WORLD CLASS EQUESTRIAN PERFORMERS COMING TO ORANGEVALE TOWN FAIR

By MaryAnne Povey

What do you get when you put beautiful horses together with some talented, nimble, acrobatic horse-lovin' riders? The Nu Balance Vaulters! This fabulous group came together in 1990 right here in our own hometown of Orangevale when club founder Michelle Solorzano decided to start a horse camp for kids.

What started out as a group of 21 kids and their ponies, has blossomed into a full fledged unique acrobatic riding/performing club of nearly 50 performers ages 4 to 37, that have traveled the world dazzling audiences in Germany, Holland, Austria, Hungary and London performing for Queen Elizabeth herself!

"This all started out with a horse and a passion to perform," said Nu Balance founder and trainer, Michelle Solorzano. "With my daughter's encouragement, we decided, "let's do this" and haven't looked back since".

Locally the Nu Balance team performs at the California State Fair and other county fairs, but this is the first time the team will be participating in the Orangevale Town Fair - A Pow Wow Days Tradition, in the parade, June 1, 2019 at 9 am on Greenback Lane starting at Main and traveling west to Filbert. Their FREE shows will be held in the Orangevale Community Park arena June 1 & 2 starting at 1 pm each day.

The fabulous line-up of performers and shows includes: The Greatest Showman, Boots & Bling Drill Team/Acrobats, Pair Riders, Aerial and Silks, Carriage and Buggy and Pair and Trick Riders. Then, a long line up of Disney favorites like Captain Jack, Cruella De Vil, Maleficent, Beauty and the Beast, Moana and much, much more!

"Our kids love to perform and connect with the audience", Michelle reflected, "At the end of our show, we do a meet and greet so everyone can see the performers up close, say hi and get a photo. Don't forget your camera!", she added.

If you needed a reason to come to the fair, this is it! Come see great entertainment for FREE!!

For more information about all the fun, FREE entertainment coming to the Orangevale Town Fair go to www.orangevaletownfair.com See ya there!

MEMORIAL DAY – ALL GAVE SOME;
 SOME GAVE ALL

Memorial Day will be celebrated on May 27, this year. Memorial Day, not to be confused with Veterans Day, is a day of remembering the men and women who died while serving in the United States Armed Forces. Veterans Day on the other hand celebrates the service of all U. S. Military veterans. Memorial Day, formerly known as Decoration Day, originated after the American Civil War in 1868 to commemorate the Union and Confederate soldiers who died in the Civil War. The end of May seemed to be appropriate since many spring flowers are available. By the 20th century Memorial Day had been extended to honor All Americans who have died in all wars in the past 240 years.

Every year, Sylvan Cemetery in Citrus Heights honors those that gave their lives in the defense of their county. This year the Memorial Day service will be held on Monday, May 27, 2019, at Sylvan Cemetery, 7401 Auburn Blvd., Citrus Heights. The ceremony begins at 10:30 with a march through the historical section of the cemetery, stopping briefly at each flag station to read a prayer and salute the flag. The men marching include the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary, VFW, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Sons of the American Revolution, Boys Scout troop 228, Police Officers of the Citrus Heights Police Department and all others that wish to march. This march will last about 30 minutes. The march will conclude at the gazebo where there will be a one-hour ceremony from 11:00 to 12:00. Many of the men marching will be in uniform – past and present – from American Revolution to modern day.

Do you have historical or vintage photographs of Orangevale tucked away in drawers or boxes? Old OV newspapers or memorabilia? Stories to share? The “new” Orangevale Historical Society may be interested in making copies or digital images, or recording stories to document our community history and create an archive which would be available to the public. The first kick off meeting of volunteers was well attended on Tuesday, April 23rd in the new Orangevale Chamber of Commerce office. The group was enthusiastic and is already moving forward with some of the ideas that were discussed. If you have an interest in playing a part in documenting the story of Orangevale through the years, please join us at our next meeting Monday, May 20th from 5-6 pm at the Chamber office on the northwest corner of Greenback and Hazel. If you need additional information, contact OV Chamber President Brad Squires brad@orangevalechamber.com. We hope to see you at the next meeting!

