COME TO A PAJAMA PARTY!

Scott Lacy is the owner of Scotty's Hideaway, a local bar and gathering place for people to have a favorite cocktail, catch up on the local gossip, or to simply play a game of pool with a friend. If this sounds like the several bars and restaurants in your area, you would be correct, except, Scott Lacy is, in essence, throwing a pajama party!

"Who doesn't want to help kids?" Scott asked me recently as to the reason why Scotty's Hideaway is hosting the Orangevale - Fair Oaks Kiwanis Club in their Pajama Drive for Kids. The festivities will take place on Tuesday, December 17, 2019 beginning at 7:00 pm and will continue into the evening. There will be prizes to be given away, Karaoke contests, and if someone does enjoy themselves a little too much, Scott says, "there is a couch on the back patio for patrons to take a break."

We are asking the community to please help the Kiwanis Pajama Drive by either bringing with them a brand new pair of plain pajamas (no logos, lettering or photos) sizes 1 - 16. The pajamas will be distributed by the About Kidz organization who works with other local organizations in distributing pajamas to children to keep warm during the cold winter nights. If you decide that you would like to make a monetary donation, the Kiwanis Club will be there to take your donations, as well as to collect the jammies.

When I pressed Scott to give me another reason why he is doing this charitable event his answer was, "It's Christmas!" A familiar story: an eight-year-old named Virginia O'Hanlon wrote a letter to the editor of New York's Sun, in 1897. In an unsigned editorial by veteran newsman Francis Pharcellus Church that is now legendary when he said, "Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus." I agree - his name is Scott Lacy! You can meet Scott at Scotty's Hideaway located at 9353 Greenback Lane in Orangevale.

Come and visit Kiwanis at the El Gallo Mexican Restaurant, located at 11773 Fair Oaks Blvd., on the 2nd Tuesday of every month. Meetings begin at 6:30 pm. We also have social gatherings on the 4th Tuesday of every month and the location varies. Find us at facebook.com/Kiwanis-clubofOFO or email us for more information at kiwanisclubofOFO@gmail.com.

Sal Arrigo, Jr. is the president of the Kiwanis Club of Orangevale - Fair Oaks. The Kiwanis Corner is published monthly.

SHINING A SPOTLIGHT ON ORANGEVALE BUSINESSES THE BEST OF ORANGEVALE 2019

The new website for the Best of Orangevale 2019 allows you to share your information and voting links with family, friends and your customers. The Best of Orangevale is a local competition produced by the Orangevale View and sponsored by the Orangevale Chamber of Commerce, and Orangevale Recreation & Park District. The Best of Orangevale is considered to be Orangevale's premier business award.

Beginning December 4th, thousands of votes from organizations and individuals are expected to be submitted on the Orangevale View's website for consideration in categories including Citizen of the Year, Teacher of the Year, Principal of the Year, Volunteer of the Year, and the Best Businesses of the Year.

The online voting process will determine the Winners and Runner-Ups. With business owners, community supporters, and their guests in attendance, the winners will be announced at an elegant award banquet sponsored by L&M Liquor and Deli and Palmer Real Estate. This premier business event will be held at the Orangevale Community Center on Saturday, February 22, 2020. To get tickets visit Eventbrite at <https://bestofov2019.eventbrite.com>. The 4th Annual Award Banquet is expected to sell out like the past 3 years.

Best of Orangevale Rules & Guidelines

Nominees must do business (or work for non-business related categories) within Orangevale, CA. or have an active Orangevale Chamber Membership. We verify all participants via Sacramento County Business License database, Social Media and registered Website. This rule is excluded for certain non-business related categories.

The Best of Orangevale facilitators reserve the right to remove any business that has entered the competition incorrectly or has used marketing materials, badges, language or behavior that is not in line with the competition. Participants who violate the rules will receive a written warning about the incident.

If a business is caught "Stuffing Ballots", which is breaking one of our security measures and submitting multiple ballots with the voting focus on same business and or businesses. The software automatically flags these incidences and they are scrubbed from the final list. We have a responsibility to the businesses who participate to provide a fair and accurate voting process that ensures that no one abuses the integrity of the Online competition.

