1860'S RAILROAD COMMEMORATED AT ORANGEVALE COMMUNITY PARK

On May 20, 2023, about 40 Orangevale History Project (OHP) members and other local community witnessed the dedication of the trail sign of the 1860's railroad that went through Orangevale. OHP President Mark Aring gave the background of the California Central Railroad's path being the second railroad in California and the first to span a river in the West. Then after brief addresses by each, Sacramento County Supervisor Sue Frost and U.S. Congressman Kevin Kiley, these dignitaries unveiled the trail sign. This sign is located in the Orangevale Community Park next to the cement footpath south of the soccer field, close to the Filbert and Oak Avenues parking lot. Orangevale community – come check out part of our history!

Celebrating more of our history will be the Grand Opening of the Orangevale History Museum to be held Saturday, July 15, 2023, from 11am to 4pm. There will be exhibits showing Orangevale's history, an interactive touch-screen, a gift shop, food, music and fun! The Museum is located at 6920 Hazel Avenue, just north of the Orangevale Community Center.

Turn right into the driveway past the four parking spaces into the larger lot and continue to the far-right building.

OHP is your historical society, newly formed in early 2022, with a mission to preserve, chronicle and promote the history of Orangevale, and to educate our community. To learn more about OHP, or make a donation to help bring the history of Orangevale to the community, visit our website at OrangevaleHistory.org.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

With heavy hearts, the Orangevale Seventh-Day Adventist Food and Clothes Closet announces the passing of long-time volunteer, Joe Carleton. Joe was well-known in the Orangevale community as he walked many miles each day and interacted with neighbors and neighborhood businesses. A celebration of his life and time of remembrance was held on June 10, 2023 at the Orangevale SDA Church.

Letter to Editor,
Shame Shame Shame on you. On the front page you have Happy Memorial Day like it is the Fourth of July. What is wrong with you? There is nothing Happy about this holiday at all. Happy Fourth of July yes, Happy Birthday yes Happy Memorial Day No! You obviously never lost someone to war or have a clue what Memorial Day means. Some one or ones should lose their job for this mistake. This is unacceptable even for our little towns paper. I have lived in Orangevale since 1964 and have never read a mistake like this in our little town's paper. This is unforgivable. I know I am not the only one who feels this way. Shame on you! Mad as all else, Dennis Rust, long time OV resident.

Dennis,

You are absolutely RIGHT! This was a big mistake. I take full responsibility. It was not intentional to be insensitive to those who have served and to those who have lost.

I am a huge patriotic supporter. Especially being a part of a big military family who has been effective by the loss of war.

Memorial Day is a day to remember those who gave the ultimate sacrifice. It is not joyous occasion - but an opportunity for reflection and remembrance.

I am terrible embarrassment. Please accept sincerest apologies.

I WILL STAND WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT.

To Ensure We Have Fewer Victims, I Will Stand With Law Enforcement.
By Sue Frost

I have always worked hard to listen to the community - and then be a strong voice for my constituents. That's why I do extensive public outreach, including a district-wide poll like the one we did last month.

For the past few years reducing the impact of homelessness has been the top priority for people in the 4th district - and county-wide. Homelessness is still an issue, but the rising impact of crime on our families and business is now. Almost one-third of the public now cites crime as their top issue.

Even more alarming, nearly 1/4 of residents in District 4 report having been the victims of a crime in the last three years. It's no wonder that 2/3 of voters feel that we need MORE police patrols, not less.

I have always believed that keeping the public safe is government's highest and most fundamental responsibility. That is why public safety has always been my top priority with policy as well as in the County Budget. I will continue to give the Sacramento Sheriff and Sacramento County Probation my strongest support and stand by those who keep us safe.

I believe deeply in justice - and redemption. But my deepest commitment is to the people I represent, the Constitution I swore to uphold, and to the innocent victims of crime.

Sacramento County Sheriff's Department has a tough beat - covering one of the largest and most populated jurisdictions in the state while keeping more than 600,000 residents safe. Our Probation Department supervises over 22,000 adults on probation - ensuring that they fulfill their sentences, stay out of trouble, and become productive members of the community.

Supervisor Sue Frost

I will continue to stand by our First Responders - but our job is made harder and our residents are made less safe by radical policies and crazy laws being passed by the State Legislature.