TAKE NOTICE GAS THIEVES IN ORANGEVALE

Hello, we have been having the same people cut the filler tubes of our Vans at Action Day Learning Center and stealing gas. This means a trip to the garage for a day or two $200-$300 plus 5 to 10 gallons of gas. I have seen the same truck each time on my surveillance cameras. April 29, I was up when they pulled in at 4 am. I went across the street and chased them off this time. 2 people in the truck. The truck has a large vertical dent in the tailgate right hand side. The licence plate ended in

154. It looks like an early 2000s GM truck. I could not verify if it was Chevy or GMC. Submitted by Mattt Campbell

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

When will the “Me Too” movement come to the Retired Public Employees Association?

The CA State legislature addressed the “Me Too” issues in September 2018 but Retired Public Employees Association (RPEA) is still placing public retirees in the path of potential harassment. The Capitol marched those offenders out, but RPEA marched them back in at T Street. RPEA endorsed CalPERS board member Margret Brown who has a history of harassment based on previous employee statements. Here is a link to the story: <https://danvillesanramon.com/news/2010/09/24/former-san-ramon-school-employee-sues-over-hostile-work-environment>. Glenn Wohltmann wrote about the lawsuit at Danville SanRamon.com on September 24, 2010. It was updated on September 26, 2010. This story says

“The lawsuit claims Brown made sexually inappropriate comments to Faith and other employees and ‘was nothing less than a foul-mouthed, demeaning, threatening and bombastic supervisor.”

Not only am I appalled at the behavior and the records of these individuals, I am also outraged at the Retired Public Employees Association. I have personally witnessed Margret’s snarky remarks during public sessions. How can retirees support people for such an important public office that places their own people at risk? RPEA should never endorse any candidate that is not credible by “Me Too” standards. Now, RPEA is considering candidates for the CalPERS Retiree seat. One previous state employee JJ Jelincic, who has a long history of sexual harassment issues at work, is being considered for RPEA endorsement. Here is a link to the story: <https://www.pionline.com/article/20110915/ONLINE/110919931/calpers-board-member-censured-for-harassment>. This is just the tip of the iceberg! We want and need sustainability with our pensions! JJ Jelincic is NOT the answer, neither is Margret Brown!

MISGUIDED APPROACH ON POLICE USE OF FORCE

Supervisor Sue Frost

By County Supervisor Sue Frost

There is a bill quickly making its way through the California Legislature (AB 392) that if passed, will create a highly subjective standard for evaluating and holding law enforcement officers criminally liable for using force when responding to life-or-death situations based on hindsight, without providing any extra training to officers. Because this bill would have a direct impact on the law enforcement officers that work for us here in Orangevale, such as the Deputy Sheriffs and CHP, I want to take an opportunity to give you more detail on this important issue, and explain why I am staunchly opposed to this bill.

Law enforcement officers today are allowed to only use deadly force when there is a reasonable fear of death or serious bodily harm to the officer or another person. Due to this, peace officers are held to the standard of what an objectively reasonable officer on the scene would do. Under AB 392, this would change so that peace officers would need to pause when contemplating the use of deadly force, only allowing them to use deadly force in circumstances when “the homicide would be justifiable in self-defense or the defense of another person.”

By requiring officers to further hesitate in their actions, we not only put the officer and his or her partner at an even greater risk, we put the general public at a greater risk. In these high stress situations, quick reaction time is imperative and a matter of seconds can mean life or death. Creating doubt in the minds of our officers will make them vulnerable to even greater dangers than those that they already face. It is critical that we do not tie the hands of law enforcement and that we uphold the safety of our officers and those they are sworn to protect.