Only one vote per category per person. Winners are chosen by people who fill out the Online voting ballot. We will track IP addresses, if more than one person wants to vote within your household they may not use the same computer, tablet, and phone or shared network. All voting entries must have complete information or the votes will not be counted.

By participating in the Best of Orangevale you grant us permission to use your business name, likeness and or image for use in our marketing and promotional materials related to the competition and/or party.

All Best of Orangevale competition results are held private by the Orangevale View. Winners will be awarded at the Best of Orangevale Award Banquet. Winners will receive certificate and other promotional materials. Winners will be showcase in the Orangevale View Newspaper issue following the Award Banquet. Winners will be posted on the Orangevale View website 7 working days from the Award Banquet.

The goal of the Best of Orangevale is to create awareness for all the great small businesses we have in Orangevale. We want the competition to be fun for all who participate.

NEW BEGINNINGS FOR CASA ROBLE BASKETBALL.

After 2 consecutive 2-25 seasons, it was clear that Casa needed a change in its top position. They turned to an unknown man named Brendan Erickson, a 15 year coaching veteran. Starting in 2005, Erickson was named the head Freshman coach and assistant Varsity coach at Newark Memorial High School. After taking 2 years off to finish school, Erickson returned to Newark to become the JV head coach and Varsity assistant. He helped lead the team to 1 Nor-Cal Regional Championship, 2 State Final Fours, 7 League Championships and 1 Section Championship. In the short offseason, Coach Erickson started a thorough conditioning and weights program with his boys. Coach Erickson says "We are going to pride ourselves on playing as hard as we can". The Varsity Rams return All League point guard, Greg Zane, will lead them to a successful season. The 2 sport, football and basketball, star who averaged 12 points, 3 assists and 1 steal per game last year will be relied on heavily throughout the season. Greg will be helped by a group of hardworking players that are determined and committed to resurrecting the Rams basketball program. The Rams start league play on January 10 @ Mira Loma.

CASA ROBLE BASKETBALL NEEDS COMMUNITY SUPPORT

Your support will help us offer a higher quality experience for all participants. Raising dollars for extra curricular activities is very difficult to do but is vital for our program. If you could please spread the word about our fundraiser by sharing it with your friends via Email, Facebook and Twitter we would greatly appreciate it!

WHY ARE DONATIONS NECESSARY?

Donations will allow us to provide funding necessary to create a great environment for our participants to experience success.

HOW ARE ARE DONATIONS USED?

Donations will go towards uniforms, out of town tournament, and team apparel. Your support is vital to the success of our program and very much appreciated!

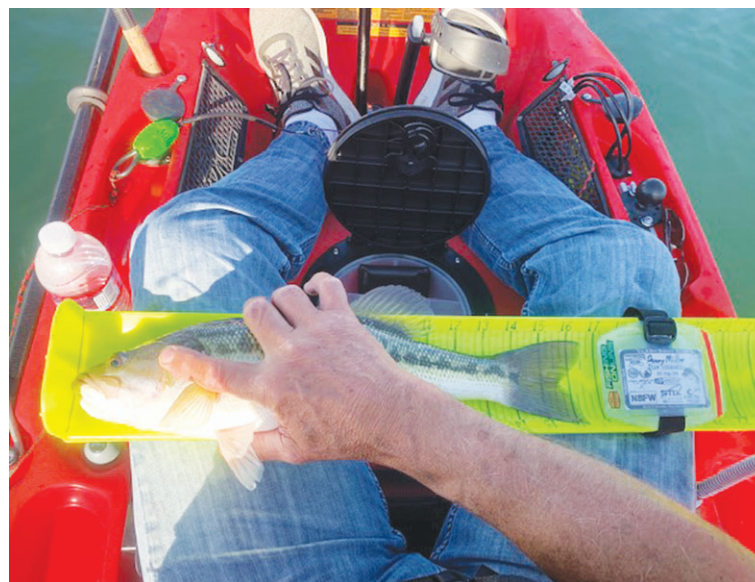

To make a donation visit <https://www.snap-raise.com/v2/fundraisers/casa-roble-boys-basketball-2019#/> or contact Casa Roble Coach Brendan Erickson 916-971-5452

