HART STARTS STUDENTS RIGHT

HART Starts Students Right

Throughout August, the Homeless Assistance Resource Team (HART) of Orangevale and Fair Oaks volunteers were working hard to meet the needs of students in this area. In collaboration with Carmichael HART, over 300 backpacks full of school supplies were delivered to the SJ Unified School District's McKinney-Vento Office to be distributed to school aged kids living in some type of housing transition.

HART's Goal was to fill and deliver 100 backpacks but were able to triple the amount due to generous donations of time, money and supplies from volunteers, the Orangevale and Fair Oaks communities and Staples in Citrus Heights, making this first annual HART Backpack drive a resounding success.

HART DELIVERIES SUPPLIES TO SJUSD

HART is a newly formed program of the Orangevale-Fair Oaks Community Foundation. It's mission is to assist our at-risk neighbors and those experiencing homelessness to move toward self-sufficiency and greater independence. This is carried out by a dedicated group of compassionate volunteers in collaboration with community members, faith-based organizations and local businesses.

Orangevale Library grand opening celebration on September 25 Community room to be dedicated in memory of Jane Wise The public is invited to celebrate the Orangevale Library's reopening with a community celebration and ribbon cutting event on September 25 at noon. The location's community room will be dedicated in honor of the late Jane Wise, a local community leader and fierce library advocate. Event speakers include Library Director & CEO Rivkah Sass, County Supervisor Sue Frost and Kathleen Eaton.

After a year of renovations, Sacramento Public Library's Orangevale location reopened to the public in August. The $950,000 renovation made the library fully ADA accessible, and doubled its footprint from 4,320 square feet to 7,910 square feet. The location includes new features to better meet the community's needs with spaces designed for teens and children, two new study rooms, more computers for public use and a new community room. For details about the renovation, visit www.saclibrary.org/orangevale2021.

Orangevale Library is part of the 28-library Sacramento Public Library system and has been serving the Orangevale community since 1912.

It's with great sadness I announce the passing of my loving husband John who died after a short but courageous battle with cancer.

John retired from a long and successful career at PG&E as a Fleet Engineering Specialist where he was revered by co-workers and friends. He had many hobbies which included driving his hot rod, a 34 Ford Coupe, riding his Harley Davidson, playing pool and spending time at a local gun club where he enjoyed shooting both pistols and rifles. SUPPORT NON-PROFITS

A TOT OF MONEY GOING TO NONPROFITS

By: Supervisor Sue Frost

One of my favorite things to do as a County Supervisor is support local organizations that give back to the community. Nonprofit organizations fill gaps left by government, providing services and supporting cultural growth in a way that is more personal and more direct. Every year that I have been on the Board of Supervisors, we have been able to support the invaluable work of nonprofits with funds generated by the Transient Occupancy Tax (TOT), which comes from guests staying in hotels/motels. Through the TOT Grant Program, the Board of Supervisors awards a million dollars to nonprofits every year to help them enhance their impact on the community. I am thrilled that we are yet again launching the TOT Grant Program for the 2021-2022 cycle and the applications are open! For that reason, I thought that I would use this as an opportunity to increase awareness of the program and encourage as much participation as possible.

Applications are located here: bdm.saccounty.net/TOTGrantProgram. Applying organizations are required to be based in Sacramento County and must have specific programs they are requesting to fund. Programs can be for training, events that support tourism, address community issues, or that reach underserved populations. Applications are reviewed and measured by subject area experts and are divided by the subject areas of arts and culture, community development, economic/workforce development, and health and human services. The more specific applicants can be, the better. The more information about how an organization and program have helped and will continue to help the community, the better. All applications must be submitted online and on time. I want to stress all of those points because we receive so many applications and I want every organization to maximize its chances of receiving funds.