To understand this issue more clearly, shortly after I was sworn-in as your County Supervisor, I had the Sheriff’s Department allow me participate in their “use of force simulator” so I could personally experience some of the training our deputies undertake to help them handle potentially deadly situations. The experience opened my eyes to what our deputies have to be prepared to face while on patrol – and the training they receive on how to handle those situations. Before this experience, it was easy for me to watch a video of a police encounter and say how I would have done things differently. But after going through it, it has changed my perspective on all the police encounters I have watched – and has given me a greater appreciation for how hard it is for the officers.

The decision to apply this level of force is the most solemn, serious, and scrutinized choice an officer could be asked to make. It must often occur without notice and with only milliseconds to contemplate his or her actions. As such, shifting the standard that guides the use of lethal force from one of objective reasonableness in light of the facts and circumstances, to necessity given the totality of the circumstances, is an impossible standard to achieve.

California’s police officers take an oath that they will run towards danger when everyone else is running away – and they do so to protect our families and communities. The subjective legal standards AB 392 seeks to implement will have a chilling effect on the men and women in uniform by undermining their ability to respond to life-or-death situations – creating new challenges that would threaten the safety of our families, communities and officers.

Even if this change in standards were appropriate, agency policies would have to be changed and tens of thousands of peace officers would have to receive all new training. But this bill does not provide any additional funding for training – the foundation for minimizing the use of force – nor does it put in place even one proactive measure to reduce the use of force. In addition, this opens the door for trial attorneys to severely reduce law enforcement budgets due to the need for departments to hire more lawyers to defend the sudden rise in lawsuits.

There is a bipartisan competing bill in the legislature that I do support (SB 230) that attempts to find ways to improve outcomes for use of force incidents. That bill will refine the circumstances by which an officer could discharge their weapon in alignment with U.S. Supreme Court decisions, require all law enforcement agencies to establish a comprehensive policy on Use of Force, require this written policy to be made accessible to the public, and emphasize officer training and education through coursework prepared by the well-established Commission on Peace Officer Standards & Training.

The loss of even one life is too many, and an officer’s use of serious force is and must be a last resort. This is a sensitive and important issue that we must proactively address, but AB 392 is not the answer – and will only create new problems threatening the safety of California’s families and communities. I urge the bill’s authors, sponsors, and supporters to develop truly effective and achievable improvement to help California law enforcement minimize the use of force.

Before signing off, I want to invite you to my next Orangevale Community Meeting on May 15th at 6:00pm at the Orangevale Community Center (6826 Hazel Avenue). Thank you for reading – and as always, if you want to contact me call me at 916-874-5491, or e-mail me at SupervisorFrost@saccounty.net.

Sue Frost represents the 4th District, which includes all or part of the communities of Citrus Heights, Folsom, Orangevale, Antelope, Rio Linda, Elverta, Gold River, Rancho Murieta, North Highlands, Carmichael, Foothill Farms and Fair Oaks.

FREE LIBRARIES INSPIRE A LOVE OF READING

Barbara Donabedian

The Orangevale Fair Oaks Food Bank is now featuring a free library for all and can be accessed during their regular business hours. Free libraries inspire a love of reading, strengthens the community, and sparks creativity by fostering book exchanges in our Orangevale neighborhoods. Simply take a book, borrow a book, or leave a book. Thank you Keith Wright of the Orangevale Fair Oaks Food Bank for adopting this free library, and artist Bia Allen for making this idea a reality. This Free Library has been donated in the memory of Barbara Johansson 12/29/1932-02-21-1997. Her love of reading and community has inspired this family project. Barbara raised a beautiful bunch of Onwiler and Johansson kids moving to the corner of Main and Central Avenues in 1973. The build and artwork were all donated by local Artist Bia Allen. The cover features Barbara's large orange cat named Kiki. Kiki also had a love of books and of water fowl. Unfortunately, Kiki the cat didn't read up about duck feet before setting out to invite one over for dinner and had his eye badly scarred for his ill-informed attempt! Luckily for Kiki Barbara loved him all the same and would tell her grandchildren of the many tales of Kiki the pirates adventures and the many other ways in which he had lost the sight in his right eye. Her family hopes this project will spread her love of reading, animals, and of the Orangevale community. For additional information please visit orangevalefoodbank.org and http://Bealnkredible it's Up to You. Written and Submitted by Barbara Donabedian

