Bingo

Bingo's Birthday Month is the last month of the year. It reminds me of moments that I'm posting here: A customer learned that a store has zero bingo cards, and so a voice inside that person's mind says "B-I-N-G no". That voice sings "B-I-N-G no" with a steady flow; finding humor can be solace (in a scenario).

ANOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Can you, we are getting ready for the new school year to start? I am sure kids don't want to think about it. Parents are thinking it can't get here soon enough. There is so much more to going back to school, then just that first day and getting back into the grind. For some families it means additional expenses. This presents a challenge like no other. So many things to think about; school supplies, after-school care, school clothes, shoes and so much more. It can be a bit little overwhelming. The list looks long, but the items are vital to the success of our children. In these difficult times, I am asking each of the parents to try not to let all this overwhelm you. Take a moment to enjoy the excitement of your child either starting school or returning back to the next grade. Each year holds special memories in the eyes of the children!

So, in the true spirit of our community, many businesses are working together to assist the local families with a few school supplies and backpacks to help ease the financial relief. Below is a list of items always needed.

Orangevale Park Development

Over 40 years ago the Orangevale Recreation & Park District developed plans for the area from Hazel Avenue to Filbert Avenue along Oak Avenue which residents enjoy today. Early 1984 in public hearings there were several activities that Orangevale residents wanted to see in this park, such as an expanded riding arena, an 18-hole Disc Golf course, a nature area, and a shaded play area for children.

Orangevale's then librarian, Dorothy Kilgore, headed a committee that requested 24 acres of the park at the corner of Hazel and Oak Avenues be set aside as a nature area. She noted that natural habitat areas were becoming increasingly endangered by growth from the building of many housing tracts and industrialization of adjoining cities of Roseville and Folsom. One thing everyone present was in favor of was saving the phenomenal oak woodland and retain it in its natural state for posterity and passive recreation that requires no development such as walking and horseback riding.

In August of 1984, the Park District had finished with the installation of a 20-station exercise course in park. The course was designed by Park Superintendent Chuck West after the park board applied for and received a Wells Fargo grant sponsoring the program. The program, which can be as challenging as one wants to make it, was built to meet the needs of adults and senior citizens. The area can be walked or jogged and is one and seven tenths of a mile in length. A large sign with big print lays out the game-field map at the first station. Special features of the course include two drinking fountains; a well lit path that can be safely used in the evening; a jogging extension; two stations to take a pulse rate; and a means of scoring one's performance by measuring the number of exercise repetitions at the different stations. The stations were constructed of California redwood and designed to be used by two people at the same time, if desired. There is also a stretching and warm-up area, followed by stations grouped in threes and separated by stretches that can be jogged or walked. Four cool down and stretch stations at end the course.

The stations have been updated, all made of metal with five stations which includes a sit up bench, a tai chi station, an upright bicycle, a vertical press, and a back extension station. The course is located close to the playground area on the Oak Avenue side of the park where parents can watch their children play in the playground area while going through the course. Other improvements made include a new family-style barbecue and grill in the reservation picnic area. This area is now covered for shade.

Following nine years of hard work and planning in 1992, the Orangevale Recreation and Park District dedicated the nature trail at the Orangevale Community Park and opened it to public use. The project was a culmination of work from community members, students from Casa Roble Fundamental High School, and included Maxine Cornwell, Dorothy Kilgore and Virginia Zbur who fought to keep the 28 acres from being turned into residential dwellings. The original design for the nature trail was done by Gail Ervin and the Orangevale Lion's Club provided funding for the trail markers with the majority of funding coming from a grant from the California Wildlife, Coastal Parkland Conservation Act of 1988 with the remaining costs provided by ORPD.

The walking trail is also wheelchair accessible. Along this trail you can observe then new sign identifying the California Central Railroad that went through Orangevale in the 1860's. This sign was designed by the Orangevale History Project and funded by the Rotary Club of Orangevale and Elegant Design Construction of Fair Oaks. As Orangevale residents we thank the planners for their foresight 40 years ago as we all enjoy the Orangevale Community Park today.