Fishing Time

"Fishin Time"

Hello everyone,

Hope this finds everyone well and happy. This past week I had a kayak tournament at Lake Comanche. I found the lake water crystal clear and the morning of our start we had zero wind, which hurts the fishing but helps to get where you want to fish from a kayak. I use a Hobie kayak that has pedals and the optional oar. I had a very long paddle to get to my island spot. After my arrival there I found 3 bass boats going head to head fishing my spot. Kayaking is very much different than being in a bass boat. You move around slower, must fish slower, and have a lot more patience. Almost sounds like getting old age but the exercise is far from that. It was tough for me to get a cast to my spot without infringing with the bass boats and I knew it would be a long day. After 3 hours 2 boats left and I had a small opening. I made my cast and hooked a fair bass. I photographed, released and entered it to the tournament app. It was a grind for sure but my persistence was rewarded with the required one bass. Life goes on but I feel a lot slower in a kayak. If you're in the mood to try one out they have demos at kayak shops available. Kids really love kayaking also. Make sure to wear a properly fitted life vest and be prepared to slow down. Have fun and stay safe! Danny Miller

Congrats to the Lady Casa Rams soccer team for a 3rd place finish & a great pre-season showing in the Stockton tournament earlier this month. Keep up the great work! Go Rams!

FORCING CONSEQUENCES

By County Supervisor Sue Frost

I voted against the proposed emergency ordinance that would have blocked landlords from legally evicting tenants - and I wanted you to know why.

I voted against the ban on “no fault eviction” because it’s a false promise that does nothing to address the core problem and actually might make it worse.

The problem is simple - we don’t have enough housing, and scarcity drives up costs and reduces options.

The situation has received a lot of media attention about the emotion involved - and I do not diminish the stress a person who needs to find a new place to live must feel. But the coverage hasn’t done an outstanding job of explaining the facts.

What they are terming “no fault eviction” is actually when a property owner doesn’t offer a renewal at the end of a tenant’s lease. Typically the property owners give tenants two months’ notice - and most of the time, the tenant chooses to leave and find a new place to live. But sometimes they refuse to move out, and the owner is forced to evict them.

So why is there so much fervor? Because one apartment complex decided not to renew lessees for a large group of tenants that were on month-to-month leases.

I have great sympathy and compassion for the renters who were impacted by this isolated situation, and I do not condone the actions of this particular apartment owner. After this incident happened, financial assistance was negotiated for the tenants who received termination notices. These tenants will receive $2,500 in relocation or rent assistance plus the return of their full security deposit from the current owners. In addition, several tenants with Housing Choice Vouchers may be able to stay at the property after its sale to the new owners.

This proposal, as well as statewide Rent Control that is coming January 1st, both suffer from the same misguided notion that renters will be better off with government controls on rent. Nothing is further from the truth.

Economists across the world, as well as everyone with basic knowledge of economics, understand that this is simply not the case. While price controls do hold down costs in the short-run for current tenants, in the long-run, it decreases rent inventory and affordability and creates blight in the surrounding neighborhood. In short, it increases housing costs, discourages construction of more affordable units, and reduces housing options.

Laws like rent control and bans on “no-fault evictions” are barriers to building the housing and apartments we desperately need. They create economic pressure for landlords to convert their properties to different uses entirely.

My supervisorial colleague, who has been so publicly critical of my vote, should review the results of similar policies in areas like San Francisco and Los Angeles. Then he needs to ask himself if he would consider either of those cities affordable.

In 2019 the National Apartment Association conducted a survey of firms that build multifamily housing. The results showed that the Sacramento metropolitan area is one of the hardest places to build multifamily housing in the entire country. Nationally, our region ranked 56 out of 58 for the most barriers to building multifamily housing. Meaning it is more difficult to build apartments in the Sacramento area than the surrounding areas of Honolulu, New York, or San Diego.