Orangevale Cooks

by Suzanne Febowitz

Mother's Day is Sunday, May 12. If you are looking for a yummy breakfast treat to celebrate, this recipe is for you! This is a delicious brunch recipe that you can serve on the weekend for family or visitors or for an easy Mother's Day treat. The best part of the recipe is that you prepare this the night before so that all you have to do is put it in the oven in the morning.

If you would like to share a favorite recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Febowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

JENNY'S CRÈME BRULEE FRENCH TOAST

½ cup unsalted butter
1 cup brown sugar, packed
2 TBSP corn syrup
6 French bread slices (buy an inexpensive unsliced loaf of French bread and trim off the crust, then slice the bread into slices of about 1 ½ inches thick)
5 eggs
1 ½ cups half-and-half cream
1 tsp vanilla extract

1 tsp brandy-based orange liqueur (like a Grand Marnier-type)-optional
¼ tsp salt

Melt butter in a small pan over medium heat. Mix in sugar and corn syrup, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Pour into a 9 x 13 inch baking dish.

Arrange the sliced, crust less bread in the baking dish in a single layer. In a small bowl, whisk together eggs, cream, vanilla, brandy, and salt. Pour over the bread. Cover and chill at least 8 hours or overnight.

In the morning, preheat the oven to 350 degrees. Remove the French toast from the refrigerator and bring to room temperature.

Bake uncovered 35-40 minutes until puffed and lightly browned.

Serve immediately. This is delicious with a side of fresh raspberries or your favorite fruit.

Serves 6.

Are you feeding a stray? Not planned. It just happened. It's happened to all of us. Now you're faced with a vet bill to get kitty fixed so it doesn't reproduce. But it's not your cat! But you know there are way too many kitties out there and you don't want your stray to add to the problem.

Good news! Fluff Buddies has a spay/neuter program. No proof of low income required. Just stop by one of our adoptions events. (Every Saturday and Sunday from noon to 4 p.m. at the Fair Oaks Petco which is located on Madison, at Hazel, in the Raley's Shopping Center.)

We would be glad to issue you a voucher or two that is good for two months. The participating vets are in Roseville (less than five miles away from central Orangevale.)

We also loan out traps at no charge if kitty is skittish about being placed in a carrier. (Help with transport MAY be available.)

Hope to see you soon! And thank you for caring enough to feed an abandoned animal.

Have you met the new guy in town? Well, he's not exactly new to the area, but his business is! Meet Derek Clark, owner and head brewer of the one and only Palm Tree Brewery, located at 8844 Greenback Lane, right behind Adalberto's, the new hotspot for a great beer and a great time.

"I took a class in brewing about 13 years ago from a local Brewmeister," said Derek. "Little did I know I'd end up opening my own brewery. I never planned on this, but I'm in the black and couldn't be happier."

After a bad motorcycle accident in 2010, and long recovery ahead of him, Derek had time to dig deeper into his hobby of brewing. Right away he discovered that the equipment he needed wasn't available so he fabricated his own, starting with a custom control panel. From there he created his entire brewing system and created his first beer for Superbowl Sunday 2013.

"It was really good," Derek boasted. "All my friends and family agreed, but then again everyone says it's good when its free," he joked.

Deciding to see if his beer was really any good, Derek did a test market and with undeniable results decided to take the plunge into opening up his own beer business.