Instead of dealing with the growing concern with crime, the Legislature is busy passing bills like AB 418 to ban Skittles and AB 2098 to strip licenses from doctors who share information about COVID treatments or information that bureaucrats haven't approved.

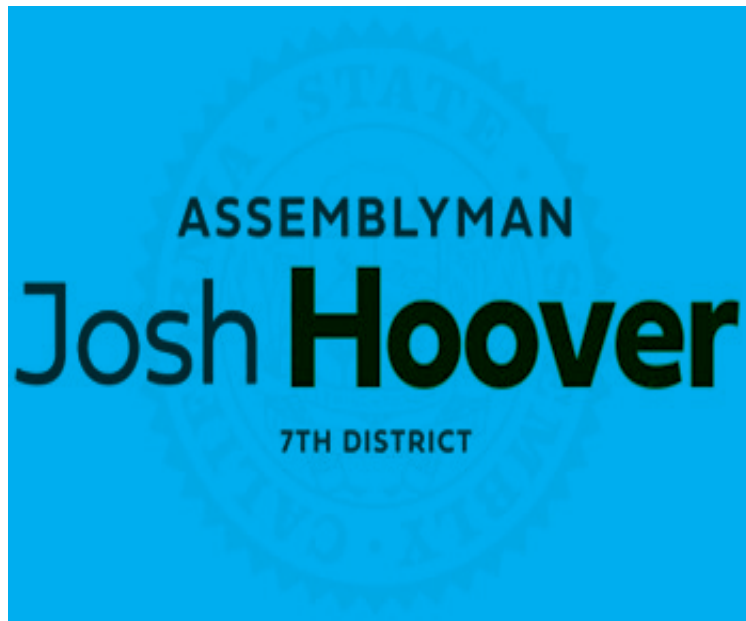

Even worse than wasting time, money, and energy on senseless or reckless legislation, some legislators continue to push "decarceration" and pro-criminal policies that will make it harder for our brave Deputies to keep us safe.

Assembly Bill 742 will drastically ban the use of K9 units for arresting dangerous criminals - putting officers' lives in jeopardy. SB 1007 requires the state to provide free telephones for convicted criminals in our jails and prisons - making it easier for them to continue coordinating illegal activities or smuggling drugs into jails. Their wrong-headed bills even SB 809 would actually prohibit businesses from asking about or considering criminal history in hiring decisions - allowing criminals to hide past behavior like robbery or theft from potential employers.

Over the next months, the Board of Supervisors will begin the budget process to set priorities and fund programs - including the budgets for Sheriff & Probation, as well as funds for jails, the DA, and the courts. Some activists are still pushing the "defund police" agenda - and during the budget talks, they are sure to be loud voices during Budget discussions. I will be sharing details about those hearings in my next newsletter as well as on my social media. I hope you will take the time to make your voice heard - I need your support to help ensure that keeping our citizens safe remains the top priority for the County of Sacramento (despite the reckless laws the Legislature keeps pushing.)

Thank you for reading - and as always, if you want to contact me, call me at 916-874-5491, or e-mail me at SupervisorFrost@saccounty.net. Sacramento County Supervisor Sue Frost represents the 4th District, which includes the communities of Citrus Heights, Folsom, Orangevale, Antelope, North Highlands, Rio Linda, Elverta, and Rancho Murieta.

Assembly Floor Approves Bill to Increase Access to Property Tax Exemption for Veterans

SACRAMENTO - Today Assemblyman Josh Hoover (R-Folsom) announced the unanimous passage of Assembly Bill 1361 (Hoover) from the Assembly Floor, a bill he authored to allow 100% permanent and disabled California veterans access to a property tax exemption prior to taking ownership of a home.

"Our state's disabled veterans have sacrificed so much for our country and freedoms, the least we can do is give them greater access to a tax exemption that they already qualify for," said Assemblyman Hoover. "Fixing this loophole in the law will provide financial relief to veterans and enhance their buying power when purchasing a home."

The veteran property tax exemption already exists in the State Constitution, but veterans cannot qualify for it until after they own the home. During the underwriting process, taxes that veterans do not owe are collected and counted against them when qualifying for a mortgage. This means that thousands of dollars are collected at closing that will simply be refunded back to them at a later date. This places unnecessary burdens on veterans and decreases their buying power. AB 1361 would streamline this process by allowing them access to the credit prior to closing on the home.