This is unacceptable to me - and for anyone who honestly wants to deal with the housing shortage and price inflation. We have to do better. That’s why I will hold a series of meetings with county staff, apartment owners, builders, and tenants’ rights groups. Together, we will find out what can actually be done to solve the problem and reduce barriers preventing us from building new multifamily and affordable housing in our County.

I want real solutions, like offering tax incentives to property owners who keep rent low and build new units. Or allowing housing projects to get the same incentives and environmental exemptions sports facilities get.

I do not have all the answers; however, it is clear to me that we cannot continue to pass half-baked policies that feel good but in reality, make the situation significantly worse.

Thank you for reading – and as always, if you want to contact me call me at 916-874-5491, or e-mail me at SupervisorFrost@saccounty.net.

Sue Frost represents the 4th District, which includes all or part of the communities of Citrus Heights, Folsom, Orangevale, Antelope, Rio Linda, Elverta, Gold River, Rancho Murieta, North Highlands, Carmichael, Foothill Farms and Fair Oaks.

THANKFUL FOR OUR COMMUNITY

Thankful for our community
By Assemblyman Kevin Kiley
November 19, 2019
(Word Count: 524)

As Californians, we face plenty of challenges. This year nearly 700,000 people chose to leave the state for greener pastures. Recently, blackouts have roiled many of our communities and shaken our faith in government even more.

Yet as we work to fix all that is wrong with our state, Thanksgiving offers an occasion to remember all that is right about our area: the communities in the Sixth Assembly District continue to offer a bastion of hope for taxpayers, families, and businesses. While this column often focuses on how we can get California back on track, this month I instead want to highlight some of the reasons I am thankful to call this community home.

I am thankful that our communities continue to lead California as premiere destinations for owning a business and raising a family. I was proud to see El Dorado Hills, Folsom, Granite Bay, Orangevale, Rocklin, and Roseville all land in the top 40 best places for young families in California based on factors including home affordability, educational quality, and economic opportunity.

I am thankful for the incredible law enforcement officers, firefighters, and first responders who serve our community on a daily basis, many of whom will miss Thanksgiving dinner with their families in order to keep us safe. It is a testament to their dedication that Folsom,

Lincoln, and Rocklin were all in the top 20 on the list of the safest cities in California for 2019.

I am thankful for the amazing charities and nonprofits that give so much and help define the character of our region. From the Foothills K9 Association supporting law enforcement animals, to Stand Up Placer and Three Strands Global working to educate and eradicate human trafficking in our region, to a number of tremendous food banks, we are blessed with incredible organizations and countless volunteers that work tirelessly to build community and see that no one is left behind.

I am thankful for the thousands of veterans who risked their lives for our freedoms, including active service members and many veterans of our nation's more recent conflicts. Earlier this year I had the opportunity to honor Roseville's own Marcus Haney as the Veteran of the Year in the Sixth Assembly district. After receiving a Purple Heart for his service in Afghanistan with the Marines, Marcus returned home and started a company to help address the emotional, psychological, social, and professional needs of veterans as they reintegrate into civilian life. We are eternally grateful to these heroes whose sacrifice allows us to celebrate Thanksgiving.

I am of course grateful for the natural beauty of our region, and all of the opportunities we have to enjoy the outdoors.

And this list is just a start. Our state is facing many challenges, and the fight to get California on track in the year ahead will not be easy. But if there is one thing I'm sure of, it's that our communities are worth fighting for -- and I am thankful, above all, for the opportunity to fight for you. It is an honor and a privilege to be your Representative, and I hope you have a wonderful Thanksgiving.

Assemblyman Kevin Kiley represents the 6th Assembly District, which includes parts of El Dorado, Placer, and Sacramento counties. A taxpayer advocate, Assemblyman Kiley will be hosting a holiday open house and toy drive on Friday, December 20 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Destiny Community Center (6850 Five Star Blvd) in Rocklin.