Fifteen months later, on December 7, 2018, The Palm Tree, celebrated its official grand opening with the Orangevale Chamber of Commerce for a full-house ribbon cutting ceremony. Supervisor Sue Frost Chief of Staff Matt Hedges was also on hand to deliver his official proclamation.

"The best decision I ever made was joining the Orangevale Chamber," Derek shared. "The networking and social media has been great. In my first 30 days I got my first batch of regulars, now I'm up to 100 who come in once or twice a week."

If you're not a beer lover give it a try. Derek's brews are clean, straightforward and smooth. His tap includes an assortment of tantalizing flavors to try. There's a good, easy going, relaxed feeling in the Hawaiian themed pub, not to mention a friendly face and welcoming environment..

Orangevale Town Fair goers will also have a chance to try Palm Tree beers. Derek's brews will be showcased at the Orangevale Town Fair - A Pow Wow Days Tradition, May 31 - June 2 at the Orangevale Community Park.

Two of his most commonly heard quotes from his customers include, "Man you are so close I can walk here" and "I just live right around the corner."

While parking is a challenge in the small, shared parking lots, auxiliary parking is being arranged for the summer. Soon you'll be able to smile at the sensor and someone from Palm Tree will pick you up and bring you over. Derek is offering $1 off anyone who uses Uber/Lyft and/or the soon to be announced auxiliary parking lot. Stay tuned.

Finally, if you are wondering why "Palm Tree", Derek's family roots go back to Oahu and his fond childhood memories. Plus, "Orangevale could use some Palm trees here," he added.

Doors are open seven days a week, Monday - Thursday 4 pm - 9 pm, Friday and Saturday, 12pm - 11 pm and Sunday 12 pm to 9 pm. Come on in and give Palm Tree a try. You won't regret it! For more information, go to www.palmtreebrewing.com.

EVERYONE LOVES A PARADE

Spectators will be on hand Saturday, June 1 (beings at 9am) to witness 56 years of history as the annual Orangevale Town Fair Parade makes its way from Greenback and Main Ave, to the Divine Savior Church on Greenback Lane.

The parade, organized by the Orangevale Chamber of Commerce, includes everything from marchers to floats to antique and customized automobiles. An annual attraction is the Casa Roble Jr ROTC Drill Team, and it wouldn't be a parade without the Wells Fargo Wagon, Metro Fire Truck, baton twirlers and bands.

Even the most lowly of duties is turned into a fun and frolicking activity as the "Road Apple Patrollers," made up of volunteers from local clubs, follow each of the mounted horse units with wheelbarrows and shovels to keep the streets clean for the rest of the participants.

So, gather your family, friends or furry pals and sign up for the annual Orangevale Parade Today. Applications are online at www.OrangevaleTownFair.com.

WORSHIP INFORMATION

REMEMBERING THE FALLEN

May is Poppy month nationwide. The red poppy is a perpetual memorial to the sacrifices made by our fallen veterans for our freedom. The American Legion Auxiliary (ALA), Unit 383, Fair Oaks, will distribute poppies handmade by our disabled veterans, who receive a small stipend for each poppy made, in front of Walmart, 8961 Greenback Lane, Orangevale, every Tuesday in MAY: May 7, 14, 21, 28 from 4PM – 6:00PM and also on Saturday, May 18 from 9:00AM – 3:00PM. The memorial poppies are free, given as a remembrance of our fallen, but those who choose to may make a contribution which will be devoted entirely to rehabilitation and assistance for veterans and their families. Please join us in helping to support our veterans. The blood and tears shed by our fallen heroes is symbolized in the red poppies immortalized in the poem by Lt. Col. John McCrae, Canadian Army WW1. We must never forget those who have given their all.

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses

That mark our place:
and in the sky
The larks, still bravely
singing, fly

Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short
days ago

We lived, felt dawn,
saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved,
and now we lie

In Flanders fields.
Take up our quarrel
with the foe:

To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.

If ye break faith with us
who die

We shall not sleep,
though

Poppies grow

In Flanders Fields.