While the total amount of grant funds available is one million dollars, no single organization can receive that much. Grants can be no smaller than $5,000 and no larger than $50,000. Additionally, half of the total grant funds is available for the communal competitive pool. The other half is divided among each Su-

Supervisor Sue Frost

Supervisor to award to organizations in their district, meaning a minimum of $100,000 is guaranteed to go to our Supervisorial District 4. I love seeing the organizations in our district submit their proposals and it is never easy to pick who gets funds, but we have always had great successes in each of the communities in our district.

For example, in the past we have been able to secure over $40,000 for an Orangevale non-profit "About-Kidz", where the funding went to purchase supplies throughout the year to equip children with a fully stocked backpack, new outfit and shoes. We also were able to secure $10,000 to Community Meal Ministry, where the funds were used to increase the number of guests served at their weekly Orangevale Community Meals. The organization also purchased materials to add more garden beds in the community garden and commercial freezers/refrigerators to store additional food.

Applications for the TOT Grant Program are due no later than Monday, October 11th at 5:00 pm. As I mentioned, applications must be submitted online and no late applications will be accepted. The nonprofit organizations of Sacramento County do great work and enhance the quality of life for countless people. Whether your nonprofit organization is seeking to provide school supplies for children, organizing a community clean up, or expanding access to the arts, I encourage you to pull together your team and put together the best application possible. And if you know someone who has a local nonprofit, please send this information to them. The TOT Grant Program is a rare opportunity for us to directly support nonprofit organizations and I hope that many qualified organizations will jump on the opportunity.

Thank you for reading – and as always, if you want to contact me, call me at 916-874-5491, or e-mail me at SupervisorFrost@saccounty.net.

Sue Frost represents the 4th District, which includes all or part of the communities of Citrus Heights, Folsom, Orangevale, Antelope, Rio Linda, Elverta, Gold River, Rancho Murieta, North Highlands, Carmichael, Foothill Farms and Fair Oaks

ORANGEVALE COOKS BY Suzanne Feblowitz

Lynne Miles is sharing her recipe for Hoisin-Sauced Pork. It is a super easy recipe for some delicious pork. Her family ate it warm. They ate it cold. They ate it over a salad, over rice and in a sandwich. It was nice to have it cooked and ready to go. Please share some of your favorite recipes by sending them to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Hoisin-Sauced Pork
2 lbs boneless pork loin roast, (in 1 piece)
Marinade:

- 4 T hoisin sauce
- 1 tsp five-spice powder
- 2 large cloves garlic, crushed and peeled

Simmering ingredients:

- 4 T light soy sauce
- 4 quarter-sized slices ginger
- 2 small whole scallions, each cut in 2
- 2 cups boiling water

1. Select a small pot that will accommodate the meat snugly and measure into it the hoisin sauce, then the 5 spice powder and the crushed garlic; mingle well. Roll the meat in the marinade and rub it in well with your fingers. Cover and marinate the meat for at least 4 hours to overnight in the refrigerator.

2. Add the soy sauce, ginger, and scallions to the marinated meat and set the pot over high heat, add the boiling water and stir to mingle. When the liquid comes to a boil, adjust heat to maintain a strong simmering... small bubbles foaming around the meat... and cover and simmer for 1 hour, turning the meat a few times.

3. Turn off the heat and let the meat steep in the sauce for 15 minutes. Then put both in a bowl, cover and chill in the refrigerator until cold. Scoop off any congealed fat. Slice the meat thin against the grain and serve as it is or with a little of the sauce spooned on top.

Variation: A 2 lb. piece of beef, either rump, loin, or bottom round, may be substituted for the pork roast. Increase the simmering time to 2 hours.

restaurant in Orangevale. They chose Orangevale as they were familiar with the area since they lived near and went to Bella Vista High School in Fair Oaks. They named it La Placita meaning "The Little Plaza" or The Spot. His father was a building contractor who quickly learned how to run the back of the restaurant. Carlos's mother was a waitress and already had some experience running the front area of the restaurant. Carlos and his sister helped run the business which made it a true family affair.

