LOYAL 2 LOCAL

Wow! Did the Orangevale Loyal 2 Local find another cool place to visit. If you have not tried Palm Tree Brewery at 6124 Hazel Ave. in Orangevale, you are really missing something. What a fun place to hang out with your friends with ample outside seating. If the name sounds familiar its because Palm Tree Brewery was located next to Adalberto's on Greenback from 2018. Derek, the owner, was successful at that location but found that after a few years he needed something bigger. He closed the one location and opened the new location at 6124 Hazel in February 2020, right before Covid set in. He classifies his brewery as a Beer bar/Pregame diner.

Derek is from Hawaii. So why did he choose Orangevale to start his business? He chose Orangevale because of its community atmosphere and the comradery of other fellow business owners. He states "without the community out pouring, he would never have opened up". Derek believes in paying it forward. As long as he has lived in Orangevale, he has served as a director at the Chamber of Commerce and has worked at the Orangevale Fair Oaks Food Bank in his off hours. He has even purchased a new home in Orangevale. He is planning a Bingo night down the road with half the proceeds to go to the Food Bank. Derek is a very energetic and ambitious individual with lots of ideas in the future to make a big success of the Palm Tree Brewery, from enlarging the outside eating area to eventually having music.

His menu is full of yummy comfort food. He currently has many different types of hotdogs, sausage and bratwurst, 3 types of tamales: chicken, beef and chili cheese with green sauce, cheese and pepperoni pizza and the most popular food on the menu -nacho's with jalapenos and chili with cheese and Frito's. He serves "Good clean straight forward beer, ale and lagers". His special recipe cans of Queen and King IPA beer can be found in the Grocery Outlet in both Roseville and Orangevale, Scotty's Hideaway, and Tonna's Sports Bar and Grill. He hopes to have the beer in 50 different stores. In fact, look for it in the local Raley's and BelAir by early summer this year. Watch for the Poncho Villa food truck on some Wednesdays and Thursdays. On Thursday March 18 look for Cousin's Main Lobster food truck.

Derek is offering a special of one Cheese Pizza with any beer of your choice for only $10. It is good from Friday, March 12th to Saturday, March 27th. Be sure to say where you saw the special! The hours are Monday - Thursday noon to 10:00pm, Friday and Saturday; noon to 11:00pm and Sunday noon to 9:00pm. The Palm Tree Brewery is making good craft beer you can try over and over again!

Orangevale Knights Schedule Charity Golf Tournament

The Knights of Columbus Council at Divine Savior Catholic Church in Orangevale is seeking golfers and sponsors for its 12th Annual Knights Charity Through Golf Tournament (KCTGT) at Serrano Country Club, May 10, 2021. Serrano CC is ranked as one of the finest in the state and is open to the public only at special events such as the KCTGT. "A round of golf at Serrano CC is a rare treat," notes Bernie Sabonis, tournament chairman.

Benefitting two local charities dedicated to improving the lives of intellectually and/or physically disabled adults, the tournament has raised more than $200,000 over the past six years for the charities. These funds help support programs at DDSO (Developmental Disabilities Service Organization) and the Heartright Foundation that provide life skills and services that can lead to independent living and even employment for hundreds of clients in the Greater Sacramento Region who are suffering severe disabilities.

Long-Drive Champion to Perform

Heather Lynne Manfreda, 2013 Women's World Long Drive Champion, three-time runnerup and 2018 Semi-Finalist will again awe tournament participants with her powerful 330-yard plus drives. For a donation to the charities, she will drive a participant's ball from the eighth tee setting them up for an eagle.

RELATIONSHIPS

Working together for the common good. Building bridges, not barriers. Striving to make things better. Finding a middle ground. These are all great ideals to strive for and to which we can agree upon. As we know, the good things in life are sometimes hard to accomplish or realize. It takes two to have a relationship. Both parties contribute and participate, like it or not. There can be so many things that separate us, things that come between us. The ways we interact with others can be determined by our looks, by our acts, and especially by our words. If we only relate to those who like us or look like us, then our pool of friends is rather shallow. I know during this Covid time it's hard to go out of our way to reach out and speak to someone we meet in passing. When we do reach out, I believe that those gestures of respect, that acknowledgement of the other person, that simple smile or greeting, is what brings us together. If we overcome our hesitations of not wanting to invade someone else's space or be rejected for being the weirdo who actually speaks to strangers, then life would be better for all. We can knock some of those man made barriers down. God created all of us in His image. All of us are in this thing together. I may look like an old, white haired, geezer who tries to look nice and be friendly, but I may just come off like an old, grump. No matter how we look, how we dress, whether we speak the same language, or smell like we haven't had a shower in awhile, we are all in this thing called life together. If we start with our relationship with God and realize what he has done for us, then our relationships with our spouse, our children, friends, neighbors and yes, even strangers can be different. We can treat them with respect, we can show that we care, we can greet them with a "good morning" and really mean it. We need one another, now more than ever. When all is said and done, our relationships mean everything. Don't wait til some one is dead to pay your respect. Have a cold one with your dad. Tell your old lady that you love her. Take your kid to the playground. We are only on this earth for a short time. The days that we enjoy together are gifts from God. Thanks for relating to me by reading my column. I wish that I could be there face to face with my 32ish loyal readers and ask how each of you are doing. I'm doing great, thanks for asking. My life is full of a lot of good things, family, grandkids, golf, work that I chose to do, church, fellowship, weekly breakfast with some old timers, and much too much to jam into a 24 hour day. Look for the good, reach out to someone today, enjoy life! Email me at: norbhuber@gmail.com

COOKS

BY Suzanne Feblowitz

Do you love those pretzels that they sell at the mall or your favorite pub? If you look up recipes for these types of pretzels, you find the words rising, baking soda, boiling water and then you realize that you don't really want to make them. Well, I have a quick, easy and tasty recipe for soft pretzels. When my son was four years old (almost 30 years ago!), he went to Christ the King Preschool. We must have made these with the kids (It was so long ago!) and I still have the recipe! If four year olds can do it, then you can easily make these yummy pretzels. They don't get dark brown like the ones you can buy, but they taste just like a soft pretzel.

