan Tundra. After 8 years in the U.S. Marines, Gethen returned from Iraq and landed in Southern California. Over the next several years Gethen immersed himself in his music, working hard to create a unique sound while keeping true to his roots. His songs are of considerable depth and meaning, driven by passion and full of heart and spirit which are sure to run the gamut of human emotions. "The relationship between the listeners and the music is what I feed on" claims Jenkins.

Recognizing Gethen's talent, Five Music, and Sony RED approached him in 2016 to join the label. Sony released a six song digital EP entitled "Where the Honkytonk Belongs" in July of 2017. Gethen is currently working on his latest album which is slated for release early next year.

With a restless creative spirit and natural born drive to connect with people, it looks like the best is yet to come!

Billie Gant (Cincinnati, OH) – In the ever changing music world, there are lots of "flavors of the month" but few originals...It always seems that, as the saying goes, "Bad news travels fast and good news takes a bus", a phenomenon all too common in an industry which is usually well behind the "curve", and spending obscene amounts of money to promote acts who are, more often than not, carbon copies of acts who were never originals to begin with....

Sometime around 1975, in an attempt to create the illusion that it was escaping its own "sameness", the country music industry coined the term "outlaw" and applied it to a group of artists who stood up against the industry's propensity for creating musical clones....

Over time, even the term outlaw became a cliché, as the name began to be applied to more and more artists, because it's use helped to sell records during the late seventies and eighties....However, when I think of "outlaws", I think of people whose artistry has truly "broken the mold" like Johnny Cash, Gram Parsons, Mickey Newbury, Billy Joe Shaver, Waylon Jennings, and Kris Kristofferson....

To this list, I'd like to add the name of a man whose artistry has, for decades, been known by a cult following, but is only now beginning to gain the wide spread recognition he deserves....That name is Billie Gant.....(Tom Ghent)

Billie will be joined on stage by renowned guitarist Nick Giese. Together Billie and Nick make a powerful combo full of substance and melody. Their chemistry is undeniable and compliments each other's immense talents perfectly.
