INDIAN STONE CORRAL VISIT

Fifteen Orangevale History Project members were led by Sacramento County Regional Park guides on a hiking tour of the Indian Stone Corral which was a village site for the Maidu designated as a historic site. Also, in 1978 Sacramento County obtained ownership and installed fencing to limit access.

The Regional Parks did a 2003 resource study which has been shared with us.

The study reports the site covers 72 acres and there is a private four acre residence that abuts the site. Included is a caretaker's residence which is currently unused and has no water or energy sources at this time.

This site is known by several names, and one is Robbers Roost. The notorious and Nisenan Indian tribes. Several granite rocks still show signs of where the tribes ground acorns for food. It is said there are some dimmed petroglyphs in the area, but they were not located.

In the 1970's the Moss Landing Company used the site as a granite quarry and Sierra College studied the cultural resources and performed archaeological surveys. In 1975 it was names tied to the Robbers Roost designation are Dr. Thomas Hodges (aka Tom Bell), Joaquin Murrieta and even Black Bart. This started due to the gold rush and at times a stagecoach line rode through the area.

The wild flowers and plants that were in bloom during the hike included: Soap Root, Lupine, Texas Blue Bonnets, Popcorn flowers, Fiddleneck, Blue Dicks, Filaree (aka storksbill) and, in the pond Flag Iris was spotted.

Hikers spotted ducks on the pond, a white egret and numerous varieties of birds. I took a walk along the pond (not an easy walk) to see the beaver dam. The hikers also spied a coyote and the real home owner of the area a bobcat with kittens.

The Orangevale History Project hopes to assist with the development of this area in the future to make it accessible for all the community.

HISTORICAL TRAIL SIGN OF 1860'S RAILROAD DEDICATION CEREMONY

Orangevale, CA -- The Orangevale History Project (OHP) is hosting a dedication ceremony for the historical trail sign showing the route and berm of the Railroad that went through Orangevale in the 1860's. The California Central Railroad was the second railroad in California and the first to span a river in the West. Designed by OHP, the sign will be placed on a walking trail near one of the remaining railroad berms still visible in the park. The ceremony will take place Saturday, May 20, 2023, at 2:00pm at the Orangevale Community Park (*see note below for directions – parking is off Filbert Ave).

Special guests include Sacramento County Supervisor Sue Frost, Assemblyman Josh Hoover, and Congressman Kevin Kiley.

“This is the first of many historical signs the OHP wants to recognize and share with the Orangevale community,” said Mark Aring, OHP President. “All are welcome to join us!”

Special thanks to these partners for their support in making the historical sign project possible: Orangevale Recreation & Park District for approving and installing the sign, Rotary Club of Orangevale for the donation for the sign development, and Zack Construction of Roseville for the sign's frame.

Orangevale History Project: a 501(c)3 non-profit historical society formed in March, 2022. The Project's mission is to preserve, chronicle and promote the history of Orangevale, educate the community and be a resource for researchers and students. For more information, go to OrangevaleHistory.org.

*The closest suggested parking is the Filbert Avenue entrance lot just south of Oak Avenue or by the Horse Arena near Green Oaks Elementary school. Allow a few minutes to walk into the park as there will be OHP members to direct you to the location.

This week I will be making cupcakes to celebrate the weekend! I love this recipe that I found on a cooking show several years ago. You will impress your guests and friends with this recipe. It would make a wonderful Mother's Day dessert!

Please share some of your favorite recipes by sending them to Suzanne Feblowitz at Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email address with your recipes just in case we need to contact you

VANILLA CUPCAKES

Makes about 30 cupcakes

- 1 ¾ cups cake flour, not self rising
- 1 ¼ cups unbleached all purpose flour
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 tablespoon baking powder

- ¾ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup (2 sticks) unsalted butter, cut into 1-inch cubes
- 4 large eggs
- 1 cup whole milk
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
- Vanilla Buttercream frosting

1. Preheat oven to 325°. Line cupcake pans with paper liner; set aside. In the bowl of an electric mixer, combine flours, sugar, baking powder, and salt; mix on low speed until combined. As mixer is mixing, add butter until just coated with flour.

2. In a large glass measuring cup, whisk together the eggs, milk and vanilla. With mixer on medium, add these ingredients in 3 parts, scraping sides of bowl after each addition; beat until all ingredients are incorporated.

3. Scoop batter into paper cups with an ice cream/ cookie dough scoop about two-thirds full. Bake until a cake tester inserted comes out clean, 17-20 minutes.