In 2007, Carlos took over running the business when his parents retired. He is grateful for our community which helped make it the success it is. In return, La Placita supports our community in many ways, such as handing out free dinner coupons to recent BV and Casa graduates.

When Covid hit, Carlos stayed positive even though it was quite a challenge. He had to learn to run his business strictly on a 100% "Take Out" basis. During the first three months, his revenue actually increased. He had to add 3 telephone line and incorporate 2 different ways to order online to accommodate all the orders.

Since indoor dining has returned, he has now doubled his staff and hired 6 new employees. Now he is serving 70% dine in and 30% take out. His most popular meal is the "Patrick Burrito" named after a friend of his fathers. It is made with strips of Carne Asada steak, with sautéed tomato, bell pepper, onion and cheese, the plate also comes with rice, beans. Great food and great atmosphere! Contact Carlos and La Placita at 916-988-2940 or check out their menu at www.laplacitaov.com.

OV Unplugged

By Brandy Wade

Welcome to September Orangevale! In this issue we would like to take the time to challenge our amazing community to head outdoors, safely of course, and go on a nature hunt! In this challenge your family can use the Nature Hunt Challenge, also found on our Creative Nature Playschool's website, to find as many objects outdoors that you can. From birds and worms, to tree stumps and animal tracks; use this time to unplug from technology, slow your mind, and take time to be in the moment. Let's all take some time to notice all the beautiful changes happening outdoors. Please feel free to post your amazing nature findings on social media and use the hashtags #OVunplugged. Stay tuned for our next challenge and feel free to follow us on Facebook and Instagram @creativenatureplayschool and if you have other ideas for screen-free and unplugged fun please contact us on our website. Remember to put the technology down and head outdoors for some daily sunshine!

Orangevale Chamber of Commerce Business Spotlight - "Poppy" able like they're at home and can't wait to share the magic with their own people!"

In 2015, Aubrey and Nicole opened shop for special gifts or treat yourself to some "retail therapy".

You'll find distinctive gifts for all occasions ranging from "boho" jewelry, beautifully potted succulent plants, specialty soaps, crystals, wraps, cups, t-shirts and more!

Opening up a new business during a pandemic has its challenges and the Poppy owners are not immune to that. They recently posted an announcement to their customers, stating that due to "the current retail climate" store hours have been changed to Friday and Saturday 9 am - 4 pm and announced online shopping is available by going to www.poppov.com

"Our next goal is to increase the foot traffic at our center. We need to get people in here."

To that end, during the month of September, you can get 20% off everything in the store! So grab a friend and be sure to pop into Poppy -- you'll be glad you did!

By MaryAnne Povey

Have you ever popped into Poppy's? If not, you should! It's one of Orangevale's most unique good-vibe gift shops located at 9346 Greenback Lane, Suite 6, strategically nestled between Kindred Yoga and Orangevale's favorite coffee spot, Badfish Coffee & Tea in the Orangevale Downtown Plaza shopping center.

Owners and long time best friends, Aubrey Green and Nicole Brann, took a chance opening their dream gift shop during the pandemic with a focus on wonder and wellness "because the need for community was so strong at that time."

So what can you expect when you walk in the door at Poppy?

"The vibe is come as you are", said Aubrey, "From hippies to homemakers to healthcare workers, we wanted to create a space where anyone could come shop for themselves or somebody special, feel comfort-their first business, Creative Spirit Learning Center, a play based preschool located in Fair Oaks village. Wanting to do something more, they looked towards Orangevale where they have deep family roots.

"Putting roots down in our hometown was a high priority for us. We weren't ready to dive into owning a second school, so we thought a retail shop would be a great addition for OV."

"Once shoppers find their way into Poppy's, they love it," said Aubrey, "everyone who visits, has great things to say."

When people wander in, they are pleasantly surprised like this customer:

"If you are looking for something different, this is the place to go," said Annette Andrade, who first discovered Poppy at a recent Food Truck Friday community event. "I love the vibe and found prices to be very reasonable."

Poppy's is truly a great place to