Every year my mother-in-law would make dozens of cinnamon rolls for the family. My sister-in-law took up the duty for several years, but now it is up to each of us to make our own. I am sharing the recipe so that you can start the tradition in your family. One batch is enough for a regular size family. Read through the recipe and plan for the time. It takes a bit of time to complete, but the results are amazingly delicious! Hopefully, this will be a new tradition in your family!

If you would like to share a favorite winter recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

EDNA'S CINNAMON ROLLS

2- 9 x 12 or 9 x 13 pans- makes 24 cinnamon rolls total

2 Packages yeast- if using bulk, then 1 pkg=2 ¼ tsp yeast (for a total of 4 ½ tsp yeast)

½ cup water (110 degrees)

1 ½ cup milk, lukewarm

½ cup shortening

¾ cup granulated sugar

2 tsp salt

2 eggs, well beaten

5-7 cups sifted flour

½ cup flour to work with, if kneading by hand

Make the Dough first. When it has almost doubled in size, then get the pans and filling ready.

Filling: ½ cube softened butter, ½ cup granulated sugar and 2 tsp cinnamon- you will divide butter and sugar mixture in half for each dozen.

In bottom of pans: ½ cube softened butter, ½ cup brown sugar, a few tbsps granulated sugar and 2 tsp cinnamon (may need to add more sugar mixture to make sure pans are covered)- this is divided in half for each pan.

Note: If you feel the need to add more butter, then do so sparingly. It doesn't make them better, but you might need more to cover the pan or spread on the dough.

DOUGH:

1. Combine yeast with water. In mixer or another bowl, combine milk, shortening, sugar, and salt
2. Add yeast and eggs
3. Stir in 2 cups flour, then add enough flour until easy to handle. Turn out onto lightly floured board or use mixer to knead.

If using mixer, knead until dough sticks to dough hook

4. Place in greased (oiled) bowl, turn dough over so all gets oiled

5. Cover with a towel and let rise until doubled- about 1 ½ to 2 hours. It is done when impression in dough remains.

6. Punch dough down and divide in half

7. Roll each half into a rectangle 15 x 9 inches

8. Spread softened butter over each rectangle, then sprinkle all over with cinnamon sugar

9. Roll starting with narrow edge, seal end by pinching along length of roll.

10. Cut into 12 slices. I usually cut in half and then half each half and so on.

11. Spread softened butter in pans and sprinkle with brown sugar mixture -be sure all is covered

12. Cover and let rise until doubled-about 30 minutes

13. Bake in a 375 degree oven for 25 to 30 minutes.

14. Immediately turn over onto foil so that all the sugar and butter that was on the bottom is now at the top. Let cool. Then wrap in foil and freeze or eat. Enjoy!

PETACULAR

What a catch! Leo is definitely a 'turn key' pup. Foster parents brought him home where he met dogs, cats and even a feisty kitten and he did well with everyone. He rides well in the car (he prefers shotgun in a bed) and had no accidents in the house. Even though he is 6 years old, he still acts like a puppy when he plays -- doing little zoomies and play bows. He spent the night snuggled between the foster parents in bed and didn't move once. Some family will be very lucky to add this fella to their home!

Are you feeding a stray? Not planned. It just happened. It's happened to all of us. Now you're faced with a vet bill to get kitty fixed so it doesn't reproduce. But it's not your cat! But you know there are way too many kitties out there and you don't want your stray to add to the problem.

Name: Leo
Breed: Chihuahua/Terrier mix
Age: 6 years Color: White and Tan
Adoption Fee: $110

Good news! Fluff Buddies has a spay/neuter program. No proof of low income required. Just stop by one of our adoptions events. (Every Saturday and Sunday from noon to 4 p.m. at the Fair Oaks Petco which is located on Madison, at Hazel, in the Raley's Shopping Center.)

We would be glad to issue you a voucher or two that is good for two months. The participating vets are in Roseville (less than five miles away from central Orangevale.)