HOMEMADE PET TREATS YOU CAN MAKE

Super Simple Yum Drops

submitted by: Kristi Simmons of TX

Easy microwave treat for busy people that still want to cook for their furry companions!

Version I - For Dogs:

Ingredients:

3 jars baby food meat (or veggies)

1 and 1/2 c wheat germ (or cream of wheat)

Instructions:

Mix ingredients together well. Drop by spoonful's on wax paper covered plate and cover with wax paper. Cook on high in microwave for 5-8 minutes (until treats are formed and firm). Store in refrigerator.

Version II - For Cats:

Ingredients:

3 jars baby food meat (or veggies)

1 and 1/2 c wheat germ (or cream of wheat)

small amount of tuna juice

Instructions:

Mix well. Drop by 1/4 spoonful's onto wax paper covered plate and cover with wax paper. Cook in microwave on high for 5-8 minutes until formed and firm. Store in fridge.

Note: Read the label of the baby food jars to be sure they don't contain Onion Powder. There have been cases where cats developed onion toxicosis after eating baby food. Avoid Garlic and Garlic powder as well.

If you would like to share a favorite recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

SOFT PRETZELS

1 package yeast (2 1/4 tsp)

1 1/2 cups lukewarm water

3/4 tsp salt

1 1/2 tsp sugar

4 cups flour

1 egg, beaten

Coarse salt

Soften the yeast in the lukewarm water. Then add the salt and sugar. Mix. Add the 4 cups of flour and knead. Do not let the dough rise. If you use a large enough bowl, you can do this in the bowl. Cut into small pieces and roll into ropes, but not too thick. Twist into pretzel shapes like praying arms. Lay on parchment covered cookie sheet. Brush with beaten egg and sprinkle with coarse salt. Bake at 400 degrees until golden, about 8-10 minutes. It makes approximately 3 dozen. Serve with mustard, favorite cheese sauce, or melted butter. Cover loosely and they can be reheated the next day.

BEST OF ORANGEVALE RECONGIZES HOMETOWN LEGENDS

On Orangevale's biggest night of 2021, Congressman Bera honored three of Orangevale's prominent residents for their service and contributions to the community of Orangevale. On February 20, 2021 the Best of Orangevale started off its award celebration with the induction of three new Hometown Legends; Jane Wise, Bill Amantea, and Mark Earl.

Jane Wise was recognized for many years as an educator at Del Campo and Casa Roble High School. A skilled diplomat and fierce advocate, Jane used her formidable planning and organizational skills to lead and support three principal causes: Orangevale Rotary Club, Friends of the-Orangevale Library, and The Elder Law and Disability Rights Center.

Bill Amantea was recognized for his service as a medic in the U.S. Navy, his work at Aerojet General Corporation, and for the State of California—as a graphic artist for the California State Fair and for California Prison Industry. He had a passion for art and he leaves behind a legacy of beautiful paintings and artwork. He was a long-time parishioner at Divine Savior Catholic Church in Orangevale. Bill (and his wife) were long-time volunteers in various civic organizations and at his children's and grand-children's schools. He was also a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Mark Earl was recognized for his love of music and influence to support the careers of young musicians. Mark purchased the Boardwalk in 1986. He hosted talents like Cheap Trick, Luke Bryan, and many more. Mark loved to inspire the youth and provide them an opportunity to perform on stage. But Mark's love and compassion to help others went beyond The Boardwalk. You could find Mark with his wife, Sandy making care packages for the homeless or raising funds for Leukemia patients.

All three will be truly missed but their legacy will live on forever. The Orangevale Chamber and Orangevale View would like the opportunity to give the families the Certificate of Recognition from Congressman Bera. Please contact Lisa Montes at editor@ovview.com or call 916.899.0207

 Senior citizens who live alone or in assisted living communities can often be overlooked — and this past year with so many having to isolate from their kids, grandkids and loved ones, it's only made things harder.
 The Rotary Club of Fair Oaks and the Golden Retriever Meet-up Group are hoping to bring a bit of luck for St. Patrick's Day by bringing a pot of gold (Golden Retrievers) to seniors for St. Patrick's Day. The Fair Oaks Rotary, accompanied by the Golden Retriever Meet-up Group will deliver over 450 handmade St. Patrick's Day cards to the above assisted living facilities. The Fair Oaks Rotary, already known for their incredible community service work, will be escorted by the Goldens, in costume, to bring smiles to the faces of the residents through the windows as Rotarians wave to residents.

 If you are interested in participating in the "AT THE END OF EVERY RAINBOW IS A POT OF GOLD", please see the contact information at www.rotaryfairoaks.org.

St. Patrick's Day

On March seventeen: Many are wearing green. This day is Irish-themed; Saint Patrick is its meme. Folks may paint shamrocks to be shown and seen. They celebrate with a fun run that helps to be lean. Soda bread, potatoes (maybe with sour cream), cabbage, and corned beef are this day's cuisine.