Josh Hoover represents Assembly District 7, which includes the cities of Citrus Heights, Folsom, and Rancho Cordova and the unincorporated communities of Carmichael, Fair Oaks, Foothill Farms, Gold River, Mather, McClellan Park, North Highlands, Orangevale, and Rosemont.

ORANGEVALE COOKS

BY
Suzanne Feblowitz

This week I am sharing a recipe from Lynne Miles. She has been making this dish about twice a month since she discovered this recipe! It is so easy, homey, filling and flavorful. She serves it with rice and naan. You can top it with cilantro, green onions, Kalamata olives and even capers. Enjoy!

Please share some of your favorite recipes by sending them to Suzanne Feblowitz at Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email address with your recipes just in case we need to contact you

Vegan Red Lentil Curry

Ingredients:

1 tablespoon refined or virgin coconut oil, or a neutral-flavored oil

4 cloves garlic, minced

2 inch piece of fresh ginger, peeled and minced or grated

1 tablespoon minced fresh turmeric, or 1 teaspoon ground turmeric

1-2 serrano peppers, diced (or 1 jalapeno for less heat)

1 teaspoon ground cumin

1/2 teaspoon ground coriander

1/2 teaspoon Indian red chili powder (or 1 teaspoon regular chili powder)

2 teaspoons curry powder

1 teaspoon garam masala
Kosher salt or sea salt to taste (I use about 1 tsp kosher salt, and add more at the end)

Freshly cracked black pepper to taste

1 cup red lentils, or split red lentils (the split variety will cook a bit quicker)

2 cups low-sodium vegetable broth

1 (14-ounce) can crushed tomatoes (or half of a 28-ounce can)

1 (13.5-ounce) can full-fat coconut milk

3 tablespoons unsweetened creamy almond butter

1/2 a small lemon, juiced

1/2 cup fresh cilantro, roughly chopped

Instructions:

1. Rinse the lentils in cold water until the water runs clear.

2. Heat a large, deep skillet or large saucepan over medium-high heat and add the coconut oil. Once the oil is shimmering, add the garlic, ginger, fresh turmeric (if using), and Serrano pepper and cook for 2 minutes, stirring frequently to prevent garlic from burning.

3. Add the cumin, coriander, chili powder, curry powder, garam masala, salt, and black pepper to taste, and cook for 30 to 60 seconds until fragrant, tossing frequently to prevent burning. If using ground turmeric instead of fresh turmeric, add the ground turmeric now, along with the rest of the spices.

4. Pour in the vegetable broth, and use a wooden spoon or spatula to scrape up any browned bits on the bottom of the pot. Add in the lentils and the crushed tomatoes and mix well. Reduce the heat to low and cover the pan with a lid. Simmer for 20 to 25 minutes, or until the lentils are cooked through and have mostly softened. If you find that the lentils are not quite soft after 25 minutes, add a few spoons more of broth or water and cook for another 5 minutes.

5. Remove the lid and stir in the coconut milk, almond butter, along with salt and pepper to taste. Continue cooking on low heat, uncovered for 5 to 8 minutes, until the curry has thickened and is creamy.

6. Finally, stir in the lemon juice and cilantro, and turn off the heat. If you want your lentils to even creamier and more on the puréed side, use an immersion blender to lightly purée the curry.

7. Serve with Basmati or Jasmine rice and Indian flatbread such as roti, paratha, or naan and garnish with additional cilantro. Store leftovers in the fridge for 3-4 days.

Casa Interact Club Helps Students Read Far & Wide

Casa Roble's Interact Club really knows how to make a difference in the world! They recently collected and donated over 700 books to Dr. Celeste McKibbin's "Love, Talk, Read" book drive. Casa Interact President Eli Durgin brought the books to her home and will be bringing more.

"I'm so grateful for these Interact students and their hearts for children's literacy," McKibbin said, "Some of the books will go to Africa, and most of the rest will be given to low income children in the greater Sacramento area. We want children to read over the summer so they start the next school year off strong!" McKibbin has collected and donated over 330,000 books locally and in over 50 countries worldwide. "It's people like Eli Durgin and the Casa Interact Club, in addition to my wonderful students at Sacramento State, that make my mission possible," she said. Orangevale resident Dr. Celeste Roseberry-McKibbin, is a speech pathology professor from Sacramento State University. She has a book drive which collects and donates free books to children experiencing poverty.