We also loan out traps at no charge if kitty is skittish about being placed in a carrier. (Help with transport MAY be available.)

Hope to see you soon! And thank you for caring enough to feed an abandoned animal.

A dog pack naps; its puppies are relaxed. They're cute to the max (on cozy crash pads). Some might ask: Do they dream? Perhaps. One dog that's awake has got the others' backs.

ORANGEVALE

Chamber of Commerce

GLOVE members / Orangevale commercial property owners,

Thanks again for gathering three times in 2019 to reignite our GLOVE efforts. It's been particularly encouraging to discuss how we can improve the commercial areas and grow small businesses in Orangevale.

I thought I would provide an update on our PBID efforts, and propose an idea for December.

1) COULD WE LIGHT UP GREENBACK FOR THE HOLIDAYS?

One of the goals of our PBID is to create energy & interest in our small businesses in town while making it cleaner, safer and more vibrant. Many of the local area business districts decorate their corridor for the holidays. I thought it might be worth a shot to see how many of you might be willing to decorate your building for the holidays. If you're up for it, let me know.

2) UPDATE ON PBID EFFORTS & 2020 GLOVE PLANS

We held three GLOVE meetings in 2019, and I think it would be good to continue these next year. I'll be circling back about a next meeting sometime mid-late Q1 2020. Stay tuned on that.

One of our key outputs from these past conversations is a proposed PBID (Property & Business Improvement District). To date, we have about

Chamber President
Brad Squires

20% of the owners represented who've indicated a strong interest in moving forward. A few key properties such as Walmart & Cable Park have not responded. We've only had two property owners indicate a "no thank you" to the idea, leaving quite a few unresponsive. In order to approve a PBID, we need at least 50%. For now, I plan to continue reaching out to local owners to gauge level of interest. We also have Supervisor Frost's team engaged in the process. Regardless, there are several other ways for us to continue working together in 2020...the PBID is just one approach. So I look forward to keeping the conversation going.

Thanks again for a great year, and I will look forward to connecting with you after the holidays.

Best Regards,

ORANGEVALE HISTORY PROJECT MEETING JAN 31 AT 9 AM

Join the conversation to help preserve Orangevale's rural roots. We have a space at the Chamber office dedicated to showcasing Orangevale history. We're also gathering local photos and artifacts to share there and through a new website we are working on.

And we're looking for interesting people who can share some history of what it was like to grow up in Orangevale. Join the committee that's getting this ramped up!

Mission Statement: To collect and share Orangevale's Community History and tradition.

HOLIDAY ON THE FARM

Come One, Come All!!! Casa Roble Future Farmers of America (FFA) students would like to invite you and your family to celebrate the Holiday on the Farm. The fun goes from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Saturday December 14th, 2019 and will be held at the Casa Roble HS Farm. Admission is $5 per person. So dig out those ugly holiday sweaters and mosey on down to the Farm.

The students of Casa's FFA Chapter have created a winter wonderland for kids of all ages to enjoy. Come and see what's up in Santa's workshop and then join us for the tree lighting ceremony at 6:00 p.m. There are plenty of games to plan and things to do like decorating your own cookies and making your own ornaments, "ice fishing" and "reindeer wrangling." There will be storytelling, and hot coco and other yummy treats available in the "Lodge." Join us for mini horse "sleigh" rides and our famous petting zoo and get your picture taken with Santa.

As part of the Casa FFA Chapter's way to give back the students ask that you bring an unwrapped toy to donate to our toy drive. The toys will go to a local charity for kids who would not normally have a gift to unwrap. All proceeds go to Casa Roble FFA Chapter. The funds raised will help the students attend leadership and education conferences as well as various competitions with their projects including the 2020 Sacramento County Fair. We appreciate your support and the support of sponsors like the Orangevale View.