ORANGEVALE COOKS

BY
Suzanne Feblowitz

At my last book club meeting, we had a potluck luncheon to go along with the discussion of our latest book. All of the dishes were delicious and I realized that Bobbie King had shared this recipe in 2015! It was so delicious that I had to share it again! It is a perfect summer salad. If you would like to share a favorite recipe, please send a copy to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email with your recipe in case we need to contact you.

If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name.

BOBBIE'S CHOPPED SUMMER SALAD

Salad:

1 can corn, drained
1 can black beans, drained and rinsed
3 green onion, chopped
1 cucumber, chopped
½ bunch cilantro, chopped
1 tomato, chopped or cherry tomatoes, halved
2 avocados, diced gently

Dressing:

¼ cup olive oil
¼ cup red wine vinegar
1 tsp cumin
2 tsp garlic, minced
½ tsp salt, or to taste
½ tsp pepper, or to taste

Place salad ingredients in a large bowl. Mix ingredients for dressing in a small bowl. Add dressing to salad ingredients and gently toss together.

You can eat this as a salad or you can serve with tortilla chips as a dip.

2nd Annual Salsa Cookoff

200 people walked the path, tasted and voted for who they thought was the best in town. Winners will be crowned for first and second place in Blended, Chunky, Mild and of course, HOT! Salsa-teers can enjoyed demonstrations, seeing friends old and new, and tried their luck at winning any of the over great raffle drawings. Prizes donated thanks to our wonderful community businesses.

If taste testing got too hot, there was a milk station to cool your pallet; so that they could go back for more! Where do these funds go? Helping Hands OV – Orangevale- Fair Oaks helps those right here in our community who may just need a bit of help, or hope. Assisting low income, elderly and disabled with small household chores like mowing a lawn, hanging photos or changing a light bulb, HHOV volunteers do their best to nail down any small job. Not only that, but they brighten the lives of se-

REMM AND HATCH VOTED TO DIVISION III SOFTBALL ALL-ECAC TEAM

DANBURY, CT – Alfred University was one of five teams that had two members of the Division III Softball All-Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) Team on Tuesday afternoon.

The Saxons were joined by DeSales University, Farmingdale State, Springfield College and Waynesburg University as the only schools that had two recipients of the honor.

AU was represented by Jessica Remm (Carmel, IN/Carmel) as an All-ECAC outfielder and Arden Hatch (Orangevale, CA/St. Francis) as an All-ECAC pitcher. Remm and Hatch were joined by Utica University's Emily Joss as the only members of the Empire 8 out of the 13-player selection.

Hatch was also named the Empire 8 Pitcher of the Year, becoming the second Saxon in school history to earn the accolade, joining Jessica Wilcox '21. Hatch led the conference with a .209 opposing batting average while striking out 123 batters. She ended the season with a career-best 13-4 overall record while maintaining a 2.66 ERA. Hatch put together no-hitter performances against both Fredonia and Russell Sage during the spring season. She ended her collegiate career with 329 career strikeouts, which ranks third in program history. Hatch additionally received All-Empire 8 First Team honors.

Remm became the third Saxon in a row and fourth in school history to be named an Empire 8 Rookie of the Year, joining Meghan Neto (Miami, FL/Doral Academy Charter) and Mya Wells (San Ramon, CA/California) in the streak. Remm was fourth in the Empire 8 with a .411 batting average, totaling 58 hits and a conference-high 44 RBI. The 58 hits for Remm are the fourth-highest total in a single season in program history for Alfred University, while her 44 RBI ties for the third-highest mark. She was responsible for 13 doubles, two triples, and two home runs this spring for the Saxons. In the outfield, Remm put together a .967 fielding percentage that included 55 putouts. She additionally received All-Empire 8 First Team recognition.

Both Remm and Hatch earned National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Division III All-Region III Third Team. Both were also named to the All-Empire 8 First Team.