5K FUN RUN WALK RIDE & PARADE

Event to help empower women veterans to be held on weekend of Women Veterans Recognition Day

Orangevale, California June 17, 2022 –Members of our community will lace up and run for a reason- empowering women who have served our country! Most do not realize that over 2 million women veterans have served our country and this number is rapidly growing. In addition, over 200,000 are currently defending our freedom at home and abroad. As a society, when Veterans are thought of women almost never come to mind. Thanks to Melissa Washington, founder of the Women Veterans Giving (WVG), this situation is rapidly changing. This year's event will honor the 75th anniversary of the signing of the Women Armed Services Integration Act (June 12, 1948) legally permitted women to serve in the U.S. Armed Forces in a number of official capacities. WVG that was established in Sacramento is holding its 5th annual Women Veterans Fun Run Walk Ride at Orangevale Community Park on Saturday June 17th and this year a PARADE has been added to follow the Run. This event will bring awareness that women have served and to raise money for Women Veterans Giving to assist women veterans start or expand their business and to fund their professional development. To date WVG has awarded over $20,000 to women veterans! Opening Ceremony for the 5K Fun Run will begin at 8am at Orangevale Community Park with a presentation of colors and National Anthem followed by a fly over from Coast Guard Air Station Sacramento. Parade will start at 9am on Greenback Lane. There is still an opportunity to participate as an individual, team, volunteer, or sponsor.

with others. It is an interactive experience where both the audience members and performers alike share a reciprocal energy that is never the same, is dynamic, always evolving and at times even feels magical.

Since 2008 Stage Right Productions, a local community theater based out of Fair Oaks has presented it's magical summer shows that consistently delight audience members of all ages, and this summer is no different. Running June 30 -July 8th Stage Right Productions will be presenting, Little Women (Based on the novel by Louisa May Alcott) at St Matthew Lutheran Church in Rocklin. This timeless classic explores the journey into adulthood by four sisters who are challenged by societal conventions and the realities of growing up and letting go. A story suitable for the whole family to share, enjoy and experience the magic. For tickets visit: www.StageRightProductions.net

Why Community Theater?
Do you know someone who is a part of a community theater, and wonder why in the world would they do this? Why would anyone go to rehearsal night after night, spend time learning lines and movements, and then give up several weekends in a row for performances? Well, the answer is simple, community theater is addictive. The long hours of practice, the repetition of rehearsing the same scenes, dances and songs, as well as practicing so that the lights and music cues are seamless may seem crazy to some. But research shows that people who participate in community theater (whether onstage or off) have a greater sense of well-being, are more engaged in life and are generally happier because they have a sense of belonging. Community theater provides an opportunity to be creative and to connect

COURT OF AWARDS
By Meg Ervin (Author)

Girl Scouts Winding Way Service Unit, Operations Co-Lead

On May 20, 2023, Girl Scouts Winding Way Service Unit held our Court of Awards at the Orangevale Community Park. We recognized our girl scouts who received their Bronze and Silver Awards and our adult volunteers who mentored the girls.

An important element of girl scouting is community service. Our girl scouts received their Bronze and Silver Awards for creating enduring projects to help their communities. They worked with the Underground Clothing Collection to collect clothing, Nimbus Fish Hatchery to educate the public about conservation, Happy Tails Pet Sanctuary to collect supplies, Orangevale-Fair Oaks Food Bank to create recipe booklets, Eskaton Gold River to install planter boxes, Fluff Buddies to make cat beds and blankets, and by spreading random acts of kindness for World Thinking Day. The girl scouts' Bronze and Silver Awards had educational components that helped these projects last beyond the involvement of the individual girl scouts. These girl scouts created a YouTube video, booklets, and/or presentations that organizations may use regularly.

The following girl scouts were honored for their Bronze Awards which is the highest award that a Junior Girl Scout can receive:

Troop 108: Taeloni, Sara, and Sofia

Troop 1468: Olivia

Troop 1988: Isabella, Madison, Kaitlyn, Elizabeth, Alaya, Kendayl, and Lily

Troop 1043: Kelsie, Nika, Elizabeth, Angel, and Lilli

The following girl scouts were honored for their Silver Awards which is the highest award that a Cadette Girl Scout can receive:

Troop 198: Elizabeth and Dee

Troop 1468: Sarah, Lia, and Haley

Troop 14: Malak, Karly, and Myra

We are extremely grateful to all our wonderful volunteers who help all our girl scouts accomplish their goals, both great and small.