WOODMORE OAKS NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH PROGRAM, IS PRESENTING THE CHRISTMAS LIGHT CONTEST

Tom DiGiacomo, President of the Woodmore Oaks Neighborhood Watch Program, is presenting the Christmas Light Contest Certificate to the winners of Camelback Court in Orangevale, Tony & Carol Liotine. The judges are out in the neighborhood and from December 16-24, Tom will be presenting the beautiful framed certificates to the winners on each of the 150 streets involved with the program. Tom had started this contest back around 1992 and has been having fun with this every year since. "It's a joy to see the smiles and excitement in the neighbors when I knock on their door and share the news!" Tom says when he is out there sharing the Christmas Spirit. Be on the watch, Tom might be knocking on your door soon!

CHRISTMAS TO BE CONTINUED

After a few brief weeks of Christmas clarity, most of us will go back to normal. Rudolph will be retired from the roof. The tree will be taken down and the last tinsel will finally been picked out of the carpet. The bathroom scales will faithfully register every piece of stolen Christmas fudge. You will receive your credit card bill and may end up in cardiac arrest from the damages. Christmas bells will turn to Christmas bills. So much for normalcy.

One January I was driving home and pleasantly surprised to see some Christmas lights still shining brightly. The manger scene was illuminated and the snowman was still in place, faithfully standing guard over the whole scene. But in the second week of January? Usually the lights come down with the old year's calendar. These, however, were a gentle admonition to keep the celebration alive in my heart.

Whoever you were with your Christmas lights still aglow, thank you for the blessed reminder that Christmas is not just for December. It's for January, and all year. For far too many, however, Christmas is over (that is, until next year's day after Thanksgiving sales).

Often times our lives are like the Christmas Day in WWI when soldiers who trying to kill each other laid down their arms and sang Christmas carols. The next morning, the carnage began again, with machine guns and bayonet fighting. Everything was back to normal.

One of the reasons I like Christmas so much is that people start acting better. We work together to feed others. We are more aware of the poor, the lonely and the elderly. We give. Neighbors who have been too busy to talk are now sharing cookies with each other. Families who have been apart are reunited.

Even though December 25th will come and go, the question still before us today is this: Will this last Christmas be a way of life or a temporary lapse in our material mindset? Does the celebration of Jesus' arrival really change anything besides our waistline or retail habits? I'm not trying to be cynical, just asking the question that many of us are afraid to ask. Let me state it a different way. Will the religion you embrace at the Christmas Eve service make a difference on how you behave on New Year's Eve? Tragically, Christmas has become an event, rather than a way of life.

Nietzsche, the atheist, said something we should all ponder, "Show me that you are redeemed, and I will believe in your Redeemer" There are many Nietzsches today who need some persuading that religion is more than an opiate for the masses. Our behavior in August will go far to demonstrate that Christmas is still alive, that God is with us and, that He didn't take a vacation until His Birthday party next year!

Let us hear and take to heart the words of the late Mother Theresa, "It is Christmas every time you let God love others through you... yes, it is Christmas every time you smile at your brother/sister and offer him your hand."

Let us not wait until next year to get together and offer a dinner for the needy or lonely.

Don't wait until next December to contribute to the Orangevale Food Bank or give a gift to someone who needs one. Why wait until next year to send a card to an old friend?

We can all take a cue from Charles Dickens, lest we miss the point of the classic Christmas Carol. After he looked at his own neglected tombstone, Ebenezer Scrooge uttered these profound words, "I will honor Christmas in my heart, and try to keep it all the year." The grave reality of the shortness of this life converted him to live for something bigger than himself. That same revelation could also bring about our salvation.

In closing, Dickens also states, "It was always said of him [Scrooge], that he knew how to keep Christmas well." The unspoken question layered in the subtext is this: How about us? Do we know how to keep Christmas well? The answer to this question will separate the men from the toys.

Will we merely make a Christmas list or can we make Christmas last? Our friends, neighbors, and coworkers will have all year to find out if we do. The seekers of this world still need stars to point the way to Christ. The Cratchit family awaits. Let's not leave them disappointed. Each of us can start today, one person at a time.

And just in case you forgot, Easter is only three months away. Only then do we remember anew why we ever had Christmas in the first place and why we can have a truly happy and hopeful New Year.