HARRIS CENTER FOR THE ARTS
presents
LONESTAR

HARRIS CENTER FOR THE ARTS is excited to present Country music legend Lonestar on Sunday, July 30, at 7:30 pm. Not every musician has the opportunity to revisit and even potentially improve upon their biggest hits. But on the forthcoming TEN to 1 album, the award-winning band Lonestar—Dean Sams (keyboards, acoustic guitar, background vocals), Michael Britt (lead guitarist, background vocals), Keech Rainwater (drums) and Drew Womack (lead vocals, guitar)—are taking a fresh look at all 10 of their chart-topping country songs. This streak started in 1996 with the band's second single, the rock-edged "No News," and continued with the following year's "Come Cryin' to Me" and "Everything's Changed." The band's quadruple-platinum 1999 album Lonely Grill spawned four No. 1 hits (including the beloved global smash "Amazed") and established Lonestar as music's pre-eminent pop-country band—a status they'd maintain through the 2000s and beyond, thanks to songs full of energy and creative lyrics ("What About Now") and ("Mr. Mom"), along with heartfelt messages and soaring melodies ("I'm Already There"). With these re-recordings, the band members were mindful of striking a balance between preserving the sonic elements fans were familiar with—and not repeating them. "It was a high wire act trying to figure out how to change it a little bit and not throw people off too much," Britt says. "I've seen bands that when they do the big hits that I know, and they change it up too much, I feel disappointed. I think people want to sing along—the vocal melody is what people really are latching onto the majority of time. "That's what was in everybody's minds when we were trying to come up with different arrangements, was trying to keep the vocal melody true," he continues. "Don't change it so much that people go, 'That's not even the same song.'" As a result, many of Lonestar's re-recordings have merely cosmetic updates and changes. "Mr. Mom" is "a little bit more country-sounding," Britt says, while Sams created some loops for "Smile" to "make it more modern-feeling, and have a little more motion," he says. "It's a little bigger-sounding than what the original record is. We kept most of the songs pretty close to the originals, but with just more updated, modern sounds." The changes to "Amazed," meanwhile, reflect the power ballad's status as an exclamation mark during concerts. "Since it's usually the biggest part or finale of the show, we've made it a little bit more bombastic," Britt says. "We didn't want to change it so much as just to make it more epic." Fittingly, TEN to 1 record reflects the ways Lonestar's hits have evolved over the years during the band's rousing, high-energy concerts. Such talent has contributed to the band winning many of music's top honors, including Academy of Country Music Awards for New Vocal Group in 1996, Single and Song of The Year in 2000, along with Humanitarian of The Year in 2002. They also won Country Music Association's Vocal Group of the Year and International Artist Achievement award in 2001. All told, Lonestar have sold more than 10.5 million records since their formation. With the release of TEN to 1 record, the band members are full of gratitude for what they've accomplished already, and excited about what the future holds. "It's amazing that we're still standing and putting on great shows after all these years," Sams says. "The fans are still coming out to our shows night after night, to see us and hear our music. That's almost 30 years of touring, and I can't tell you how grateful I am—and I've never once taken it for granted." Individual tickets range from $57-$87 and are on sale now at the Box Office at (916) 608-6888, or online at HarrisCenter.net. Box Office hours are Tuesday-Friday from 12:00pm-5:00pm, and one hour before showtime.

PETACULAR

We'd actually like to do one big feature on a really special dog, Walter! I am attaching several photos. Walter has been waiting for a home since January with no luck. We really need to find placement for him soon. Here's a little write-up for him, please edit however makes sense:

“Walter is a 7-year-old teddy bear. He was a little bit aloof at the shelter, so we sent him to foster care to learn more about what he might be like in a home. We found out that he's an easygoing and cuddly love bug who adores being around his family! He is potty trained, friendly with other dogs, and loves going on walks. He naps the day away while you're at work and greets you at the door when you get home! To set up a meet and greet with Walter or to learn more, please email foster@sac-county.gov with his animal ID, A826654.”

“Bradshaw Animal Shelter is full of adorable dogs waiting to become your new best friend! All adoptions include spay/neuter surgery, up-to-date vaccinations, microchipping, and a 1 year license for Sacramento County residents. Visit BradshawShelter.net to see all available dogs and see who you fall in love with or visit the shelter at 3839 Bradshaw Rd.!”