4. Transfer to a wire rack to cool. Frost with buttercream frosting and decorate with colored sprinkles.

VANILLA BUTTER-CREAM FROSTING

- 1 cup (2 sticks) unsalted butter, room temperature
- 6-8 cups confectioners' sugar
- ½ cup milk
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

Cream butter in an electric mixer until smooth and creamy- about 2-3 minutes. With mixer on low speed, add 6 cups sugar, milk and vanilla; mix until light and fluffy. Add extra sugar if needed for desired consistency.

Orangevale Farmers Market expands to host "Bands and Brews"

Since moving to the Orangevale Community Center on Hazel Ave, the Orangevale Farmers Market has continued to evolve, bringing our community not just great produce, food and crafts, but weekly entertainment for all ages with "kick-ass" music and beer. The Community Center has been the perfect venue for hosting this great fusion of local groceries with the age-old "summer concerts in the park". Farmers market manager, Marga Brunner has worked tirelessly to turn this vision a reality by investing in big-time musicians. Orangevale Chamber of Commerce also stepped up in 2022 to sponsor and run our first beer garden that poured locally brewed beers from Fort Rock Brewing Co.

The 2023 market season is introducing the "Bands and Brews" concert series which brings in a plethora of partnerships from local business and charitable organizations. The Orangevale Rotary club, Les Schwab Tire Center, Orangevale water Co, Orangevale copy, YMCA and Badfish Coffee are deeply responsible for making this amazing and unique event happen.

"Bands and Brews" is bringing back bands such as local favorites The Golden Cadillacs, Island of Black and White, Jessica Malone, and Todd Morgan and the Emblems to a growing weekly audience. The beer and wine garden has a grassy shaded area to enjoy the music and food trucks are providing pizza, tacos, fried chicken, and snow cones for the kids.

great music and food, the backbone is the farmers market itself. There are local farm and food vendors with seasonal produce and tasty food options. Some of the most dedicated vendors have been, Thao Ranch, K&D Freitas Farms, Freshway Fish, Donna's Tamales, Sciabica's Olive Oil, Sweet Nita's, Sour and Soul, and Golden Drops, just to name a few.

The Orangevale Farmers Market is a wonderful family event for the community to come together to support local farms and businesses and connect with each other. Come enjoy good food, company and music throughout the summer with "Bands and Brews." For more information about the market, concert series schedule or if you want to become a sponsor or a vendor check out, OrangevaleFarmersMarket.com

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

Divine Savior Community Meal Ministry (CMM) Celebrating Six Years of Service to our Community

Divine Savior is very pleased to recognize the sixth anniversary of our Community Meal Ministry. Our mission is to help improve the lives of those in our local community, by providing a warm welcome, a good meal, and companionship.

Key Milestones:

- 7/6/16 - Larry Culler, the ministry's first chairperson, assembled a core team that laid the foundation for this ministry.
- 2/2/17 - Introductory town hall meeting was embraced by our parishioners, with over 150 in attendance.

• 4/27/17 - Our first Community Meal was served.

With the enthusiasm and support of the core team, Father Roman Mueller, many volunteers, and our office staff; one of our parish's most impactful social ministries was formed. We are also blessed to partner with the Redeemer Covenant and First Baptist churches, to offer meals three nights per week.

Key Achievements:

- 167 meals hosted
- Nearly 14,000 guests welcomed
- Over 22,000 plates of food served

In addition to the meal we serve, we have provided members of our community a place to gather, socialize, relax, have fun, and be treated with care and dignity. This ministry has also created an environment where parishioners can embrace their faith by following the teachings of God, while making new acquaintances and friendships along the way.

Thank You to All:

- Over 150 volunteers
- Our Divine Savior priests and staff
- Our Giving Garden
- The Orangevale-Fair Oaks food bank
- Our generous parishioners

To volunteer, please contact Julie Rose at julierose9211@gmail.com or (916) 813-3106.

CELEBRATING EARTH DAY

Orangevale's nature preschool, Creative Nature Playschool, celebrated Earth Day last with their annual CNP Family Park Clean-Up. For the seventh year in a row, previous graduates, current students, and families gathered at Pecan Park in Orangevale and collected several bags of trash, taking time to discussed the importance of caring for our natural environment. This year Girl Scout Troop #891, containing seven CNP graduates, also joined in the group effort to help keep our local parks clean!
